THE DECLINE OF CIVILISATION

I dedicate this, my sixtieth work, to my most precious daughter, my brave, heroic, patriotic beloved child, Aykurt Atilhan, the symbol of my publications and our ideal.

I address you, my daughter, before all my dear readers and fellow idealists:

Those Jews and apostates who have separated you from your school and your homeland have also deprived your father of the chance to see you and your grandchildren and ease his longing. Yet they could not frighten you or turn you from your path.

With their money, their invisible power, their terrifying influence and secret organisations, their lies, slanders and smear campaigns, they are keeping not only me, but also the most distinguished sons of America—supposedly the land of freedom—its few heroes, generals, admirals, senators, members of parliament and nationalists, under the same pressure. You will read the full details of all this in this book.

But, my lioness of a daughter and my wounded child, believe this: sooner or later, all Muslim nations will bring this accursed minority to justice. We, too, shall continue our struggle. Take comfort in this, and raise all the children you bear on the path of this sacred cause. May God be with you.

‘Article 19 of the United Nations Charter states:’

‘Everyone has the right to think and to express their thoughts. This right is recognised for all. Everyone has the freedom to put forward any doctrine without any restrictions and without interference from the authorities, and to publish their thoughts through any means of expression, regardless of national borders.”

HUMANITY AT A TURNING POINT!

General bewilderment in the world of politics is growing by the day. The desolation of the countries we inhabit presents a tragic spectacle. The culture of today, passed down through generations as an inheritance, gives us all deep cause for reflection. The 'Protocols of the Elders of Zion', once claimed to be mere fantasy or fabrication, are today being implemented to the letter. This situation has reached a point where it can no longer be concealed or hidden. Even the Jews have ceased to deny it.

Now, every rational person capable of logical thought desires the radical revival of our world and its establishment on the principles of a reasonable order, in a manner that guarantees the freedom and rights of all peoples.

Fostering the development of nations' cultures without diluting them, and establishing systems that will satisfy every nationalist, are among the most pressing needs of our time.

* * *

The unification of nations is the most crucial condition and necessity of our time.

For centuries, nations have devoured one another, suffering immeasurable material and spiritual harm and loss and the sacrifice of countless lives, it has now become imperative, in the near future, to establish a union of interests and solidarity in the name of and for the sake of the security of the future; in other words, to live in a state of general solidarity and unity by learning from the bitter lessons of the past. Only in this way will it be possible to counter the deceit and intrigue of the ten million Jews who have taken up arms against a population of two and a half billion, and to resist the seeds of discord and slander they have sown amongst people.

The lessons and experiences we have drawn from history show us that, as we take steps towards the future, the path of destiny can only be traversed together in this manner. Otherwise, the world will be ruined because of its fragmentation and lack of cohesion. And it will be crushed between the blocs of power. These colossal blocs, which demonstrate a constant capacity for growth and strengthening, will, with their immense exploitative power, destroy the chances and possibilities for individual and small nations to live independently. This danger is just as real for the great powers we once called 'superpowers'. The hand of fate is knocking at our doors. Peace hangs by a thread, and bewildered communities, frightened and disheartened, look to the great powers in 'New York' and 'Moscow'. Just as flocks of sheep look to the lead sheep before them... Thus, the unfortunate people of today seek to weigh every word of the great powers on sensitive scales and extract meaning from every sentence. What they fear is that, one day, a madman on one of the two fronts might press a button and unleash a world war.

I wonder whether, in the near future, party politicians who govern the world with one-sided ideologies will be able to see the disasters signalled by those crimson, blood-red horizons, and steer the ship of nations—which has strayed from its political course—back onto the main channel

* Now five and a half billion.

Will they be able to steer the ship of nations, which has strayed from its political course, back onto the main channel? Will they be able to foresee these ominous and dark days in advance? Or will they, due to their own ambitions and lack of foresight, deliberately and knowingly sink their nations—along with their civilisations?

The time has come for humanity to make decisions and take precautions. However, it is difficult to believe that this task will be accomplished by the seasoned politicians whose allegiances we know.

The current forms of democracy have become lax, have gone off the rails, and have become sterile. For most of their fundamental principles are in a state of contradiction. And they run counter to the natural laws of life. For this reason, these doctrines have lost the ability to adapt to the dynamic growth and demands of the day; they no longer possess the qualities or political initiative to revive communal life.

JUDGE THEM BY THEIR WORKS, BY THEIR FRUITS!

A significant portion of these fruits has rotted or gone sour. Indeed, some have become poisonous, making them dangerous and impossible to eat.

If we were to examine the events and consequences that the democratic state, with its art and administration, has laid before us over the past forty years, and were to list its moral defeats and misdeeds side by side, we would see just how much suffering the nations have endured and what varied stages of torment they have gone through. If we were to observe how people have been made to walk over planks studded with nails and along thorny, arduous and agonising paths, as the Indian ascetics do, we would be compelled to conclude that our end will be most bitter.

This path, stained with blood, has seen the bodies of fifty million people piled up along its edges, merely during the Second World War. The majority of these were the finest and most distinguished sons of civilisation.

The bones of these dead, along with their homelands, were placed on the gambling table at Yalta, Tehran, Potsdam and London with utter callousness and cold-bloodedness. (1) At this gambling table, they were, for instance, the accusers of a system responsible for the horrific murders committed in the Katyn forests. This system, however, detonated the first atomic bombs over Hiroshima and Nagasaki to celebrate its victories, and thereafter unleashed the communist hordes upon a Europe reduced to ruins, ordering them to commit massacres, extermination, rape and annihilation, and to carry out boundless plunder and murder. Yet, in that moment of boundless hatred, the democracies had pledged that they would not subject any nation to subjugation, slavery or starvation, and that eternal peace would be prepared for every nation. (2) However, the nations, in a state of bewilderment born of political despair, submitted to Russian subjugation overnight, thereby driving themselves to ruin.

As we all know, the Westerners not only supplied the Communists with their finest weapons, but also handed over their production secrets, thereby enabling the Russians to emerge as the state that profited most from both World Wars. As if that were not enough, by annihilating the world's nationalists—the sole antidote to communism—they have dragged humanity to the brink of a profound catastrophe. In doing so, democratic systems have effectively cut the branch they were sitting on, reducing their own systems to a ridiculous and unbelievable state. For this reason, communism is today preparing to launch a general offensive across a broad front throughout the entire world. Thus, those who aided the communists during the Second World War will see that the weapons and inventions they supplied to the Russians have returned to them in a more sophisticated form, intended to destroy them.

(1) For example, just as the Dutch-Jewish Roosevelt handed over Turkey and the Straits to the Jewish Stalin...

(2) The eternal war.

- The democracies have failed to realise that, through their unjust stance and without being aware of the role and instigation of global Zionism behind the scenes, they have nurtured communism within their own ranks. This has been made clear by the blood-soaked path where, during the Second World War alone, the corpses of fifty million people were piled up—the vast majority of whom were the elite and distinguished sons of civilisation.

LENIN in his own time:

'The day will come when the bourgeoisie will compete with one another to be hanged by the communists as soon as possible, and to hasten their own downfall, and they will queue up and wait their turn.'

With these words, he had revealed his optimistic view of the future. Although the democracies, due to their spiritual impotence, have ravaged the world with two world wars, they have not contented themselves with failing to resolve a single national cause; on the contrary, by adding new enigmas and issues to the old ones, they have dragged the world and humanity into an even darker abyss. Consequently, democracies are being driven into even greater and inescapable dead-ends by communists who never waver from their goals and objectives. The communists, meanwhile, continue to set fire to the rotten edifice of 'the democracy of living standards'. Moreover, they are mocking democracies in full view of the entire world.

The first bullet fired from behind the barricades and the first trigger pulled could mark the beginning of a world war far more terrifying than any that has gone before. As the most recent example, one might cite the Berlin affair, which has become an intractable problem. The scene there resembles a vast concentration camp. Every day we read in the newspapers that freedom-loving individuals, who refuse to accept life as prisoners in a state of captivity, are being killed without hesitation as they attempt to cross the barbed wire. At the same time, we also see how indifferent and unconcerned the world's conscience and the great powers remain. Those very great powers which dragged their commanders-in-chief and statesmen before a court for a few Jews and brutally executed them, and even went so far as to fly in Jewish executioners all the way from America.

Leaving West Berlin aside, the democracies have remained indifferent and inactive in the face of the Hungarian events, which are still fresh in the conscience of nations.

Strangely enough, in the face of such blatant violations of rights and freedoms, and the passive and cowardly stance adopted by democracies, the world's conscience is always ready to make concessions.

It is also undeniable that, on the democratic front too—albeit belatedly—many voices have begun to rise up, as people have come to their senses in the face of these evils and been spurred into action by the mountains of disaster and death. Strangely enough, among these are bankrupt politicians and adventurers of the Churchill type. The man known as Churchill, who took the lead in inciting the war, is one of the principal figures responsible for the outbreak of the Second World War. For this man encouraged the war with a mindless hatred and turned it into a fait accompli. For this reason, he fell from grace in his own country and was responsible for the collapse of the British Empire and Britain's descent from that magnificent position to a secondary role.

It is world Jewry that has reduced him to this state. This man, who was once vehemently opposed to the Jews and then fell into their clutches, now seems to have seen the truth again; but what good is that when he is in his eighties and it is too late?!..

With one foot in the grave and in a half-paralysed state, Churchill, in a fit of remorse and pangs of conscience, recalled the wrongs he had committed —namely the injustices he inflicted upon Germany—and declaring: ‘We killed the wrong pig.’ This statement has gone down in history. This sentence demonstrates that Churchill did not possess the qualities of a great statesman, as the notorious subversive Freemason and Zionist circles had praised him.

In his memoirs, Churchill attempted to cover up his missteps during the war with a genuine moral hypocrisy; despite being a high-ranking Freemason, he deceived the Anglo-Saxon world by portraying himself as a devout believer. All the statements and explanations in his memoirs are not objective but are riddled with half-truths. In reality, the true causes of the war, the preparatory stages, his sincere collaboration with international subversives—whose most prominent representative in America was Roosevelt—and his support for the Polish campaign, which had been meticulously prepared down to the last detail, were all accepted by Roosevelt. Churchill glosses over all these crucial points in his memoirs. Consequently, fearing that these and similar obscure matters might come to light, he lacked the courage to appear as a witness at the Nuremberg trials to which he had been summoned.

Churchill and his ilk will never escape being remembered in history as the destroyers of the British Empire and of Europe. Churchill, having succumbed to the influence of the malevolent spirits for whom he worked, realised that escape was impossible and thus came to realise at Potsdam that he had lost the party. Who, then, is the powerful man capable of dispelling all these sorceries today? Khrushchev? Kennedy? Which leader?

The representatives of these two great blocs repeat, not only in Geneva but at every conference, that they are always advocates of peace. Furthermore, societies for world peace have been established in every country; congress after congress is being held are being held to educate people on the subject of peace. As if people were not already eager and ready for peace... In Geneva, the nations' peace and disarmament delegations have been working tirelessly for over a decade, discussing nuclear weapons and striving to lay the groundwork for peaceful cooperation between capitalism and communism.

Yet, although the genuine peace desired by all parties is within reach, the initiative and resolve of all these delegations simply cannot cross that magical threshold. Even when a solution seems to be in sight, they stumble over certain details and technicalities when it comes to identifying their opponent, and these peace-loving people simply cannot manage to break free from this devilish circle.

Those observing the events with excitement and interest are astonished that, despite such great efforts being brought together to achieve a common goal, good intentions simply cannot succeed. For this reason, it is only natural to view the scepticism of those who regard the activities of these peace brokers with suspicion.

There are many who view the atomic and disarmament conferences with a critical eye and claim that these conferences, which have been ongoing for years, are nothing more than a charade. The prevailing view is that these conferences, which have been taking place for years, are merely a means of buying time to catch up with the progress made by rivals in the field of nuclear weapons.

'Whilst the authorised representatives on the Geneva stage continue to blow the trumpets of peace, those behind the scenes are striving to prepare even larger, more destructive bombs as quickly as possible. The side that first manufactures this terrifying super-bomb will force its enemy and rival to their knees.'

Both sides' laboratories are producing ever-larger bombs within a short space of time, and with each one, their explosive power—measured in millions of tonnes of TNT—is increasing, and preparing to subdue the opposing side and force concessions through this explosive power. At the same time, scientific and technical achievements in the field of space travel are being exploited for propaganda purposes. All of this is supposedly being done in the name of so-called ‘dear peace’. I wonder what the end result of this ridiculous game of peace will be?...

NEW POLICIES WITH NEW MEANS

If suffering humanity wishes to attain peace and tranquillity, it cannot continue on this path. To resolve the issues of our time, we must resort to new, objective and reasonable measures; we must base ourselves on a scientific and universal outlook on life; and from this perspective, the concept of the state must be revived through the joint efforts of all nations. For this ideal to be realised, it is evident and essential that a new entity be formed, comprising independent-minded, free and constructive men capable of withstanding the conditions of the times and rising to the challenge.

Partisan, that is, today's one-sided party politics, hinders the peaceful development of nations in accordance with their aspirations and character. Multi-party systems divide the collective strength of nations into as many fragments as possible, creating the typical and feeble state of affairs seen in today's democracies. For this reason, the withdrawal of today's false democracies from the political stage is absolutely essential and imperative.

It is essential to avoid the subversive activities of political parties whose ideological roots and command centres lie in foreign lands—most of which invariably exploit specific groups of people for ideological and self-serving interests. Their harmful activities, of which we are direct witnesses, are destroying all national institutions. Another

In other words: The success of the groups and individuals supported by the Zionists and Freemasons invariably works to the detriment of the rest of the noble masses.(1)

The majority of party politicians are not individuals who are aware of their responsibilities, possess character, and are prepared to serve their nation and homeland with their whole heart, being and spiritual essence; rather, they are composed of careerists consumed by the lust for power. These individuals seek to seize power within the narrow confines of party principles, without grasping the essence of the matter... The fundamental principle of their methods of struggle and political manoeuvring is this:

DIVIDE AND RULE!

This inappropriate and obstructive situation must be fundamentally transformed, and in its place, a healthy and orderly conception of the state that serves the general interest of society must be established. In this way, the abuse of power and mismanagement, which are particularly widespread in multi-party nations, will be eliminated. Professional committees must be established to protect the specific and economic interests of various professional organisations. It is essential that these committees comprise the most distinguished figures from every professional group.

Whilst reviewing all these factors, one must also take into account that in every country, the subject of RELIGION has been exploited to serve the aims and ambitions of opposing sides. It has been observed that those who have corrupted the purity inherent in all religions by creating various sects have led religions astray and exploited every aspect of them for the benefit of different groups; the existence of two thousand sects in America and, in particular, the British support for numerous deviant Islamic sects are the most vivid examples of this.

The Jews, who have severed religions from human conscience and used them as tools for sectarian divisions within the state, hold the highest positions in the churches of Europe positions, infiltrated religions, controlled many military forces, and in recent times have been plotting new intrigues under the guise of a 'church union'—these are also significant events.

(1) If we look around us and pay attention, we can see this in all its vividness before our very eyes.

It is a bitter truth that has been proven: the hostility towards religion occasionally observed in our country draws its inspiration and strength from the same Jewish sources.

Christian clergy have undertaken very serious and strenuous efforts to remove anti-Jewish passages from the Gospels.

As for Muslims, behind the Iron Curtain, significant activities in this direction are also evident. The efforts to interpret the Holy Qur'an in the manner they desire and to find a way to bring the verses that do not suit their purposes into the spotlight, under the leadership of a Muslim figure named Muhiddinof who rose to the highest echelons of the Soviet administration, all fall within this category.

In Turkey, whilst international subversive forces—such as Freemasonry, whose roots lie abroad—roam freely, causing and instigating all manner of corruption, the endeavour to ascribe malicious meanings to Islam's most innocent and legitimate movements, and to eradicate the love of religion and the strength of faith from people's hearts, is likewise the product of the same aim and ambition.

Although the Islamic faith treats religious and state affairs as distinct, in attempts aimed at stifling all forms of freedom of conscience, the exact opposite argument is put forward, and all fire is directed at the sacred heart of Islam. For it is only in this way—by severing Islam, the religion of our very nature, from the soul of our nation and reducing believers to the status of robots—that it will be possible to bring us to our knees.

In parallel with all these thoughts, we may also put forward the following observation, like the links of a chain:

The inner workings of all international organisations are entirely based on political ambitions. For they seek to infiltrate the very heart of nations, softening them, loosening their roots, dissolving their spiritual and moral defences, and moulding them towards foreign ideologies and objectives to achieve their aims. This objective is nothing other than a world republic that will work on behalf of the Jews and submit to their dictatorship.

This idea of a world republic, propagated by various supra-national organisations and even attracting large sections of the public, amounts to boiling all races together in a single cauldron to make them homogeneous, and uniting them all without making any distinction between them. The aim here is to regard them all as a single mass, without distinguishing whether their skin is black, white or red, and, contrary to nature, to make them all servants of the Jews. Nature, however, commands the preservation of the traditions that have come down to our time from time immemorial, and seeks to develop and preserve them in a superior form by perfecting them. This is the product of thousands of years. Nevertheless, the forced unification of all races and nations (integration des peuples) also implies the social fusion of opposites. This amounts to, for example, the destruction of the most delicate organ of organic growth and development—which is, of course, the human being. In an age of science where racial purity and breeding are valued in dogs, horses, poultry and livestock, and where their specific characteristics are regarded as the highest measure of value, how is it possible to exclude humans from this? Nevertheless, the Jews have made great efforts to turn the racial issue into a crime, particularly after the Second World War, and have even enlisted the support of certain unscrupulous government officials for their cause. Such a mindset leads people astray from the ways of nature, undermines human health, causes sexual perversion, and ultimately leads humanity to decline and ruin. Ta-

Any severe and reckless interference with the laws of nature, just as the complete destruction of forests leaving not a single sapling behind, brings about a terrible backlash by affecting the nervous system and health in interventions against people and their races. World Jewry, which is attempting such interventions, is beginning to realise the consequences of its long-standing efforts, yet remains staunchly racist itself,

The Jews' movement, aimed at uniting other races in this manner, is mercilessly condemning nations to cultural death.

The path of history is littered with the corpses of nations that have suffered this bitter twist of fate. These nations have either perished entirely or, as weak, soulless mixed tribes, have been forced to crawl for centuries under the shadow of their great past, their development set back by the ages.

Until now, 'RACE' has been the key to world history in human societies. Islam, without interfering in racial matters whatsoever, without regard to the colour of people's skin, and without granting privileges to any, has made those who have embraced the civilisation of the Prophet Muhammad brothers through their 'faith', and has not meddled in other matters.

The Jews, however, unlike all other nations of the world, have accepted and established their racial prejudices and racial consciousness as a religious duty and principle. In this way, they have managed to preserve their national essence in a relatively pure form and to develop it. The fact that they have managed to preserve their racial characteristics whilst living as a tiny minority, driven from one country to another and scattered across the globe for two thousand years, serves as a unique example in this regard. The Jews will never melt into any other melting pot.

The future; wherever a spiritual or physical illness or defect is observed in any aspect of human life, these—

It will recklessly embark on the path of correction. If this does not happen, they will be spiritually annihilated due to the publications and activities that promote decline and ruin, as they fall under the influence of the foreign systems that the Jews and their servants, the Freemasons, have sought to spread throughout the world in recent times. To break free from the spiritual chains imposed upon the people of the twentieth century as a result of a subversive effort that began centuries ago, humanity must cease to be objective and become subjective. To put this more plainly in Turkish, people must penetrate not merely the surface of the schemes being played out before their eyes, but their spirit and purpose. In other words, one must exercise decisive control over the past. Indeed, in this regard, one must exercise control not merely over the last century, but as far back as the Middle Ages. Nations stand on the threshold of a new, happy and vibrant era that is about to dawn. For this life to fully come into being, there is a need for experiences drawn from a general outlook on life, as well as entirely new, strong and robust methods. Despite this chaotic, decaying atmosphere, the sincere fighters and guides of every nation are showing their citizens new, sunny and happy horizons.

In America, where the Jews hold the most sway today, this hopeful movement stands out more than anywhere else. To see elected state governors, high-ranking generals, admirals, members of parliament and senators at the forefront of this new initiative naturally instils a sense of joy and courage.

In this matter, the primary duty of governments is to preserve the noble essence of their nations, to uphold it, and to lift it from its current wretched state to greater heights. The chances of success for governments that fail to do this are dwindling day by day. Alongside the undeniable influence and power of the Jews, it is essential to take into account the awakening consciousness of all the nations of the world, which is now stirring with intensity and beginning to observe the past with horror.

THE ORIGIN OF THE CURRENT SITUATION!

The world has never been in such an unfortunate and perilous state. Any thinking person is naturally under the influence of the following questions: How did the world come to this chaotic state? What forces and factors caused the decline of civilisation? What meaning does history ascribe to this?

If we wish to explain the connections between the main causes of this global catastrophe, we must examine the political events of the past half-century and view them as if watching a film reel; in doing so, we will also be able to see how the great Turkish-Ottoman Empire collapsed suddenly within a short space of time. In the blink of an eye, the sudden outbreak of a revolution, followed by the horrific 31 March disaster—massacres, looting, wars waged without consulting the people; abuses of power, misrule, oppression and despotism, and the sudden, chaotic collapse of our six-century-old empire within the span of nine years will strike our eyes with hair-raising horror.

Only by tearing apart and shredding the veil of lies and filth cast over them like a net can people succeed in bringing the truth to light and gaining mastery over the recent past, and thus begin the reconstruction of civilisation anew. The historical procession begins in the present, moving backwards towards history and the past.

It is claimed that the last two world wars arose due to political ignorance, and this idea is being deliberately propagated. In reality, however, the activities of these supra-national secret forces, which have been operating over the long term, are now beginning to be perceived clearly and unambiguously.

World Jewry, having achieved its objectives, along with Freemasonry and all its organisations under its command, deliberately instigated the two world wars, led humanity down a dark path, spiritually impoverished nations, and thus plunged the world into its current dire situation.

Our world today resembles a severely disabled person who has had many of their limbs and vital organs removed. Due to these various impairments suffered by its body and soul, its material and spiritual freedom has been largely undermined and restricted; the shape the future will take depends on the assistance, desires and mercy of those who have reduced it to this state. Today's humanity is powerless to do anything but submit to and acquiesce in every form of humiliation. Through various shocks and forms of indoctrination, our inner freedom has also been lost. The life of the will has taken on unnatural forms, and ideals and hopes for the future have been surrendered to FATE. Civilisation has been damaged, both materially and spiritually. Today's civilisation appears, on the surface, to have been repaired, and people have been driven into another sphere to survive, forced to spend their time working and earning money there. Thus, people feel to some extent free, demonstrate their creativity, and are able to forget their days of deprivation, casting aside their political and ideological thoughts in a turbulent manner. The widespread development and construction we witness today has become the sole aim and standard of living for modern man. 'Let there be no me, and after me, the deluge' has become the motto of the day. Yet, whilst modern man appears to have become entirely materialistic, this is merely superficial and...

It is a fact. Despite the ills afflicting civilisation and the heavy bloodshed and health crises caused by the two world wars, humanity has risen to the occasion on both occasions and, through its diligence, has managed to achieve a remarkable standard of living. However, a significant portion of this prosperity flows into the coffers of American banks, the ownership of which is common knowledge. Thus, people are being dragged towards an uncertain future in a wretched manner and on a material foundation. The examples we have given so far apply, more or less, to all civilised nations.

Over the past fifty years, and following the First World War, Turkey and its allies have been subjected to a modern inquisition. This modern inquisition has been developed within a system characterised not only by starvation regimens but also by spiritual torment. This system of torment has gone so far as to take the very life of a nation through spiritual and psychological assaults, with the aim of destroying its very identity. Propaganda and the efforts of invisible organisations, marked by hostility towards religion, faith, sacred values, traditions and even history, are creating feelings of inferiority in some people and instilling a sense of guilt in them. It is evident that many people still find themselves in this state of inferiority today. As a result of the constant suggestions and complexes instilled in people's minds by Jewish propaganda, such negative feelings have arisen in some individuals that viewing their own great statesmen, nation-builders and national leaders as guilty, and attributing responsibility for all harm to them, has become second nature. The primary reason for this is that the vast majority of humanity remains unaware that the two world wars were orchestrated and planned by the Jews and the Freemasons.

What is even more distressing is that the new generation of democrats have made it their creed to view their past in a negative light, to regard the great statesmen of the past as guilty, and to disparage them. Many of those we call 'new democrats' have, through the brainwashing operations of a certain organisation—to use the modern term——have been compelled to completely forget the recent past through new beliefs and ideologies. Many of them, not content with this, have gone so far as to insult their own history and glories. Such people are competing with one another on this ill-fated path, engaging in admiration for Israel and the defence of the Jews as if they were securing a place in hell. It is also a fact that many of them have been rewarded with Jewish money. The column after column of articles extolling the Jews, which we have witnessed and which have persisted for a long time, are certainly not written for the sake of God or for free.

The Jew, who controls all the media—radio, television, cinema, newspapers, magazines, and every means of addressing the public—uses this to dominate the world's conscience and trample upon all human rights, whilst simultaneously using this noble principle as a mask for himself.

In the past, when wars ended, the defeated side would pay reparations, make certain concessions, peace would be established, and every nation would return to normal life and freedom. Today, this is not the case. Although eighteen years have passed since the war ended, humanity is not moving towards peace, but towards a third world war in which civilisation and humanity—including the Jews—will be utterly destroyed. We can find the sources of this unquenchable hatred and inexhaustible savagery in the Jews' own religious texts.

In Deuteronomy 2:7 of the Torah, we find the following:

> 'And when Allah delivers them into your hands, and you strike them, you shall utterly destroy them. You shall make no truce with them, nor shall you show them mercy,'

How can this be a book of religion, how can this be the God of the Jews, that it issues such merciless and cruel decrees regarding a defeated enemy? To annihilate the enemy in his entirety after defeating him, to make no agreement with him, and to show him no mercy—what could be more cruel than this? Such teachings can by no means be attributed to the All-Merciful and Compassionate Lord.

Such statements certainly do not exist in the true Torah revealed to Moses, but are fabrications of hard-hearted rabbis. However, the sentence we have quoted above is, of course, significant and worthy of attention in that it reveals the cause and motive behind today's perpetual war.

Today, the Jews are seeking to establish a global dictatorship under the guise of a 'world republic'. Wars are nothing more than a game of chance designed to help them achieve this goal.

The plan for a 'world state' or 'world republic' has long been in the making by a powerful group comprising internationalists. They are equipped with boundless material resources and means. They have masked the world's eyes very well, veiled them with gauze, seized the strategic points, and established thousands of bases through a finely woven network. Like nerve cells, they receive their directives from an unseen brain trust. Whether its centre is in New York, Moscow, or elsewhere is of little consequence... This organisation operates through underground operational systems and centres designed to establish global dictatorship, utilising the most modern scientific and technical tools and equipment. To conceal and mask these from the outside world, they possess educational centres, local branches, executive committees, and secret laboratories. In these centres, long ago

In accordance with meticulously prepared and organised plans and programmes of action, exceptional experts who have distinguished themselves in the fields of diplomacy, high finance, public psychology, espionage and the art of revolution are at work, and they exert influence on world politics in order to achieve their objectives. Their intelligence services penetrate right into the cabinets of all governments. Their servants and apprentices are positioned at the key junctures of the entire public opinion industry. When crises and critical situations arise, their reconnaissance groups spring into action and, within a short time, fan the flames of revolution or war. The methods of operation and the secret of the success of these shadowy figures manifest themselves, as required, in the guise of a wolf in sheep's clothing, or at times donning the mantle of a revolutionary, fighting from behind barricades. Recent history is replete with abundant and instructive examples in this regard.

If one were to investigate the subversive underground activities of the communists during the two world wars, their efforts would fill mountains of files. Their sole aim is to overthrow bourgeois states. Here, it would be appropriate and fitting to refresh the memories of those short-sighted politicians.

The torch of the Red Fire has been planted in every country by the Comintern. This Red organisation has enveloped the entire world like a spider's web, linking tens of thousands of operational cells together. The Red Spider itself was based in Moscow. These sabotage groups, both within and outside Europe, had established their command centre in the heart of Europe. From here, the pulse of the revolution and its assaults were directed in every direction. Everything had been planned in advance. They possessed industrial groups, maritime networks, and police networks; military, commercial and industrial espionage, propaganda, and courier services. They infiltrated their trained agents into the organisation mentioned above and established communist cells all over the world—

They were active in certain specific sectors as well. The primary duty of such agents was to monitor their own communist comrades and keep them under surveillance. The duty of these specially trained agents was to ruthlessly and mercilessly eliminate traitors and dangerous rivals emerging from their own ranks, or to transport and hand them over alive to Moscow,

An endless river of dollars flowed from Moscow and New York into the heart of Europe, seeping into thousands of channels. Their first major successes were soon evident. In Germany, the first violent act of sabotage manifested itself during a munitions workers' strike. This was followed by mutinies within the German naval fleet. Strangely enough, these events occurred during the most turbulent and critical hours of the First World War. As a result of these actions, the activity of the German front lines and the morale of the troops were severely paralysed, thereby aiding the enemy in achieving victory in a short time.

The heroism displayed by the great Turkish armies on the Gallipoli, Galicia, Sarikamish and Sinai fronts, which went beyond the limits of human endurance, and the miracles they performed, were rendered in vain on the Sinai front due to the collective espionage, treachery, subversive propaganda and sabotage carried out by the Jews; instead, a dreadful defeat and a panic led to the collapse of our magnificent empire.

The Jews, who have accomplished this task with such artistic skill, cunning and hypocrisy, no longer care about anything: through numerous writers and works, they neither fear nor feel any shame in proclaiming and exposing to the world the ingratitude they have committed and the treachery they have perpetrated, as if these were objects of pride. They are rubbing our negligence and our indifference and frivolity regarding the homeland in our faces; alas, we show no reaction whatsoever. What could be more painful for a nation than this?

? Especially the writings of certain authors who praise these heartless individuals—those who have set fire to our homeland, caused the deaths of thousands of innocent Muslim Turkish soldiers, and then settled on the very land they seized. Are all these not the greatest and most terrifying of the calamities befalling the noble Turkish nation?

Returning to the subject: After the First World War, all nations—under false promises such as the Wilson Principles—were tricked into laying down their arms and were ruined. The Turkish and German nations suffered greatly from this scheme. The food boycott imposed thereafter led to the starvation of hundreds of thousands of people within four months. All these events were the result of the madness of Versailles and Sèvres. Through this, certain nations were intended to be driven to a spiritual death. It has become clear that, whilst the Turks, deceived by the false and hypocritical promises of the West's Judaised politicians, sought an armistice and peace, it was the global Zionists and Freemasons who, whilst we were in a wounded and exhausted state, unleashed Greek hordes upon us and sought to consign us to the dustbin of history.

We thus came to know the true nature of the 'civilised' West through the brutal provisions of the Treaty of Sèvres. We rose up against this and wrought the miracle of the 'National Struggle'. The honour of this achievement belongs exclusively and indivisibly to the sons of Anatolia. This humble writer, having had the honour of commanding a few thousand of these lions during those days of reckoning, is filled with a deep sense of peace of mind. The occupation of a large part of our country, the pressure exerted by Jewish finance and the Freemasons on our resources and economy, created major crises. Furthermore, the plan to occupy Anatolia, orchestrated by world Freemasonry and international Jewry, drove our nation to the brink of rebellion. A thousand and one atrocities, and atrocities unprecedented in history, as the enemy hordes advanced with depravity; after committing hair-raising murders and acts of baseness unworthy of manhood and humanity, they suffered a humiliating defeat at the hands of the Turkish bayonet, their corpses cast into the sea.

As a result of all these events, our front was plagued by hunger, unemployment, despair and a breakdown in morale. The Red Front knew how to capitalise on this situation to the full, turning up the heat on the machinations and accelerating the grind of the mill.

Whenever dark clouds gather on the horizon, or whenever there is unrest and disruption within the country, we see that the Red Front is taking advantage of the situation. In our country, which has been in turmoil for the past two years, left-wing activities and overt Red propaganda are prime examples of this. It is a bitter admission and a stark truth that the world's largest Jewish newspapers, with their millions of copies, have written that they were punished for the former government's turning its back on Israel and aligning itself with the Islamic world; this carries great significance. It is hoped that those who follow our publications on this subject have uncovered the truth behind certain matters. In such critical times, what do the gentlemen in charge of our authoritarian and national security have to say about left-wing and apostate writers frequently and freely travelling abroad to carry out activities there?

Whilst the Jews and the Red Front are thus active in every country, let us not imagine that the world's noble nationalists, conservatives and upright sons are sitting idly by. This time, the most striking demonstration took place in England, the country on which the Jews rely; there, British nationalists held an unprecedented rally in the heart of London, in the famous 'Trafalgar' Square, and openly expressed their hatred for Judaism, which is dragging the world into flames, a third war and ruin. So much so that the hundreds gathered in this historic square

A thousand noble Englishmen; had the police not blocked the city's access roads, the total would have reached a million with the people arriving in lorries and village carts. England, and the Cabinet in particular, was shaken to its core. The Jews, who had debased democracy and used it merely as a mask, were dumbfounded by this harbinger of death of a movement; they put pressure on the Home Secretary. Although the Minister replied that there was no provision in English law to prevent such attempts, and that democracy meant respect for the people's rights and freedoms, the world press—which had been bought off by the Jews—did not hesitate to open fire with a barrage of criticism. The repercussions of this have reached as far as the United States. The Jews, who had brought England under their influence in the past and America in the last century, were so terrified by these successive British rallies and uprisings—each louder than the last—that eventually the White House advisers—who are Jews—felt compelled to issue the following statement. The statement reads as follows:

> 'Britain has lost an empire, but has not yet found a role of its own. Without being part of a united Europe, it sought to establish an independent and distinct policy based on special ties and relations with America. Furthermore, it has been seized by the desire to play a leading role and have a say as the leader of the Commonwealth of Nations; yet this Commonwealth possesses neither a solid nor a clearly defined political entity, nor does it in fact constitute a true union, nor does it possess a common power. There exist only loose, very fragile economic ties between them, ready to break at any moment. Britain seeks to act as a mediator and go-between between Russia and America by working on its own, and this stance can be explained by the weakness and fragility of its military power."

This harsh statement comes from the White House and its advisers. Naturally, it has provoked reactions not only in Britain but across the world, 'The Jews,' they say, 'are ungrateful people; as soon as they sensed that the nation in Britain, which had nurtured them with its bounty, had turned against them, and that a conflagration capable of making one long for the Nazi era was beginning to spark in the chimneys of London, they turned their guns on their benefactors and began to speak out from the highest office.' However, these words did not go unanswered; the statement by the British Prime Minister, McMillan, as reported in the press, was as follows:

> 'Those who have held such views in the past have been deceived throughout history. Napoleon, the German Emperor, and finally Hitler all thought in this way and paid the price.'

The British Prime Minister's reply is highly significant. It seems that once the Jews had lost all hope in Britain due to recent events, they did not hesitate to drive a wedge between the two great nations that share the same language. The alarm bells of great danger have begun to ring. In the horror of Hitler's resurgence, the world has begun to convulse. A 'Socialists' congress was held in London. A writer, whose left-wing publications are met with utter contempt by the entire Turkish nation, attended this event and obtained a passport with remarkable ease and courtesy.

If, in a country, a true son of the nation—who has fought in four wars for that homeland and gained fame for his heroism in all of them—is treated as a prisoner in his own land for the sake of Jewish intrigue and favour, for the sake of his slander, or perhaps for the sake of the money he has spent for this cause, this is nothing other than the depravity of the Jew, as we have experienced it. It does not break our resolve, nor does it shake our faith; it merely increases our energy and determination.

What a great honour it is to have fought for forty-five years with a strength that has stamped an eternal mark of humiliation upon their foreheads, as decreed by the Holy Qur'an. May be endless praise and thanks to Allah, who deemed us worthy of this honour.

The Red Front intensified its agitation by exploiting the post-war situation to the fullest. As a result, trade unions and workers' groups began to take on a deeper red hue. Thankfully, as we had neither trade unions nor large-scale industry at the time, there was no activity among workers' groups. Here, these schemes manifested themselves in entirely different ways. The ultimate objective of world Jewry, as declared at the First World Zionist Congress, was to overthrow the Turkish state and establish an Israeli state in Palestine. To this end, every form of treachery and every crime was resorted to, and ultimately, they succeeded.

Today, the borders of the Jewish state extend from the Nile to the Euphrates, encompassing Turkey as well. This presented the greatest opportunity to capitalise on the disarray of the Ottoman Empire, which had emerged defeated from the First World War, for a claim and aspiration that initially seemed like a mere fantasy but eventually began to materialise step by step, stage by stage. Those who had dragged the state into war and instigated revolutions had fled the country; the nation's morale was shattered, and famine and destitution had set in. Most of Anatolia's young and vigorous sons had fallen as martyrs on the battlefields, whilst those who remained were maimed and disabled. The government was powerless, and the country lay under occupation by enemies both within and without.

At this time, the cries of owls began to rise from the ruins. The voice of the agent of American Jews, the so-called 'turnaround', filled the air. He wrote the following:

'A united Muslim world is a fantasy; the State of Israel must be established. And... And Turkey must cede its eastern provinces to the Armenians and, with what remains, enter into an American Mandate.'

We must pause here for a moment: the Americans are, to put it bluntly, a tough-minded people. They are rough-and-ready folk who have shed much blood for freedom. Yet the prophecy of Benjamin Franklin, which we read a moment ago, has come to pass; in the last century, this nation has also fallen under the sway of the Jews. Now, the noble and upright sons of this great nation are striving with all their might to break these chains of spiritual bondage.

Although the Dönme undertook extremely excessive, reckless and audacious attempts to place a defeated Turkey under American protection—or, more accurately, at the beck and call of world Jewry—the wounded lion that is the Turkish nation shattered its chains and launched a 'National Struggle', thereby throwing their plans into disarray.

Many years have passed, yet the Dönme remains active, and indeed enjoys greater prestige in the eyes of governments...

As for our Western allies, strikes by industrial and dock workers, acts of terrorism and uprisings, as well as various acts of sabotage and rebellions from Hamburg to Hong Kong, continued as daily occurrences. Fires and mutinies on merchant ships have devastated the sea routes and economies of nations already impoverished by the war.

The Jews, who fanned the flames of war and pitted nations against one another, adopted the destruction of Turkey—in the East and particularly in the Middle East—as their primary objective, with the aim of establishing absolute dominance in Europe, starting with Germany.

Lenin openly stated these bitter truths at every opportunity. After the war, we now see the red terror reigning in the streets of Europe. The people of the cities were trembling at the time, awaiting and contemplating the events to come. The liberal press, under Jewish influence, had taken on a pink-red hue. The—

It was seething with hatred, festering within. This press was accompanying the red advance by attacking nationalist and conservative values and consigning them to the dustbin of history. Morality had sunk to its lowest level. Do we not still see such examples from that day to this? Indeed, in the bewildering times of recent years, have not many apostates, Freemasons and communist writers attacked this country's pure-hearted nationalist sons like dogs? Furthermore, in the United States, where some two thousand religious sects operate freely, deviant and malicious organisations such as the 'Jehovah's Witnesses'—who appear Christian but are, as their name implies, Jewish—have begun to meddle.

As if the crimes and acts of treason committed by the Freemasons within the country over the past fifty-three years were not enough, the emergence of this new scourge of the Jehovah's Witnesses is by no means something to be tolerated.

It is a matter worthy of consideration that our leaders, whilst such dangerous, unpatriotic organisations exist, are preoccupied solely with nationalists. A pitiful, tragic matter...

Civilisation was living out its final days. We must believe that the fact it did not perish entirely was solely due to individuals of iron will, such as Mussolini and Hitler. Even if our own leaders do not believe this, in great cultural nations such as Britain, and even among prominent figures, professors and scholars known for their hostility towards Germany, this truth is being acknowledged.

The Jews; after the Second World War, they sought to brand every right-wing, nationalist and anti-communist movement as Fascism. Here too, whenever there is the slightest stir in the name of rights, freedom and the nation, certain people, oblivious to the world, seek to portray this legitimate activity as a fascist movement; this stems not so much from their ignorance as from a complex of wanting to curry favour with the Jews. In our country, there is no one among nationalist and honourable people who would serve foreign ideologies, even if they were in line with their own ideals. Both systems have adapted to their own structures and yielded good results; there are lessons for humanity to be learned from them, namely:

A force that acts crudely, savagely and recklessly, driven by numerous spiritual and physical factors, and is determined to do anything, can only be countered with tactics and systems of the same nature, namely: countering terror with terror, and overcoming an extreme socialist ideal such as communism with an ideal that is superior, more perfect, and enjoys the general approval of nations.

In Germany and Italy—countries denounced by the Jews as 'National Socialism' and 'Fascism'—the thesis of nationalism was put forward as the best ideology of the time, and in both countries it was adapted to a synthesis of capital and labour based on Western culture. These matters, especially after so many years have passed, have been subjected to history's verdict, and they cannot be swept under the carpet with mere disputes, accusations, ignorant remarks, and Jewish propaganda. Especially not now, after days have passed and world Jewry has brought yet more calamities and misfortunes upon the nations!...

Germany, the heart of Europe, having escaped the calamities and misfortunes brought upon the world's Jewry and its servants thanks to its own robust constitution, saw the spiritual and nervous breakdowns in other countries—Turkey foremost among them—begin to resolve and diminish. Fresh life began to flow into the disorganised and paralysed economic systems, and fresh blood began to flow through the veins of the nations. Aid societies—

The long queues of unemployed people outside the gates vanished in an instant; throughout Europe, the economic pulse began to beat once more, and prosperity and happiness began to return, albeit slowly but surely. This was proceeding at such a pace that the Jews were seized with dread, and no one could have imagined it. The world's ill-fated, despicable revolutionaries were by no means pleased with this.

They felt compelled, with anger and fury, to abandon one by one the things they had seized up to that point, realising how the nationalists were approaching their goals and what a great danger had emerged for them. All civilised nations had freed themselves from the reds who had had their throats clamped. A new era had begun. This was, without a doubt, the marvel brought about by the German nation. Today, many nations that still exist as free states, and especially all those nations that have only recently gained their freedom, will eventually be grateful for this German marvel. Many Muslim nations have long since understood this and realised that their independence was made possible by this very fact. The greatest proof of this is the sympathy shown towards the German nation by Muslim peoples.

This could have manifested itself in another way, namely: had Hitler and Mussolini—upon whom the unquenchable hatred and animosity of world Jewry is focused—not come to power, the whole of Europe would undoubtedly have become communist. Although one might be tempted to say, 'If only that had happened, so that those ungrateful people might learn the limits of the world,' one must still seek refuge in God from such a fate.

Sinister, supra-national forces such as the Jews and Freemasons had lost a major battle. The remnants of these subversive forces, having been severely shaken, were consequently forced to retreat to underground strongholds. The neighbouring countries, which had been bitten by the serpent of these ominous forces, and, having made their way to Moscow to continue their struggle and await their fate, the Communist leaders gathered there.

A wave of fear and dread had swept through the international Jewish financial world. For a new economic system had begun to take shape in Germany. There, the Communists had been dealt heavy blows, the Jews had been put in their place, and the activities of Jewish sects hiding behind the veil of religion had been curtailed; in other words, all the sects—primarily the Freemasons, but including all those invented by the Jews—had been forced to fall silent.

Supra-state forces in New York and Moscow have begun making preparations for retaliation. Following their defeat and loss, they await the outcome of their covert operations with dread.

The Third World War: the downfall of civilisation, the death of humanity, or the annihilation of the State of Israel? Only God knows!

To properly highlight the significant role played by world Jewry in matters of war and revolutions, it is necessary to dwell for a moment on Germany. The role played by Judaism in this country, which formed the epicentre of the Second World War, serves as a profound lesson for all nations, and this lesson is closely linked to the future of civilisation and the destiny of humanity.

After the nationalists won the election and came to power in Germany, an entirely unexpected economic and military resurgence took place. To such an extent that Germany suddenly became the most powerful and dominant state in Europe. The chains that their rivals had forged at Versailles to bind the hands and feet of Germany and Turkey were resolutely broken and shattered

. Once the Turks had learnt of the horrific true nature of the common enemy, who at Versailles had sought to erase them entirely from history, they began to applaud this shining German miracle with all their hearts and souls. Indeed, we too had previously been forced to wage the great and arduous war we called the 'National Struggle' to break those very chains. God had shown us the crushing defeat of our enemies, and the corpses of the barbaric foe had been swept back into the sea from whence they came.

It was precisely because of this shared destiny and comradeship in arms that the German people and the Nationalist government demonstrated their honour by remaining friends and loyal to Turkey during those years when they were engaged in a life-and-death struggle. Those with even a passing understanding of military affairs and strategy are well aware of the profound significance of this.

In September 1941, Turkish and German state officials gathered at the German cemetery in Tarabya to renew the ancient oath of comrades-in-arms, and on that day, the great man Mersinli Cemal Pasha, in his speech,

'The two great nations, who have shed blood together in the same trenches against a common enemy, will always remain friends and comrades-in-arms,' thereby reaffirming and reiterating this once more.

It was precisely this Germany, having achieved such miraculous and rapid development thanks to the national government, that liberated its ethnic kin and German minorities living beyond its borders from foreign domination. In truth, these people had long been living with the dream of reuniting with their motherland. Apart from all this, the national government implemented a social programme that surpassed all others in its scope and perfection... The whole world was following this event with great interest. Germany's rivals and Turkey's enemies were seething with rage. For the success of Germany's new economic policy had made itself felt, and those who were beginning to feel its effects within their own ranks were overcome by great anxiety and fear.

0 By that day, major changes had taken place in the fundamental principles of economics and the national economy, which had previously been regarded as articles of faith. Until then, the following three elements were considered essential for any form of manufacturing:

1 - Nature,

2 - Labour,

3 - Capital (credit and gold).

These were regarded as articles of faith, dogmas and creeds; principles and tenets whose alteration or abolition was deemed unimaginable.

The Nationalists dismantled this thesis and replaced it with the following:

a - Nature,

b - Work.

The Germans declared that these two elements were entirely sufficient for the purpose and that they were enough to create capital. According to this new discovery, they proclaimed that labour and a specific quantity of commodities possessed the value of gold and money, and that gold and money could not influence a state's economy. In this way, the lifeline of the 'Golden Calf'—which had been enthroned and worshipped by the entire world for thousands of years—was severed, and it became evident that the Golden Calf was beginning to gasp for breath. Seeing the validity and realisation of their own discoveries and ideals, German economists raised the German mark to the highest level in a short time, entirely without gold or credit; this time, the value of the German mark was constituted by labour, manufacturing and production rather than gold. This success stood firm in a remarkable manner and remained at a stable level.

As for foreign trade, by sidelining a significant portion of the banking sector and reducing the cost of goods, trade naturally evolved into a barter system; and thanks to the advantages and benefits they offered to all their trading partners, they succeeded in capturing the entire European market. Thus, Europe entered a new phase of economic development.

The only party to suffer from this event was the international high finance, that is, the Jews. Those Jews who, until that day, had dominated the world economy through the massive trusts they had established across the globe, using loan and stock market capital, and were determining the futures of all nations. These Jews began to sense that their greatest sources of profit were vanishing and that the foundations upon which they relied were beginning to crumble beneath their feet.

In addition to this, the Germans, thanks to some ingenious inventions at the time, began producing large quantities of synthetic petrol and durable synthetic rubber at very low cost. Thus, this nation found a way to free itself from the shackles of foreign capital and achieve independence; consequently, a powerful blow was dealt to two elements—oil and rubber—which, as global powers, were both potent and influential within state administration.

The Jews were gripped by great anxiety, fearing that the examples set by the Germans would be emulated in other countries as well. The industrial and commercial magnates of America's famous Wall Street—the centre of the global Jewish economy in New York—were shaken by a terrible economic crisis. The crisis, which began in 1930 and grew ever wider, was ravaging the landscape. During that great crisis, four thousand banks had gone bankrupt. In the wake of these events, the American economy was hurtling towards the abyss at breakneck speed, as if the end of the world had come. In this, the world's wealthiest nation, a dreadful famine had emerged following a few years of plenty; unemployment, Hunger, despair and a wave of suicides followed one after another.

America was socially backward at that time, and no solution could be found to remedy this era of need and hardship, however one might try. Endless despair had replaced eternal prosperity and progress, and the economy had entered a vicious circle. The purchasing power of the middle class had fallen to an unprecedented level. Industry and trade had declined to the same extent, and as a result, factories were closing one after another, and production was severely restricted.

In the economic crisis and financial difficulties in which Turkey finds itself today, it is possible to discern the influence and intervention of the same Jews. People, having lost themselves amidst party strife and power struggles, did not even feel the need to investigate why Rothschild, one of the world's rulers who had deigned to visit Istanbul last year, had chosen to undertake this endeavour. Yet this is of the utmost importance; no one took into account that, in the sudden closure of the economic taps, there were other factors at play besides our own mismanagement. Certain foreign nationalist publications have revealed that Rothschild fuelled this crisis with a loan of one million British pounds granted to the Jews. Who has investigated the truth of this?...

By the end of 1930, the total number of unemployed in America had reached thirteen million. This figure does not include those working part-time. Hundreds of thousands of homes were put up for sale by the bailiffs because their owners had failed to pay their mortgage debts. Property prices had fallen to the absolute minimum, or even to one-fifth or one-sixth of their normal levels. Farmers had completely stopped selling their produce. In order to artificially prop up wheat prices to a certain extent—that is, to prevent inflation in agricultural produce—millions of tonnes of wheat and maize were burned and

They had been used in locomotives. Despite all this, the vast majority of farmers went bankrupt and were forced to abandon their land. In endless queues of cars—among whom were farmers seeking work—everyone was migrating towards warmer climates, and particularly towards Florida, taking with them their most essential household goods and their families. Consequently, as a result of the large armies of farmers flooding into Florida, the daily wage for labourers had fallen to as low as 95 cents. City councils were using armed guards to protect the entrance gates of many towns from the onslaught of farmers and were attempting to persuade and encourage them to move on to other towns.

At that time, the situation in Germany was quite the opposite; prosperity and development reigned there. The economy had grown in every sector and was developing successfully. Unemployment had become a thing of the past there. So much so that a labour shortage had even become apparent in many industrial sectors.

After long and agonising years spent in poverty and ruin, the prosperity, abundance and bounty that had enveloped the German people had driven the Jews to distraction. The global boycott movement against German goods, organised by the Jew Samuel Untermayer, aimed to strike at the very heart of the Germans' economic success. The boycott movement failed and collapsed.

The 'New Deal' measures imposed by the Masonic and Jewish Roosevelt administration were intended to be of short duration, and this plan was detrimental even to their own interests. At the same time, the Jewish-Masonic administration was seeking to buy time. Of course, whilst these half-hearted measures and activities were plugging some gaps, this was merely a drop in the ocean compared to the scale of the crisis. How much longer could America

? And... Who and how could save the international high finance (Haute Finance), which was facing the threat of death and relied on Judaism, from this dire situation? How was it that Adolf Hitler, the leader of the German nationalists whom the Jewish high finance despised, dared to dismantle the privileges that the 'chosen people' (!) had held for centuries and establish new economic systems in their place?

It was for this reason that those accursed Jewish minds began to devise and plot what must be done to bring this leader—who had rebelled against Jewish finance and revolted against the High Finance—before the Inquisition and to ensure his destruction. World Jewry had concentrated all its efforts and activities on this point; the Jews saw in Hitler their most dangerous enemy. In their strongest centres—New York, London and Paris—all the influential Jewish magnates had united on the necessity of eliminating these German rebels who were threatening the very existence of monopolistic capitalism. They resolved to mercilessly eliminate these rebels in order to ensure the survival of Jewish finance, Jewish domination and Jewish dictatorship, and to emerge victorious from the struggle.

Following the Jewish Ratenau, the fate of the world was decided by these symbolic three hundred Jews and their high-ranking Freemason servants, who resolved to declare war against the Germans, whom they called barbarians; and thus the Second World War became inevitable, a fait accompli.

* * *

Note: The Jew Valker Ratenau served as the German Minister of Food Supply during the First World War. He did everything in his power to subject the German army at the front and the German people behind the lines to food shortages, resorting to every form of sabotage. This action was, of course, viewed by the Germans as

Although it was becoming apparent, it was impossible to say anything against them at that time. One had to remain silent in the face of the disaster.

At that time, a food aid agreement had been concluded between the Ottoman state officials and the German state authorities. It never materialised. Could a member of a nation that had planned to establish a Jewish state on the sacred lands of Palestine possibly offer any aid to an army and a nation defending those sacred lands? Walter Ratenau, the Jewish Minister of Food Supply, did everything in his power to ensure not a single grain of food was given to the Turks.

In the final year of the war, I was serving as the Director of the Second Branch of the General Staff of the Command of Syria and Western Arabia. There was a severe food crisis in Syria, Lebanon and Palestine. The plight of our army fighting at the front was heart-rending. We discussed the situation with the German sector commander, and he told me the following:

Our Minister of Food, Ratenau, is a staunch Zionist. As long as he remains in power, not only will he refuse to send food aid to you from Germany, but if he had his way, this man would starve us to death... My suggestion of this sort caused quite a stir.

At a time when Istanbul was experiencing a terrible food crisis and the people had fallen into destitution despite the efforts of numerous food ministers, general directors and directors, I succeeded in obtaining motor vehicles from the Germans. By utilising both these vehicles and all available resources, I endeavoured to come to the aid of the people in major cities such as Damascus, Beirut and Lebanon, alongside my comrades-in-arms who were laying down their lives for their country at the front. Whenever I think of this, the loathsome figure of that accursed Jew, Ratenau, comes to mind. This is why I have not forgotten his name.

Covert operations have now begun. Coded telegrams are being transmitted to all key locations around the world via transatlantic cables; the machinery of underground diplomacy is springing into action and operating at full capacity. The password is:

Death to Germany!

And... the managers of the public opinion industry issued the directives and orders for the campaign launched against Germany. The aims and objectives of this campaign orchestrated against Germany were concealed, and the public opinion managers projected them onto the 'conscience of the world' in the manner they desired, resorting to every means, every lie and every slander. To such an extent that, cloaked in the guise of 'morality and humanity', provocations against Germany were carried out at every opportunity. Whatever measures the Germans took to consolidate their position were described as 'dictatorial measures, breach of treaty, oppression of the people, inhumane actions and unconscionable behaviour', and judgments were passed against them and efforts were made to work against them.

The bigoted, narrow-minded, hypocritical and treacherous Jews in London and New York had already learnt during the First World War where these despicable lies could be used.

They have now dredged up these old, disgusting tales from their archives and document vaults. The difference is that, whereas during the First World War the slander was that the Germans were chopping off children's hands with axes, this time the story of concentration camps took centre stage, and ample material was found for it. For the innocent and pure-hearted Germans were the sort of people who were easily taken in by such tales.

People all over the world who cherish justice and rights trembled to the core when the concentration camp tales spread across the globe and they heard of the tortures endured by innocent prisoners, and thus a general hatred against the Germans was fostered.

Ideological manufacturers and propagandists subsequently spread the notion, particularly in America, that Hitler intended to conquer the entire world. Consequently, even the apathetic in America were seized by a sense of panic. This was precisely what the Jews desired: to prepare the American people for war! To pit a nation rebelling against the Jews against another nation...

The activities of the world's revolutionaries in Germany had come to an end. For this reason, the Jews chose Spain—which at that time was regarded as the weakest link in the chain of European nations—and adopted it as their sphere of activity, thereby provoking a civil war. In terms of savagery, this civil war has no parallel in history. The most horrific and hair-raising killings of people were witnessed in this civil war. The bloodiest struggle since the Communist and Bolshevik revolutions took place here. This civil war destroyed millions of lives.

It is astonishing that whilst the world's conscience, wherever on earth it may be, launches an attack through thousands of newspapers against even the slightest action it disapproves of, it has—knowingly—turned a blind eye to the greatest acts of treachery, savagery and brutality committed by the Reds during the Spanish Civil War. For their love and sympathy are reserved for the fraudsters operating under the slogan of 'Liberty, Equality, Fraternity'—namely the Jews, Freemasons and Communists. Because the global Freemasonry wanted it this way. Consequently, no one has held the perpetrators to account for the millions of people brutally murdered in the Spanish Civil War. The situation continues in this manner. Crimes committed under the same slogans are deemed permissible, whilst the sensible people, nationalists, conservatives and upright citizens of the entire world are constantly accused of reactionaryism, heresy and fascism.

After a long struggle in Spain, the Red Barricade fighters lost the war. The Spanish army, loyal to its traditions, has successfully eradicated this anarchist, red terror, which was controlled from abroad, and has brought peace to the Spanish people.

After annexing its own minorities in neighbouring countries to the empire, Germany offered them long-term 'non-aggression' pacts and favourable trade agreements in order to maintain good relations with all its neighbours. Furthermore, it made every sacrifice to eliminate the old tensions and negative sentiments towards England and France. However, the Jewish minority, which held key positions in these two countries, succeeded in preventing this and in creating a hostile atmosphere against Germany. All the proposals made regarding a military agreement between Britain and Germany, and in particular the naval agreement from which only Britain would benefit, did not in the least soften the Anglo-Saxons; on the contrary, tensions began to increase and intensify to a noticeable degree thereafter. The Jews were playing their final card.

Two diplomats—one in Switzerland, known as Wilhelm von Custlof, and the other in Paris—were murdered by Jews. It was only after this that measures began to be taken against the Jews living in Germany. The ball had started rolling. Poland was deemed a suitable pawn for the outbreak of war. Under the guise of rectifying the errors of the Treaty of Versailles and resolving the dispute that had arisen between Germany and Poland, Britain stepped onto the stage in the role of arbiter. To thwart the German-Polish agreement, which could have been highly advantageous for Poland, the Freemason Churchill and his supporters, in collaboration with the conservative wing of the Polish intelligentsia, prevented this agreement from coming to fruition. Unfortunately, at that time, the great hero and saviour of Poland, Marshal Pilsudski, was no longer alive. Otherwise, for many years

He could not sacrifice the beautiful homeland he had saved to the Jews, the Freemasons and a reckless venture. Yet invisible forces and secret organisations had promised the Poles a complete guarantee that they would not come to terms with the Germans. It has since become clear that Churchill had no intention whatsoever of keeping his promise...

In response to all these events, the Poles declared a general mobilisation. Worse still, falling prey to Jewish lies and intrigues, they slaughtered fifty-eight thousand Germans living in Poland. The so-called 'conscience of the world' did not so much as flinch in the face of this tragedy.

It was following this incident that the German armies entered Polish territory at lightning speed. This was precisely what the war-mongering Jews had sought, and having achieved their first objective, they began to fan the flames of the Second World War against Germany. The pretext and the lie had been prepared in advance: 'the liberation of Poland'...

Indeed, at that time, it was hoped that the Polish army, which outnumbered the German forces, would wear the Germans down. However, the situation unfolded differently. Under the pressure of the German armies' lightning-fast advance, the Polish defences collapsed within eighteen days; Britain and France, who had pampered Poland, were unable to offer any assistance, and thus the brave and noble Polish nation suffered a catastrophic defeat. More accurately, Poland fell victim to the intrigues and schemes of states that had fallen into the Jews' trap.

Once the war had passed through this first phase, a peculiar situation arose. According to political observers, this situation is thought-provoking and significant, and it also brings with it many mysteries—

...was carrying it. Although a state of war existed between Germany and its enemies, there had been no fighting on the front lines for nine months following the Polish campaign. On the Western Front, the Germans had taken up positions along the Siegfried Line, whilst the French had established themselves along the Maginot Line—famous for its immense, impregnable defensive fortifications—and felt quite secure there. During this period, the soldiers of both sides did not fire a single shot at one another and spent their days in peace and tranquillity. Moreover, the soldiers of the two opposing sides even played the latest music tracks for one another over loudspeakers. What could this mean? It meant a great deal. The truth behind this silence—reasons the world's conscience had sought to keep hidden with great discretion—only came to light after the Second World War. The speech delivered by British Major Creagh Scott in the Chelsea Borough on 1 August 1947, along with its detailed account, was published verbatim and in full in the 6th issue of the English-language magazine Tomorrow dated 1947:

> «During the telephone war(1) that raged throughout 1939–40, lengthy discussions took place between the British and German Foreign Offices. During this period, we (that is, the British) informed the Germans that we were prepared to abandon the war if Germany returned to the gold standard. Following this, the Atlantic Charter Conference was held. Montagu Norman, the Governor of the Bank of England, attended that meeting. At this gathering, Churchill stated that once Hitler had been eliminated, Germany must be compelled to return to the gold standard."

In this speech, Greagh Scott also referred to a publication concerning financial projects that had appeared in the 'Membres Bulletin' magazine in July 1949.

(1) The author is referring to the 'telephone war' and the pause.

So that was the true nature of the matter. The so-called 'telephone war'—the negotiations and discussions conducted throughout the armistice period—had nothing to do with the rights, freedoms or destinies of Poland or the other small states, but were solely for the purpose of rescuing the 'golden calf'... Yet Britain had proclaimed to the whole world, in no uncertain terms, that it had entered the war to protect the rights and freedoms of all these states. To prevent the 'Golden Calf' from perishing and to ensure that other nations from falling into a 'gold-free' economic system. Human rights, freedoms and the like were nothing but empty rhetoric.

The danger in the gold issue was hidden and of the utmost importance. If all nations were to adopt Germany's 'gold-free' economic system, then Britain would be deprived of the profits derived from the gold mines in its colonies—mines that brought it immense wealth—where hundreds of thousands of workers toiled for the lowest daily wages.

And what of America! What would become of the gold stockpiled in the depths of Fort Knox(1)? Fearing that the truth that gold plays no role in economic life might take root in people's minds, and that the assumption that nothing could replace gold was nothing but a baseless delusion, vast swathes of prosperous Europe were destroyed and razed to the ground, leaving not a stone upon another.

Would anyone believe that, were an earthquake, tremor or some other natural disaster—or indeed one even more devastating—to occur and wipe out the gold reserves at Fort Knox, the world would become a poorer place? The Germans rejected the proposals, fearing that a return to the gold standard might result in the loss of the newly gained economic freedom and political independence.

(1) America's six thousand tonnes of state gold lie in the vaults of Fort Knox. The Vatican also holds two thousand tonnes of gold there.

On the subject of gold, it would be useful to mention a historical event here. In 1869, in the city of Prague, the Jew Reichhorn, delivering a speech at the grave of Rabbi Ben Yuda, said the following:

> 'Gold is always an irresistible force. It will always remain so. Gold, when used by skilled hands, will be the most useful tool for those who possess it and will arouse envy in those who are deprived of it.
> THE MOST INDEPENDENT CONSCIENCES ARE PURCHASED WITH GOLD([1])
> The prices of valuables and the values of all produce are determined by it. Governments are controlled by it through the loans they take out.
> The major banks, the stock exchanges of the entire world, and the credit of all governments are in our hands today."

* * *

These words, spoken by a Jewish rabbi ninety-three years ago, demonstrate the degree of value and importance the Children of Israel attach to gold.

It was only after this golden age—upon which the Jews had based their boundless ambitions and dreams—was utterly destroyed by the economic innovation of nationalist Germany that the Jews' unquenchable hatred and animosity, which promised the world fresh fires and ruins, intensified. Far from abating, this hatred has today flared up into a raging fire.

Although Hitler has passed from this world, Judaism has still not been able to overcome its hatred, animosity and hostility towards this man, nor has it been able to quell its ambition. The Holy Qur'an

(1) It is no lie! Investigations reveal that by bribing agents within the secret security services of every nation, they are bringing their Jewish enemies to their knees.

Regarding these, it is stated: 'They shall perish in their rage...'

The day the people of tomorrow declare war on this substance called gold and accept LABOUR and SWEAT as the true measure, the Jews will have swallowed their pride and all their pomp and domination will have crumbled. Then they will no longer be able to buy corrupt consciences with money.

The clash between these two systems—which today appear to be in opposition but whose strings are, in truth, in the hands of the Jews—is caused by nothing other than this.

As Germany did not possess significant gold reserves at the time, had it accepted the British offer, it would have been compelled to purchase large quantities of gold from the world's banks—which were in Jewish hands—through long-term loans. This would have meant re-fastening the golden shackles that Germany had voluntarily cast off, and submitting once more to the bondage of interest. At that time, a significant portion of Germany's economic gains would have flowed as interest into the coffers of the international Jewish financial establishment. This, in turn, would have meant a catastrophic collapse of the German people's way of life. German statesmen possessed extensive experience in this field. For the years following the Treaty of Versailles had served as a harsh lesson for them, and they did not wish to fall into the hands of the Jewish high finance and its rogues once again.(1)

Does Versailles not carry the same meaning for the Turks as well? After fighting heroically and valiantly for four years, defeating the world's mighty forces at Gallipoli and performing all manner of miracles, they lost the war due to various misfortunes

(1) In the programme of the German Nazi Party, this is referred to as 'debt slavery'; further details in the book published under the same title. (National Movement Publications.)

they subjected our nation to such cruel treatment and acted with such lack of honour. We must not forget these things, and we must raise the new generations with these painful examples. We lived through those days ourselves, our hearts bleeding.

Let us also note that the greatest of our misfortunes was this: by squandering our generosity and granting privileges to the snakes we nurtured within us—by embracing them and drowning them in bounties—the treachery, espionage and sabotage committed by those accursed ones during the Palestine campaign. These ungrateful wretches spared no dishonourable act in their quest to utterly crush us, divide our inheritance, and shatter the Turkish Empire to establish a state on the sacred lands. Furthermore, they had sunk so low as to actually enter the war at Gallipoli with the mercenaries they had gathered from every corner of the world, taking up arms against their benefactors, the Turks.

When speaking of our misfortune, these thoughts spring to mind without even delving too deeply. So much so that, after we had lost the war and laid down our arms, the Jewish financial establishment—deeming even the rights granted to us in the Treaty of Versailles too generous—sought to force us to accept the Treaty of Sèvres in order to lay claim to the oil and other minerals that remained in our possession. We tore it up, shredded it, and flung it in their faces like rags. Yes; the Turks had won their independence at the cost of their blood. Yet the Jewish financial establishment, its journalists, newspapers, agents, spies, and the consciences they had bought, had penetrated so deeply into our midst that it now seems impossible to uproot and cast them out.

If only we could know the extent to which they have profited from the events unfolding today, how they have fanned the flames of the fires, and what they have done to steer public opinion in the directions they desire, we would feel our minds freeze in horror. I firmly believe this: not a single one of those who have borne the burden of this nation's sins up to now has realised

. The sums of money spent by world Jewry to conceal the hidden truths behind these events from public view are staggering.

Let us return to Germany; Germany rejected the British proposals and, in response, put forward a peace proposal of its own. It categorically stated that it had no claims or demands whatsoever against Britain or its allies. To what end? The Allies paid no heed whatsoever to this humanitarian proposal and showed no interest in it whatsoever. This supra-national power bloc, far from appreciating this German chivalry, grew furious and enraged. They had never expected such a move and were waiting for Germany to eventually be brought to its knees... And finally, by the decision of the High Jewish-Masonic Council, it was necessary to take revenge for this defeat in accordance with the Talmudic rulings. The situation had reached the point of 'to be or to be utterly annihilated', and thus the terrible war of revenge began...

The gates of hell opened, cannons roared, cities began to crumble, millions of people perished, and a dreadful darkness began to envelop the earth. It was as if the apocalypse had struck. Mankind, savage, frenzied and having lost all reason, seemed to be being driven to the slaughter. This war unfolded in the most horrific manner humanity had ever witnessed. As a result of the unfortunate legacy it left behind, all of humanity was plunged into a chaos and agony from which it would take centuries to emerge. The morals of nations were corrupted, and all nations, as indicated in the Jewish Protocols, lost their substance and meaning, falling into an inescapable abyss.

During the early stages of the Second World War, which lasted until the turning point at Stalingrad, we see the German army advancing from one victory to the next at a pace hitherto unseen, to such an extent that: their opponents were left breathless, and the whole world was plunged into astonishment. The German march of victory had begun in France. The famous Maginot Line, which had become legendary for being impregnable, and the world's strongest fortified lines in Belgium were overrun within a few days, and shortly afterwards, most of Belgium and France were occupied. At the same time, the occupation of Denmark and Norway was carried out before the British could act, and was completed just a few hours earlier, securing the German flank. Following this, Yugoslavia and Greece, along with Crete—which was to serve as a springboard for North Africa—fell into the hands of German and Italian forces. This was followed by the lightning advance of the German armed forces against Soviet Russia.

At that time, Stalin suspended the Communist Revolution's expansion and implementation plan, as well as the Comintern's efforts to spread its influence across European countries, for a certain period; in return, he stepped up Comintern activities in America and the Allied nations.

Soviet Russia concluded a tactical armistice and trade agreement with Germany to organise its armies and complete its mobilisation, whilst simultaneously succeeding in seizing large parts of Poland and Bessarabia without bloodshed or significant struggle . Soviet Russia was playing 'the role of the third party' and was waiting for the moment when Germany would be drawn into a multi-front war. The Russians, calculating that Germany would be militarily exhausted in this way, believed they could deliver the final blow.

The Germans were well aware of the Leninist methods of communist tactics. Accordingly, they foresaw that the moment the million-strong Russian armies swept across

, they could foresee the terrible catastrophe that would befall all of Europe, and Germany in particular. For the total number of unfortunate people purged through massacres and horrific tortures during the bloody Russian Revolution was twenty-five million. This staggering figure sent a shiver down the spine of every person of conscience.

Soviet Russia was the driving force behind the internationalists' efforts to delay the world revolution sought by the Jews, and represented the greatest danger to the world.

To prevent this global catastrophe and to shatter this colossal force seeking to enslave the world, Hitler issued a sudden order for his armies to launch a lightning war against Soviet Russia. On the Eastern Front, too, it became evident that the German high command and its troops possessed an overwhelming might.

German armies launched an attack at lightning speed towards the Russian steppes; tanks destroyed Soviet forces one by one, and despite their terrible losses, they advanced as far as the Volga River and penetrated as far as the oil fields of the Caucasus. At the same time, an unprecedented, almost supernatural winter was raging.

The fate of Soviet Russia seemed to have been sealed. Now, on top of that, operations in North Africa had begun, as had the bombing of German cities. At the same time, supply difficulties were becoming apparent, and the burden on German troops was growing heavier, whilst their tasks were becoming more arduous...

America's hour had now come. America's war industry and inflammatory propaganda had reached their peak. The arms factories—almost all of which were in the hands of the Jewish spirit of Bernard Ba[illegible]—were working day and night; the production of war materials was increasing at a rapid pace and flowing like endless rivers

It was pouring into Britain and Soviet Russia through every channel, every route, and by every means. It was only natural that this should bring German military and frontline operations to a standstill, or even paralyse them. The think tank and brain trust surrounding the Jewish Roosevelt was working feverishly, as if spellbound. Their aim was to drag the American people into war against the Berlin–Rome–Tokyo axis.

Up until that point, Germany had not been swayed by America's measures contrary to international law and had turned a blind eye to the fierce anti-German activities and propaganda in America, which were directed by Jews. When America saw that this fiery propaganda was yielding no results, it began to challenge Japan. Japan responded by attacking Pearl Harbour.

Roosevelt had known of this Pearl Harbour raid well in advance and with certainty; yet, despite this, he took no defensive measures and waited for it to serve as a pretext for declaring war on Japan. (1)

The attack on Pearl Harbor also forced Germany to enter the war, as the treaty between Germany and Japan required it. In this way, Roosevelt's scheme had succeeded, and the American people had been drawn into the war through various intrigues and deceptions. This success was undoubtedly a Jewish victory, and world Jewry was now celebrating.

America was extremely well-prepared in terms of both military and industrial capacity. It had sent vast quantities of war material to Britain and the Soviet Union. Thereafter, with its immense, colossal fleets and powerful bomber aircraft, it launched a full-scale assault on the Japanese, who had by then exhausted their resources.

(1) I intend to publish the articles—which contain a sensational revelation regarding the Pearl Harbor incident, one of history's most typical events, and were published in America a few years ago—as a separate book.

At that time, World Jewry, having learnt through its famous spies(1) that Germany was preparing surprise weapons that would revolutionise the arms race, encouraged and persuaded America to destroy Germany above all else. Thereafter, American, British and Russian forces coordinated their operations and, without delay, descended upon Germany, which was still fighting manfully and heroically on all fronts.

Thus, the European theatre of war was prepared for a military offensive. After thousands of massive armoured flying fortresses had crossed the Atlantic and landed at their bases in England, they began to drop their bomb loads on German cities night after night. Fortunately, the German industry and factories, which had been very well concealed, did not suffer significant damage from these air raids. To make up for this, the British General Harris's diabolical and accursed invention—carpet bombing—was introduced. Thus, for the first time in human history, entire cities, towns and villages inhabited by non-military and innocent civilians began to be wiped out along with their inhabitants by aerial bombardments. Naturally, instead of the well-hidden military targets, these poor towns and villages were easily visible and were mercilessly destroyed.

Although many prominent figures in neutral countries protested against this savage and monstrous act, it was never possible to prevent the revenge commanded by the TALMUD.

The Talmud knows no humanity or civilisation. Revenge is its chief delight, and human blood its sole sustenance. The death of a hundred million people, the collapse of civilisation, and the descent of humanity into savagery, losing all morality and nobility, mean nothing to it. This is precisely what it desires. It seeks to reduce all of humanity to a minority of thirteen million—

(1) At the head of these spies were their own national security chiefs. What wouldn't a Jew money, what won't it do?!...

He will never stray from his path unless he is enslaved by it.

Now, by pitting the Russians—whom it has armed with its own hands and made a scourge upon humanity—against America, whose ideology appears, on the surface, to be the opposite, it is preparing for a third world war to destroy all civilisation in an instant. Using this pretext and the fear and terror it has unleashed upon humanity, it has infiltrated the hearts of nations in various guises, secured the allegiance of statesmen, and bought the consciences of all.

To avoid completely crushing the reader's spirit, let me inform you that in every country, many noble and heroic people are on duty to dispel the dark clouds hovering over the world. The most important aspect of this is that this movement has been taken up in America in a serious, deep-rooted, systematic and fundamental manner. To such an extent that state governors, senators, members of parliament, generals, admirals and many distinguished figures have become the leaders of this cause. The Jew, who until yesterday found the field clear, easily spun his intrigues and grew arrogant by taking courage from people's heedlessness, now sees before him a formidable, powerful, determined and faithful front. He is afraid; he has opened his purse and is spending the untold sums he has stolen from nations without account or measure.

In every country, there are consciences for sale, but these are of no use except for dishonest schemes and underhand dealings. Yet the idealists who stand against them are nothing like them; their consciences cannot be hired or bought. They merely spit in the face of Jewish gold. The slander of that vile scoundrel cannot influence honourable people. As nations learn the truth, and as they come to understand the nature of the filthy means and tools in the Jew's hands—and they are understanding them—every lie of that despicable minority will backfire, and every slander will have the exact opposite effect. And one day, a million-strong liberation army composed of Muslim nations will stand before the 'Defeated' in Palestine like the

—and its carcass will be utterly laid low... and humanity will be saved, and eternal peace will dawn. That day is near!...

By launching a campaign of terror against the civilian population in violation of international law and humanity, they sought to crush and break the German spirit of resistance. Germany was being devastated by every means at their disposal. The great machine of destruction had now been set in motion, and by the end of the war, the suffering of the civilian population had reached an unimaginable level.

German cities, many of which possessed no military installations or airfields but instead housed immense, irreplaceable historical monuments of great value, were subjected to a deluge of hundreds of thousands of incendiary bombs and phosphorus shells, rained down like a storm or a hailstorm, without any distinction being made or rights being recognised. Thus, the cities were reduced to vast piles of rubble and mass graves. The majority of the victims were women and children.

Thus, the followers of Jesus Christ—who taught, 'If someone strikes you on one cheek, turn the other to him'—found themselves mired in a savagery and barbarism that was a disgrace to humanity, all for the sake of the Jews. We Muslims and the followers of the Prophet Muhammad regard the assault on unarmed civilians and the drawing of weapons against those who beg for mercy as murder; yet 'civilised' Europe had demonstrated to the whole world during the Second World War that it did not recognise such a right.

Despite all these horrific events, the German front lines held firm. The German civilian population, meanwhile, was truly performing miracles both in maintaining discipline and in their ability to endure these agonising hardships. Cases of treason, sabotage and espionage within the German ranks were also on the rise. Under the leadership of CANARIS, traitors of every stripe and character had infiltrated the army and economic life.

We may insert this observation here and remind all those who govern states and command armies that: wherever in the world 'secret security and intelligence organisations' are not properly established and placed in the hands of patriotic, honourable people, the greatest danger to those nations may come through these channels. For all such organisations determine the course of those who govern the state and guide them. The traitorous Jews of the world and the Masonic cliques of every country, fully aware of the crucial role such organisations play, constantly dig at the nation's foundations through a single channel. There is no door that the golden key cannot open. People of weak character, who are greedy and self-serving, can be bought with a little or a lot of money. If such individuals are also offered positions, ranks and substantial benefits, the matter becomes even easier. Since all the world's intelligence and espionage organisations possess a certain privilege, and as their movements and activities are shrouded in great secrecy, the roles they play can be correspondingly immense. The cunning Jew, fully aware of this subtlety, first lays the groundwork with his own terrifying propaganda and then, thanks to the vast material resources at his disposal, buys off not all but at least a portion of the individuals within these organisations, thereby steering the machinery of government in the direction they desire and dragging the administrators along the path they wish. If these men are inexperienced and uninformed, then the Jews and Freemasons have succeeded.

The most painful and striking example of this in world history is Admiral Kanaris, head of German national security. The fact that even a nation as highly cultured as the Germans, which has rendered such great service to world civilisation, could be so deceived as to hand over all its secrets to a traitor who had sold out his country is a cautionary tale that should serve as a wake-up call to us all.

For a long time, certain simple-minded government officials have attached importance to the reports prepared by the security services as if they were divine revelations, and in doing so have been deceived, thereby causing harm and injustice to their country and its citizens.

Especially in the age in which we live, there are few people whom the Jews—through the cunning inherited by them—cannot obtain or deceive.

Among those who can be counted here are the three Jews and one convert who founded the Committee of Union and Progress, the converts who were brought into the administrative machinery during the People's Party era, and Salomon Ada-to of the Democratic Party. We hope this information, which we have briefly summarised here, will be of use to those concerned.

The headquarters of all the subversive treasonous organisations under Jewish control were located in neutral countries abroad. These organisations were constantly collaborating with the enemy and maintaining contact with them. These traitors were sowing sand into the gears of the German war machine to disrupt it, and were spreading mistrust and demoralisation between the command structures of the army and the militia units. Naturally, the underground activities of these shadowy organisations did not go unnoticed; they were eroding the striking power of the German armies across all fronts. Consequently, a series of military and political defeats followed one after another. The greatest of these defeats, and the one with the most decisive impact on the outcome, was undoubtedly Stalingrad. The loss of this crucial strategic stronghold led to disastrous consequences for the German military command in the Russian campaign and across the entire Eastern Front—

It marked the beginning of the step-by-step withdrawal of the German armed forces from the area.

In the eyes of world public opinion, Stalingrad was regarded as the turning point of the war. The general belief that the German army was invincible and an unbeatable force thus suffered its first serious blow. The Allied powers were now relieved and had begun to breathe a sigh of relief. Thereafter, they doubled their diplomatic and propaganda efforts. Through threats of trade and credit boycotts and blacklists, diplomatic intrigues were turning neutral states, one after another, against Germany, the so-called enemy of humanity. Thus, they were compelled to assist or directly participate in this 'crusade of peace-loving democratic nations'(1), and it was proclaimed that close attention was being paid to the welfare of all small states. By invoking the Atlantic Charter, these nations were promised a guaranteed future in 'eternal freedom' (!). However, these promises were reserved solely for those who agreed to cooperate on the protection of morality and human rights. This glittering and gilded promise was completed by the Jews' highly effective propaganda.

Having previously witnessed German military successes and believing in its victory, a large proportion of the populations of European cities relaxed their guard in the face of these promises, so as not to miss the train heading in the direction of a new hope. In anticipation of the final victory they had anticipated, they turned their flags to face the wind's new direction. Thus, towards the end of the war, fifty-two nations and virtually the entire military and industrial might of the world were mobilised against Germany. Even we, having given

(1) Lately, all the Iron Curtain nations—and of course, above all, Soviet Russia—have been repeating this phrase 'peace-loving democrats' ad nauseam. For those who know how quickly people are taken in by such glittering promises, and especially for those terrified by the dreadful Third World War, isn't 'peace' a most alluring word?

We joined that bandwagon, licking our lips at the prospect of military alliance. Despite all these efforts and intrigues, it took six long years of struggle to bring Germany to its knees.

We wish to add our own reflections here, with a deep sense of sorrow. The German and Turkish commanders who met at Tarabya in 1941 had been comrades-in-arms during the First World War and had buried their fallen comrades in the same graves; and whose blood had mingled in the same trenches—despite the pledge they had made that these two nations of soldiers could never become enemies, in the final year of the war, upon seeing the tide of fortune turn against Germany, we too broke our word, succumbing to the influence and pressure of Western diplomats under Jewish sway, and declared hostility towards Germany as it headed towards defeat. This was the exact opposite of what our noble forefathers had done in the early days of our state's foundation... Yet the Germans remained faithful to their covenant, whilst the Allies committed such treachery as to hand over the Straits to the Russians and surrender our fate into their hands.

The treasonous network and world Jewry were celebrating new victories. Thanks to the collaboration between German and Italian traitors and Freemasons, the German advance in Africa had come to a halt, and retreats had begun. In Italy, Mussolini had been lured into a trap, subsequently arrested and imprisoned in the Gran Sasso mountains, leading to the overthrow of his government.

Due to the intrigues orchestrated by the Palace and the Vatican, Italy had switched sides to the Anglo-American camp. Meanwhile, the Allies succeeded in deceiving Franco by concealing the truth and fabricating false events, thereby ensuring that his pledge of aid to Germany was swept under the carpet. Thus, Franco remained indifferent to the closure of the Strait of Gibraltar,

, which was intended to support the German-African front.

Once the Allies were certain that definitive victory was theirs, they saw no harm in revealing their secret plans.

Morgen-tau, a Jew notorious for his hostility towards the Turks, and his followers began to act openly, escalating their incitement against Germany to a frenzied level. The war was now declared outright and openly as a Jewish war of revenge. The Talmud was celebrated with all manner of wretched festivities, and talk began of an unconditional, unprincipled and ruthless peace for Germany. The propaganda of the Turkish-hating Jew Morgentau began to spread across the political stages of the world.

The Morgenthau Plan aimed at the total annihilation of the German people and their erasure from history. According to this ruthless plan, once the war ended, all able-bodied German men were to be deported to Siberia for a period of twenty-five years and forced to perform the heaviest labour there; women were to be sterilised, and German factories were to be completely dismantled. Germany would be divided into regions and fragmented, and the remaining population would have to eke out a living through hard labour on impoverished German soil.

Detailed plans were drawn up at Tehran, Yalta, Casablanca and later at Potsdam regarding how German war criminals were to be punished, and it was decided how Germany's entire assets were to be divided as spoils of victory.

I thought it would be useful to squeeze in a bit more information here. Since the dawn of time, following the wars that have taken place, the commanders who led those wars have been put on trial—not at the hands of the 'Gypsy Executioner' in a barbaric manner, but by the Ame-

Their execution by a Jewish executioner, specially brought from Riga, using a ship's rope, remains a mystery of history. In the last war, the Jews presented this crime to the world as a gift. It was not just that... The testimony of an SS colonel, heard as a witness at the Nuremberg trials, had plunged the conscience of the entire world from one astonishment to another, from one horror to another, from one sorrow to another. Indeed, if his own comrades—a high-ranking figure, a militia colonel, a Hitler officer—were to testify against their own comrades, there was certainly some truth in it. This astonishment persisted for years and shook people's consciences. However, eventually, numerous works published in Europe and America, based on documentary evidence, increased humanity's astonishment and horror yet further. According to these publications, it has come to light that the aforementioned SS colonel was an intelligence service agent who had been trained long ago and infiltrated into the German nation—and that he was a Jew. This demonstrates that there is no act of cruelty or dishonour that the Children of Israel—who, as stated in the Holy Qur'an, deserve the eternal curse of the Almighty and upon whose foreheads the stamp of humiliation has been imprinted—would not commit. Although such dishonourable acts cannot remain hidden forever and will inevitably come to light one day, alas, by then it is too late; generations have changed, and the events have faded from memory. We write these things here to draw our nation's attention to them, yet our beloved nation is already well aware of these bitter truths.

In addition to these observations, I consider it my duty to reiterate this bitter truth for perhaps the thousandth time. Dear reader, whilst reading of this hair-raising campaign against the German people, you must always bear in mind this: the Jews are not only implacable enemies of Germany, but also of us Turks. The hospitality, generosity and aid we showed to the Jews expelled from Spain and Portugal, squandering our sense of justice and mercy, ingrates; it evokes no sense of gratitude whatsoever. This people has striven not only to destroy the Germans, but also to bring the Turkish Empire to ruin, down to its very last town and village.

The most vivid example of this is provided by the following events: in order to destroy the Empire from its very foundations and to instantly transform the established peace into chaos and disaster:

a – the 1908 Revolution,

b – the 31 March Massacre,

he played a major role, with substantial funds and extensive activities. These two major events were orchestrated to take revenge on Sultan Abdulhamid II, who had foreseen the future establishment of a State of Israel. For this ruler never permitted the Jews to reside, settle or take root in Palestine. For this reason, he is the greatest enemy of world Zionism.

The two important decrees issued by the late Sultan Abdulhamid Han regarding the prohibition of Zionists settling on the sacred lands of Palestine, taken from the state archives,
We included this in our 58th work, the book entitled 'How the Jews Are Conquering the World'. Consider the shamelessness of this accursed organisation: a Jewish newspaper published in Morocco immediately claimed that Sultan Abdulhamid II had granted Palestine to the Jews in 1914. Firstly, Sultan Abdulhamid was not on the throne in 1914; furthermore, this great ruler sacrificed hundreds of millions to prevent a part of his realm from being given to the Jews, and was deposed as a result.

How would those reading these vile Jewish newspapers know that this ruler had long since been deposed by 1914... Let us follow the book, bearing in mind the devilish cunning of the Jews.

Roosevelt's so-called devout soldiers([1]) had already begun to invade Italy and France, and new territories were constantly falling into their hands. The German people had now realised that they had no choice but to fight for their lives and their future. They accepted this with a courage born of despair, for they did not wish to be led to the slaughter like sheep,

All the peace proposals Adolf Hitler had made up to that point were being rejected with scorn. Yet in the past, whenever one side offered peace, the war would cease at once. The Jews, who sought to wipe the German and Turkish nations from the face of history, had done away with this practice as well.

When the hostility and plans for revenge of International Jewry and its servants, the Freemasons, against the German nation—which had fallen into despair and suffering—were openly declared, the German nation, which was in truth far removed from bigotry and feelings of revenge, began to harbour increasing hatred and to act hostilely towards the Jew who was sneering at them in a contemptuous manner. Quite naturally, in the face of this situation, Jewish prisoners also began to suffer. A minority so ungrateful and utterly treacherous has no right whatsoever to expect kindness or fair treatment from a nation it has sought to undermine. The Jews, their own race—

(1) Roosevelt was originally a Flemish Jew, that is, a convert. He pretended to be a devout Christian in order to deceive genuine Americans. Just like our own converts... This man called German soldiers 'godless' in order to deceive his own people even further. Let us note here that, according to the United States Constitution, the head of state must be Protestant. Nevertheless, the fact that former President Kennedy was Catholic was a first in American history. The crucial point in assessing this event is that prominent American Jews have declared that in future elections, the President will be Jewish, and that Kennedy's election is merely the first step. Strangely enough, the American people, without exception, detest Jews. Yet in that country, Jewish power far surpasses and dominates all government forces. Is it not the same elsewhere?

were suffering as victims of the campaign of hatred and revenge instigated by their own kind. The world's famous Jews, at the slightest opportunity, during the Second World War,
They did not hesitate to declare it a 'Jewish war'.

The whole world knows that the Jews hold sway over the government officials on the Allied war front, and particularly over every corner of the White House in Washington. These individuals are not merely acting as advisers, organisers and propagandists, but are also serving as commissioned officers in the Allied armies, working with their characteristic Jewish fanaticism. For they had declared to the world that this immense war was a Jewish war. As Turks, we must not forget and must reiterate that they have shown the same ingratitude and ruthlessness towards us Turks as well.

This detestable nation is the microbe and leaven of the world's chaos and revolutions. As a nation, they were fulfilling their joint duty by fighting against Germany in the Allied ranks. In Çanakkale too, they committed the same treachery and cowardice against us. It is worth noting that there are over a hundred Jewish generals in the Soviet army alone. There are four hundred times as many officers and just as many political commissars.

They had also infiltrated the American army in large numbers. It is noteworthy that following the war, tens of thousands of Jewish officers were awarded ranks and decorations, both in Soviet Russia and in America.

As a result of the constant air raids and bombardments on the German railway network, staff shortages had begun to become apparent. Consequently, the supply and food situation had been plunged into a serious crisis. This was not confined to the civilian sector; it had also begun to be felt, in particular, in prisoner-of-war and internment camps. The food shortages that erupted in the concentration camps, which formed the final link in the supply chain, led to widespread disease, resulting in many victims. Due to the disruptions in the food supply, thousands of people from the German civilian population, and particularly young children, died of starvation. Amidst this terrible tragedy, the Jews have always spoken of themselves, excluding Germans from the count of those who lost their lives. For, in their own terms, all non-Jews are 'Goyim' and animals.

By now, due to this chaos and turmoil, the supply situation in both Jewish and non-Jewish camps had, of course, deteriorated considerably. If the victims of this war truly number more than six million, only a few thousand Jews can be added to that figure. If we look at the officially recorded statistics regarding the number of Jews who perished due to various deprivations and diseases caused by the war, and compare this to the Germans who were brutally and savagely murdered in this war, we are left speechless by the horror of the outcome. Cities have been reduced to rubble by phosphorus bombs raining from the sky, and the civilian population, innocent people and infants in their cradles have been utterly annihilated.

Behold the brothers in faith of Jesus, behold the Europe we admire as the epitome of Western civilisation... and the sense of inferiority that the Jew has instilled in the world...

Despite the passage of so many years, the unquenchable Jewish hatred has gone so far as to make all of humanity complicit in their crimes. To the accursed actions of the Jews, who incite people against one another, we must also add the treason and sabotage committed by officers in the armies—who, encouraged by them and deceived by their lies, were forced to retreat on the battlefronts. Above all, they had plotted numerous assassination attempts, both at home and abroad, specifically to eliminate Hitler himself. These successive assassination attempts had a profound effect on the German Führer's mental state and health, driving him into a state of constant suspicion. Consequently, at the general war and was forced to shoulder the entire burden himself, and ultimately, he was crushed under that weight.

There is a similar example in our own history: the Jewish world launched such a fierce and widespread offensive against Sultan Abdulhamid II, who refused to grant the Jews a homeland or sanctuary in Palestine, that it is impossible for a person's nerves and sanity to remain unshaken in the face of it. Is it possible not to be overcome by fear in the face of the reports poured into the palace by the so-called great men—the most ardent champions of 'freedom'—and the hellish bombs thrown by the committee members bred in Hungary with Jewish money? Nevertheless, the whole world has witnessed that the only person who maintained his courage, composure and magnificent dignity amidst that dreadful explosion at Yıldız was none other than Sultan Abdulhamid II, of whom it is always said that he was prone to delusions. His courage has filled foreign ambassadors and the public with astonishment and admiration. Despite this, the shameless, merciless and base Jewish propaganda persistently spread the notion that the sovereign was extremely paranoid, and succeeded in convincing many people of this.

Let us return to Germany: controlling the increasingly chaotic situation at the front had become exceedingly difficult. Consequently, the misguided decisions issued by the general headquarters were growing in number, and thus, by the final months of the war, the situation at the front had deteriorated even further. The war was drawing to a close, and the Jews were achieving their aims.

As for Japan: they too had long since relinquished their positions beyond their borders, having fallen back into a defensive stance and were fighting merely to survive. The Soviet armed forces, however, having reorganised their disorganised ranks, were forcing the German units to retreat. At the head of these communist hordes was the notorious German-hater, Ilya Ehrenburg. Under the instigation and encouragement of this spiteful and crude Jew, people were being killed, robbed, and everything was being burned and destroyed, whilst the Soviet armies advanced in this manner. Ahead of them were the civilian populations fleeing from the territories of East Prussia and East Germany. All the roads of Central Germany were completely blocked by over eight million helpless refugees.

The Americans, thanks to the superiority in numbers provided by their supplies, tanks and aircraft, had broken through the German positions in France and reached the Rhine, paying absolutely no heed to the casualties inflicted on their French allies.

As for Italy: following the retreat battles fought there, the remaining units of the German divisions were withdrawing to Germany via the Brenner Pass. In Hungary, Soviet forces were advancing, forcing the German and Hungarian forces to retreat.

As for the Balkans: the retreat routes of the majority of German units stationed in these countries had been cut off. Most of these were destroyed, whilst the German and Croatian divisions that had surrendered to British forces were subsequently handed over to Tito. Some of them were bound with barbed wire around their hands and feet and thrown into the large limestone pits near the town of Karst, near Trieste, with a bullet fired into each skull. Others were also bound with barbed wire around their hands and arms, drowned in Belgrade, and their bodies thrown into the Danube.

The 'civilised' yet barbaric society of the twentieth century, which remained silent and unmoved in the face of the horrific sight of the fifteen thousand Polish officers murdered by the Soviets in the Katyn forests, raised such a terrible clamour over the imagined deaths of a mere handful of Jews. This shows that humanity has surrendered its will and its very existence to these accursed ones and has cowered before them.

Now I come to the greatest crimes of savagery and monstrosity: Let that wretched creature called humanity conjure up in its eyes and imagination the endless calamities it has suffered for the sake of a handful of Israelites, and let it be ashamed!

The city of Dresden, having begun to shelter within its walls six hundred thousand refugees—most of them women and children—who were half-starved and half-frozen, declared itself an open city in order to protect itself from the Soviet hordes. The beautiful city of Dresden, a noble Baroque city possessing a wealth of historical treasures, became the scene of the greatest atrocity ever committed in human history and a grave for millions of people... A defenceless mass of people in this city was annihilated en masse.

These unfortunate souls, fleeing the Soviet barbarian hordes, were subjected to a rain of phosphorus by order of Churchill and utterly annihilated, leaving the city in ruins. Hundreds of thousands of people were wiped out within a few hours under the most horrific conditions.(1)

At the same time, a large part of the city of Berlin was burning like a bonfire, reducing the city to ruins and rubble. The people had begun to live like Stone Age humans. Thirty

(1) To protect themselves from the horrific, mind-numbing destruction caused by phosphorus bombs, people were throwing themselves into rivers and bodies of water. Yet water offers no protection against phosphorus. Only sand could have safeguarded them. The manner in which phosphorus killed was so horrific and savage that people standing one metre eighty centimetres tall—and even taller—would melt like candles, shrinking to eighty centimetres and vanishing in that state. The followers of Jesus Christ were subjected to such unquenchable hatred and vengeance from the people of Moses that the vengeance of both Titus and Nebuchadnezzar was taken from the people in full measure, yet none of this could appease the bloodthirsty greed of the Israelites. The fact remains that, despite everything, these criminals tremble to their very core at the mere thought of human vengeance. O Great Prophet of Islam, what a great human wound you have touched upon, and how you have fought against this accursed minority. Praise be to you!

Following an assault by a thousand Soviet artillery pieces, and after a stubborn and truly fierce defence, Berlin fell into Soviet hands. Hitler and a general, who had remained in the bunker of the former Chancellery until the very end, committed suicide.

To satisfy their thirst for revenge and demonstrate their power, America unleashed the atomic bomb—the most terrifying weapon in world history, newly developed and manufactured—from the devil's lair. They conducted the first test by dropping this weapon of death and savagery on the Japanese city of Nagasaki, whose inhabitants refused to surrender. Now, the atomic bomb looms like a nightmare over the heads of two billion people...

Roosevelt's successor, Salomon Truman—a 33rd-degree Freemason of Jewish descent, who died under highly mysterious circumstances and was buried in the utmost secrecy—issued the order for the greatest massacre in history. This horrific tragedy, which overshadowed even the Dresden bombing, sent hundreds of thousands of innocent Japanese to their deaths and left an equal number maimed. This utterly barbaric act sparked outrage and protests across the globe, and even within the democratic camp. The Jewish and Freemason group we refer to as the 'world's conscience' appeared blind, deaf and indifferent to this reaction, and the shapers of public opinion quietly swept this great crime under the carpet. Thus, Salomon Truman went down in history as the number one war criminal and enemy of humanity.

Thanks to his Freemasonry, Truman remains alive and in good standing in his homeland. However, in 1955, during a large Freemason parade held in Chicago, he was booed by the public; a hundred thousand Freemasons were chased out of the city by the public wielding broomsticks, and the windows of the governor's residence were smashed with stones. This shows that 'global consciousness' has awakened, and the true nature of these criminals and the game they are playing has now been recognised. In response, world Jewry has changed its mask; by appearing to bandage the wounds of a wounded humanity and appearing to help it, whilst preparing for other, new assassinations in the future, the nature of which is as yet unknown to us. The mind-numbing murders that will take place from now on will, in due course, be recorded by other self-sacrificing individuals.

It is so astonishing and so deeply distressing that, just like gangsters, the Jew who abducted Ayşman from another country in full view of the whole world and trampled international law underfoot—a war criminal—is now writing his memoirs in peace and comfort on his farm, whilst not a hair on Truman's head has been touched. Yet there is a legal distinction between Ayşman and Truman. For Truman is a criminal who dropped the atomic bomb—which cost the lives of hundreds of thousands of people—on open cities, taking the lives of countless innocents. As for Ayşman, he was merely a man following orders and is in no way personally responsible for the murders that have been exaggerated in the Jewish narrative.

Let us also add that, in complete violation of all international law and conventions, when Eichmann was captured in Argentina, the President was a Jew named Frondizi. It could not have been otherwise. For the vengeful and treacherous Jew had known for a long time that Eichmann was in Argentina. However, he waited for a Jew to come to power and carried out his murder at that time. It has also been noted that shortly before this abduction incident, Israel's ambitious Prime Minister Ben-Gurion had arrived in Argentina on a private El Al Jewish aircraft and had held a private conversation with the Jewish President Frondizi.

There is another important point here that has escaped our notice. The Eichmann affair is not merely a matter of revenge. It is a blackmail attempt by the Jews, who, seeking to kill two birds with one stone, aimed to extract excessive reparations from Germany to overcome the dire economic conditions and hardships they were facing.

We should also take this opportunity to point out that, despite the outward glitz and glamour of Israel—which appears majestic and dazzling to simple-minded or self-serving sycophants—its economic situation is, in fact, dire. The glitz we see has always been created with money wrested from the German people. Israel, which is under the boycott and blockade of all Arab states, is, according to expert observers, caught in an extremely poor and dysfunctional economic cycle. For this reason, having found its last hope — in the Turkish nation, to which it has committed great treachery— lies in the Turkish nation; consequently, it has significantly intensified its activities here, bringing writers and even officials to its doorstep, where it has dazzled their eyes, filled the pockets of certain well-known writers, had itself praised, and even entered into a tourism agreement with us to have its propaganda carried out. Had the Turks joined the boycott declared by the Arabs, the Jew would have found himself in a much more difficult position there.

Returning to the subject: the Ayşman case is a matter of judicial precedent and principle. This principle is enshrined in the constitutions of all democratic states and is deeply rooted. Every citizen, regardless of rank or position, may avail themselves of this right. In the clear legal consciousness of civilised nations, it was a tradition and a custom, up until the Second World War, for victors and vanquished alike not to distinguish between them after the war and to return to peace and friendship. The Jews have abolished this practice as well. The 'world conscience' has acted unilaterally in favour of the victors alone, distorting historical truths through lies-filled interviews and propaganda, and deceiving the masses. World Jewry and stateless Freemasons have done everything with false truths, trampled on every rule, and have been very adept at concealing and masking the injustices that occurred by deceiving world opinion. And... thus, all responsibility and guilt have been laid upon the shoulders of the defeated, whilst all the crimes and injustices committed by the Allied front have been covered up and concealed from the eyes of the nations. The nations have begun to realise, with sorrow and anxiety, what dire consequences this situation holds in store for the future.

The true nature of the violations committed in the name of World Jewry, in defiance of international law, tradition and history, is gradually coming to light with each passing day, taking shape, and nations are awakening from this terrible nightmare.

COLIN JORDAN'S DECLARATION:

'Under Jewish pressure, the collapsed and corrupt democratic regime in Britain sent the four of us to prison.

We were convicted on the basis of a false and fabricated charge—the likes of which the law has never seen. It is intended that, through such legal means, National Socialism be destroyed and our final downfall be brought about. Should this legal manoeuvre succeed, our imprisonment will serve to prepare the ground for its own political downfall. The persecution we have suffered with such intensity can only be explained in the following manner:

British public opinion has suffered nationwide damage in terms of moral decline, racial regression and social injustice as a result of Jewish-controlled democracy, and public sentiment is heading towards collapse. For this reason, those at the helm of this system are deeply afraid of the dynamic challenge posed by national socialism.

Far from driving us into cowardice, the prisons of Jewish democracy are our people and our nation—

In our struggle, which we have resolved to wage for the existence and rebirth of our cause, it strengthens our faith and steels our resolve. However, this is not just for us; our comrades in the cause and in thought in other countries have also been subjected to such actions and are currently... Even the greatest of our champions of the cause... Today, the spiritual victory is ours; with the triumph of will, tomorrow's material victory will also be ours. Independence belongs to the nationalists.

In our writings, we have brought to life the ideas, reflections and events on which we have focused in relation to the Jews up to this point. When it emerged that an SS colonel who had testified at the Nuremberg trials was originally Jewish and a spy trained beforehand by the intelligence service, the conscience of humanity was thrown into turmoil; the fact that, after the death sentences were handed down, they went so far as to bring a Jew named Wood all the way from America to carry out these executions—as if there were no Gypsies in the whole of Europe capable of doing so—reveals just how vile the hatred of the Jews is and what despicable creatures they are. The executions were carried out using thick, unsuitable ropes. That is why the condemned struggled in agony and torment for at least half an hour, their faces and eyes covered in blood, before finally yielding to their fate. This incident has kindled an unquenchable hatred in the souls of civilised nations and proclaimed the DECLINE OF CIVILISATION to the world."

OUR ANALYSES

Up to this point, I have touched upon the world of civilisation, the entire West, and the issues and events that concern us, using broad examples and comparisons relevant to the whole world; and I have brought to my readers' attention many vivid, poignant and momentous events that the world's press and writers, and touched upon the wound—the wound that concerns the entire civilised world. I hope I have provided my dear readers with information of considerable benefit.

Putting a full stop here, and pausing for a moment to reflect on our own situation, I felt it necessary to shed a little more light on the true nature of our eternal enemy—international Zionism—which has been at our throats for centuries and is working to completely annihilate the great Turkish nation, using various vivid examples. In this way, we shall have examined these dark entities—which we know very little about, or rather, which have not been properly introduced to us—in a somewhat brighter light, clearly and distinctly. Thus, we shall see who has taken advantage of our centuries-long ignorance, and in what manner, and with what savage cruelty.

The Committee of Union and Progress was founded by the international Jewish community. Its representatives are two Jews named Karasso and Salem, and a Dönme. The organisation on which they rely is international Freemasonry; in Rome, the Italian General Staff, its spies and Jews; in France, the 'Alliance Israélite Universelle'; in France, and the ‘Jewish Association’ in England. The necessary funds were provided by these organisations. As a first step, a Masonic lodge named ‘Makedonia Rizorta’ was established in Thessaloniki, and by exploiting the naivety of our young officers, whose hearts were filled with love for their homeland, they were deceived with various hypocritical promises and flowery words and enrolled in this den of corruption. In Thessaloniki, two distinguished figures of the day fell into this Jewish trap:

Staff Captain: Mersinli Cemal Bey (Pasha), Staff Lieutenant: Mustafa Kemal Bey (Pasha)...

After the society was founded and the constitutional monarchy was proclaimed, the Committee of Union and Progress was run by these Jews and Dönme. Trains full of innocent people were taken from Istanbul to Thessaloniki—which the Thessaloniki converts called the ‘Mehd-i Hürriyet’—to make a pilgrimage to that false Kaaba of Liberty, where they were bewitched; and the Jews ran that party until the society disintegrated along with the nation. Among the party’s founders, Colonel Türkeş… Pardon me, Major Sadık Bey, was first expelled from the party and then from the nation for exposing all the evils of Zionism. The Jews who controlled the military leadership of this organisation, whilst on the one hand undermining the foundations of the state at its very core, on the other hand sought to realise their dreams by engaging in espionage against our army in Palestine—which they referred to as the ‘Promised Land’, that is, the ‘dedicated land’—for their own benefit.

According to newly discovered documents, Talat Bey, who was educated at a Jewish school, had already accepted the idea of granting Jews a homeland and privileges in Palestine whilst still in Thessaloniki.

* * *

Time passed. The country was partitioned. The War of Independence was won. The People’s Party remained in power for many years. Throughout its policies were marked by elements inspired by the Jews. To such an extent that, as a result of the nation's surging, rebellious sentiments, the Jewish exodus that began on 3–7 July 1934 and spread as far as Thrace and the Straits was halted due to pressure from international Freemasonry and Zionism, and the Anatolian Agency attributed this incident to me and announced it to the whole world.

During the Democratic administration, the notorious apostate Salomon Adato served as a close adviser to that government. The closure of the Islamic Democratic Party, accompanied by a ten-lira fine, was carried out at the behest of American Jews and on the initiative of the apostate, with the approval of the Freemason officials within the government.

Salomon Adato also played a major role in the closure of other parties and associations, similarly subject to a ten-lira fine. The liaison between the courtroom and the Prime Minister's Office was carried out by the aforementioned party.

Having provided all this necessary background, the individual on whom we shall now focus is, without a doubt, the man known as KARASSO. He was such a typical and such a cunning Jew that an entire nation failed to see his true nature and elevated this mere peddler to positions that would influence the fate of the Turks. Whilst he was a mere lawyer in the filthy, squalid Jewish quarters of Thessaloniki, he on the one hand showered the palace with numerous reports, whilst on the other hand played a duplicitous role by establishing Masonic lodges. We, too, have fallen into this trap, cold-bloodedly and foolishly. Now, let us all read together and carefully examine the memorandum—a masterpiece of deceit and duplicity—written in his own hand and presented to the sovereign, so that we may understand the extent of our own naivety and negligence. The original of this memorandum is in our possession, and the copy is as follows:

‘It is evident to all that, whilst newspapers containing articles published in Europe that are likely to corrupt public opinion are freely read in the public coffeehouses of Thessaloniki, the police authorities have made no attempt whatsoever to prohibit them. In short, it has been observed that an article published yesterday in the Paris-based newspaper ‘Maten’, bearing the French title ‘An Invitation to the Ottoman People from the Descendants of Sultan Mecid’, which incites the public to rebellion and contains numerous delusions contrary to the principles of allegiance that cannot be taken seriously, is being read by a considerable number of people at the Orfeon café in Thessaloniki,It has been observed that this article is being read by a considerable number of people at the Orfeon reading room, situated in a prominent location in Thessaloniki. Based on the consideration that the aforementioned situation is not free from potential harm, this report has been submitted for your information, by order...

Emanoel Karasso, one of the Legal Representatives of Thessaloniki
The Servants»

Here is Karasso; and the deceived nation: US... Let us now dwell for a moment on this man who has altered the nation’s destiny, and examine the true nature of such two-faced hypocrites, whose actions have cost us the fragmentation of a great homeland. On this subject, we have selected two vivid examples, one from our own press and the other from a foreign newspaper.

Sultan Reşad, the Grand Vizier of his time, had presented Talat Pasha—leader of the Turkish Freemasons and the man who had tied the nation’s fate to the Jews—with a very valuable, gold cigarette case. The greedy, uncouth Jew, upon seeing this precious object, could not control his greed and, without blushing, with the brazenness characteristic of his race, demanded the case from Talat Pasha. The Grand Vizier replied:

— By God, Mr Karasso, it is not from you, but—it would be improper...

Years passed. The Grand Vizier and the Grand Mufti had fled the country and were living in Berlin. They had run out of money. This Jew, who was both a member of the Turkish parliament and an Italian subject, was asked:

a – A revolutionary comrade,

b - A Masonic brother,

c - Emboldened by the kindness he has received from him, he asks for financial assistance.

This man, who lives in Trieste and is said to be one of the city's leading millionaires, gives the following reply, which epitomises all the baseness and wickedness characteristic of his kind:

— By God, my lord, I am as penniless as you. I thought about it, and this occurred to me: if you were to sell the gold plate that Sultan Reşad gifted to you, you would come into a great deal of money...

Those who have taken the reins of state administration must remember that as long as they crush the true and upright sons of the nation and harbour such shadowy figures, their fate will be no different from that of Talat Pasha.

* * *

Now let us turn to the article in the British Times newspaper dated 2 June 1934... without adding a single comma or full stop of our own, here it is exactly as it stands:

> 'The death of Emmanuel Karasso, reported by the Reuters agency, will not cause any sorrow or regret. No one has instilled such a sense of distrust as this Jewish lawyer, who exploited the 1908 Revolution for his own gain and deceived innocent foreigners, particularly the French and Italians.'
> In 1908, Karasso was a lawyer

. Karasso successfully defended the strange cases of his strange clients. However, he owed this success not so much to his legal knowledge as to his connections with the Turkish revolutionaries through Freemasonry. He was a member of the Rizorta Lodge in Macedonia. To avoid scrutiny due to the Capitulations, he had arranged for the secret meetings of the Committee of Union and Progress to be held at the home of an Italian subject.

Although Enver and Talat were among them, many Young Turks became Freemasons; once the revolution had succeeded, Karasso went to Istanbul and stepped forward as one of the revolutionaries. During this period, he engaged in so much self-promotion and was so active that a foreigner who had travelled to Istanbul to see the Young Turks could not help but feel anger and hatred whenever, in every attempt he made to see a Turk, he found this Jew standing in his way.

When Sultan Abdulhamid was deposed, Karasso was among the four-member delegation sent by the Committee of Union and Progress to notify him of the decision.

Many elderly Turks and some Young Turks had categorically opposed Karasso's inclusion in the delegation. However, Karasso insisted. Who knows; perhaps he had gone in the name of the 'Great East' simply to savour the pleasure of witnessing the downfall of a ruler opposed to Zionism.

The text up to this point has been taken verbatim from Taymis. This newspaper has also quoted certain passages from a work written by Wickham Steed, which were dedicated to the aforementioned Karasso. When asked what he intended to do with Turkey,

Karasso gave the following reply:

‘— Have you seen how the baker kneads the dough? Whenever you think of us and Turkey, remember the baker and the dough. The baker kneads the dough: he stretches it, pushes it, and kneads it until it is fully developed; we want to do the same to Turkey. Once it is fully developed, we will bake it and eat it.’

Those lowlifes devoured a vast empire within a decade. They established a state upon the graves of our martyrs, kneading us like dough and swallowing us whole. And we, and we still admire them. Admiring them with a deep sense of inferiority. They certainly didn’t say it; no nation is destroyed by invasion, until its spirit and nobility are lost.

Despite the fact that their hypocrisy, their deceit, their dreadful organisation, and the money with which they buy people’s consciences have brought a thousand and one calamities upon this nation, we still sing their praises, still propagate their cause, still pin our hopes on them, still seek friendship with this accursed enemy of our faith and our homeland; just as the warnings from those foreign writers we have read, striking our minds like a sledgehammer, these lowlifes will devour what little remains of us.

With these lines I have interjected, and with this quotation from the world’s greatest newspaper, I sought to intervene in people’s consciences. I wonder, will those of sound mind deign to pause for a moment before these bitter truths? I do not expect it at all!

THE CONSEQUENCES OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR

The events that took place in the days leading up to Germany's surrender and during the surrender itself constitute the bloodiest and most repulsive phases of world history. These events lay bare, with terrifying clarity, the ugly faces and treacherous plans of the so-called 'democratic' world revolutionaries.

Having crushed their rivals, they will implement the 'Atlantic Pact'—which grants rights and freedoms to nations—to the point of exhaustion through their propaganda, —promising to fulfil their pledges, to provide bread instead of stones to a humanity suffering under torture—the leaders of the democratic front have committed the most savage and bloody acts, trampling upon all international laws and norms, so that today all of humanity writhes in agony under the consequences and suffering of these events, utterly exhausted. If these events have served any purpose for humanity, it is that they have compelled nations to act with greater caution, prudence and foresight, and with more deliberation, when it comes to devouring one another so easily for the sake of world Jewry. Among the events that clearly demonstrate the influence, organisation and power of Jews, Freemasons and Communists, the unjust and heartless treatment meted out to Marshal PETEN and Prime Minister PIERRE LAVAL in France stands out;

Marshal Pétain, who in the First World War had presented the world with great monuments of self-sacrifice in the famous battles of Verdun, and who in the Second World War had saved the whole of France from occupation and the destruction of its navy,

As for Pierre Laval: he is a true nationalist, and his only sin is that he is an enemy of Freemasonry and Judaism. To be an enemy of the Jews? Now that is a dreadful, truly dreadful thing. His bloodthirsty nature, the Talmud and his existence nourished by human blood, are sufficient to have his enemies shot by their own fellow citizens.

Let us return to the Germans: their strength exhausted, their morale shattered, their armed forces in a state of bewilderment, they were fleeing westwards in the hope of saving their lives from the marauding and murderous Soviet hordes. All these events, these unparalleled tragedies, this flood of millions of Germans spilling over their banks like rivers, were unfolding before the eyes of the American continents. These wretched people were retreating to the Oder-Neisse line offered by the Soviets. However, the communist hordes under the command of Jewish generals were turning these helpless women, children and elderly people back, abandoning this mass to a merciless and inhumane fate. Eisenhower, who was fighting for the so-called 'Free World'—regarded as the leader of the crusade against Nationalist Europe—and who carried the blood inherited from his German forefathers, remained as cold as stone in the face of all these hair-raising events against his own kinsmen; he rejected the Germans' offers of partial surrender and showed no trace of mercy or leniency,

The managers of Roosevelt's White House in Washington, all of whom were Jewish and Freemasons, ensured that the orders and decisions of world Zionism were implemented to the letter. The influence of these advisers was extremely powerful. Many years ago, I had published a small brochure many years ago. In this final and bloody war, the most important of these advisers were Morgenthau, notorious for his hostility towards the Turks, and Dexter Weite.

By ordering that all German officers be brought to trial and punished—even if they were merely carrying out orders—they added a new chapter to the history of military affairs.

* * *

Admiral Dönitz, chosen by Hitler as his successor, stepped in to bring order to the chaos, using every means and resource at his disposal to enable the millions of refugees and military units fleeing westwards from the eastern and south-eastern border regions—escaping the Russian hordes—to return to Germany. He succeeded in this only to a limited extent. For Roosevelt and his allies—who were under the command of world Jewry, whose wife was an outright Zionist working against us, and who had been given a taste of his own medicine by Ibn Suut—were subject to the pressure and dictates of their Jewish and Masonic advisers; consequently, the grace period granted to the defeated was far too short and insufficient for the purpose. For this reason alone, hundreds of thousands of people were consigned to a horrific death, and the merciless red roller passed over these wretched souls, whilst Admiral Dönitz signed the surrender. The masses on the victors' side were immersed in a great euphoria of victory. The bells of peace throughout the world were proclaiming the victory of power, injustice, materialism and invisible forces.

However, many great statesmen who understood the true nature and essence of the matter knew that this victory might be temporary, and that this peace—which had given rise to such deep hatred—was merely a lull heralding new storms and disasters. Indeed, that is precisely what happened; peace has still not come—far from it—and humanity has begun to await an apocalypse that will uproot all civilisation

. A heroic nation, which had fought with unprecedented courage for six years against enemies at least ten times its strength, lay gravely wounded and strewn across the ground, drenched in blood. Those who had brought it to its knees, who were torturing it, were constantly kicking it, spitting on it, mocking it, and hurling grave insults at it. Those who study Islamic and Turkish history will not encounter such a despicable treatment throughout the ages.

Since the Second World War was a war of revenge and retribution on behalf of the Jews, it became apparent after the armistice that chivalry, knighthood and nobility had vanished into thin air. And no one took into account that Hitler—whom they called 'the tyrant'—had made a grand and magnanimous gesture by refraining from annihilating the British forces he had surrounded at Dunkirk, even though it would have been possible to do so down to the last man, and instead allowing them to escape to England. Those gathered at Versailles and the global Freemasonry failed to grasp the nobility of responding to defeated France with honourable surrender and forbearance. Instead, they treated it with such crudeness and ingratitude. The whole world knows that had the Germans wished to do so, it would have been no trouble at all to occupy France from end to end and destroy its entire naval fleet. They did not do this. Moreover, during those wretched and bewildered days of the French, they even returned the historical war mementoes from the 1870–1871 war to the museums in Paris. They allowed the families of French prisoners of war to return to their homes. Captured French generals were free to move about their quarters on their word of honour.

Ayşe Sultan Osmanoğlu was residing in Paris at the time. I asked her how they had been treated by the German occupying forces. I am reproducing the answer I received below, as it is of historical significance:

‘When the Germans occupied Paris, we were overcome with great anxiety, fearing that we would be treated with extreme cruelty and even deliberately starved. For the Jewish propaganda organisation had spread the rumour from mouth to mouth that the barbaric Germans had left no stone unturned, and had attacked honour, chastity, life and property without distinction of women, children, the young or the old. The whole of France was trembling to its very core under the influence of this propaganda. When Paris was occupied, we were all under this influence. Yet we witnessed the exact opposite of what we had heard. Courtesy, politeness, generosity... and nothing to suggest the presence of an occupation...

One day, a German colonel came to the house where I was staying. He asked if we needed anything and said:

‘The Turks are a great and noble people. They are our friends, our comfort in dark times, and our allies. If you need anything, we would be honoured to provide it,’ he said, and left a large box of chocolates behind.”

The lies of the Jews and Freemasons, their slander, their smear campaign—it is so malicious that it can make white appear black.

Hitler, whom they call a tyrant, and his Germany treated their defeated enemies and rivals with such chivalry. The fact is, this man never imagined he would come to regret and feel remorse for all these noble and chivalrous acts.

In Islam, the moment the word ‘amen’ is uttered, all movements, animosities, hatreds and struggles cease at that very instant. Yet in the West, where our influence , things are quite different in the West... Perhaps it used to be different there too. But once the Jews had established their dictatorship, first in England and then throughout the West and the New World, things changed. Nobility, chivalry, compassion, mercy and magnanimity gave way to animosity and hatred. The respect shown by our historical enemies, the Russians, to the hero of Plevna, Gazi Osman Pasha, after his surrender, has now entered the realm of legend.

Let us also recall the atrocities of the last war: Admiral Dönitz and his deputies, after ceasing fire and surrendering, were sent to prison without any reason being given, their trousers removed at the order of the British military authorities. This act of cruelty and barbarism was a repulsive incident unprecedented in world history.

The German people were subjected to utterly crude and unjust treatment and had fallen into the hands of a rabble; there, the spirit of imperialism had reared its head once more.

The Allied forces occupying Germany, under the influence and direction of highly skilled Jewish directors, fuelled widespread hatred by cowardly murdering captured officers through shooting them in the head. In response to this, and in an attempt to distance themselves from this hair-raising brutality, communists, Freemasons and Jews joined forces to exterminate hundreds of thousands of nationalist patriots without trial or inquiry, in accordance with lists prepared long beforehand by secret forces.

A recent example of this has also been witnessed in our own country. Namely: in 1953 in Malatya, a staged and farcical assassination was orchestrated against the apostate Ahmet Emin Yalman

Moreover, in accordance with blacklists drawn up long beforehand by the same secret forces—namely, the Zionists, Freemasons and Dönme—everyone in the country known to be a nationalist or a defender of sacred values was arrested without question or inquiry and brought before the courts. I was at the top of this list

. We have strong evidence to prove the Jewish influence in this matter; let me recount it.

A shot was fired at the Dönme. The judiciary had not yet intervened and the police had not yet arrived at the scene. The world press collaborated to pin this incident on me. As an example of this, the Zionist Record newspaper, published in Pitsmarinburg, a small town in South Africa, wrote exactly as follows:

> 'An assassination attempt has been made on Ahmet Emin Yalman, a man of Jewish origin, in Malatya, one of Turkey's southern provinces. This assassination was orchestrated by General Cevat Rifât Atilhan, a militia commander who, during the First World War, subjected Jews in Palestine to severe torture on the pretext of espionage.'

This vivid example, demonstrating the horrific concern and sensitivity of this Jewish organisation, is sufficient to give the entire nation deep pause for thought. None of the writers and intellectuals who have been arrested have any the Malatya incident. Yet, the uproar stirred up by secret forces and the atmosphere of terror they created have unjustly confined us to prison for ten and a half months. During the ongoing trials, such terror and fear were instilled by hundreds of soldiers, hundreds of police officers and machine guns that even our fellow MPs did not dare to greet these victims, let alone ask after them.

The fair Turkish judges, seeing that we had no connection with this disgrace, acquitted us. This just decision has driven the regime to distraction, emboldening them to the point of extending their filthy hands into the sanctum of justice and the Turkish judiciary. The following excerpt from a handwritten letter the late gentleman, in his arrogance, sent to the Prime Minister of the time, serves as a sufficient example:

«... Had I not held a key role on the Executive Committee of the International Press Institute, I would certainly not have gone.

... Every avenue is open to those who seek evil. JUSTICE is practically their patron...

Emin Dazıroğlu, Cevat Rifât and Necip Fazıl—who were thought to be the most understanding—reduced the Malatya assassination attempt to a mere police matter by issuing a release order. This court was supposedly established not to punish enemies of the regime and the country, but to give wavering individuals the opportunity to violate my and Rezzan's honour and dignity..."

This example we have taken from ourselves is a masterpiece of Jewish audacity and the shamelessness of apostates. A man who has devoted all his efforts against Turkishness and Islam, who has looked down upon the Turk's Turkishness and his homeland, is so impudent as to call a Turk of pure blood—one like myself, who rendered outstanding service in the Italian, Balkan, and First World Wars and the War of Independence, who commanded a front against the enemy, and who distinguished himself through heroism—an enemy of the regime and the country.

Now, in the light of this vivid example drawn from our own experience, we can examine the major events:

There is no doubt that Germany was the epicentre of the Second World War. All hatred, malice and aggression were focused upon Germany. In the East and West, German men of all ages who were captured in the early days were crammed into camps 'in the open fields', surrounded by barbed wire. First, the valuable items, watches, money and the like in their possession were seized, and they were all mercilessly killed.

There is a parallel to this in our recent history, and we witnessed this during the First World War.

After all the valuables on the Turkish officers and soldiers who were taken prisoner during the Palestinian retreat had been seized, the officers were forced to march on foot through the scorching deserts; though they had been driven to the brink of madness by thirst, the taps on the water barrels carried by the water-carrying horses were opened, yet these wretched men were not permitted to take a single sip of water. Some of them were also killed in various ways at the Seydi Beşir prisoner-of-war camp.

On 16 March, during the de facto occupation of Istanbul, innocent Turkish soldiers sleeping in their beds at Şehzadebaşı were bayoneted without cause; subsequently, the watches, jewellery, valuables and money found on the persons of those deported to the island of Malta in accordance with pre-prepared lists were seized.

These events, which epitomise 'the Decline of Civilisation', were carried out on a scale that was all the more horrific during the Second World War. May God protect nations from a third world war. If such a catastrophe were to befall humanity, we can better appreciate from these examples that no living creature or unspeakable atrocity would be spared on this earth.

* * *

The bloody treatment meted out to the retreating German forces has exceeded all expectations. Tens of thousands of officers and men of the Free Ukrainian Army, deceived by the false promises of the British occupation commander, had set up camp near the Austrian border and surrendered their weapons. The British handed these men over shortly afterwards to the Red Army, which was under the command of communists—that is, Jewish commanders. The Russians then shot each of these wretches in the head, killing them all. A small number of these soldiers were also crammed into wagons, sealed them shut, and doused them with petrol, leaving them to a most merciless death. All this occurred during the Second World War, an era of the 'Decline of Civilisation' unseen even in the earliest ages or the Stone Age.

The gates of the German concentration camps, which housed murderers and criminals who had committed heinous crimes, were opened. These criminals attacked the people on the basis of a secret order. They were merged with groups of millions of foreign workers, placed under the command of communists and Jews, and, having been armed, were directed to plunder every town, village and hamlet. They also seized the last remaining food in the people's possession. As a result, all the babies and small children died writhing in agony from starvation in their mothers' arms. The misery caused by infectious diseases and starvation drove German women into the arms of Western and Eastern soldiers. Consequently, venereal diseases also spread.

The ordeal did not end there. German women and girls fell victim to the systematic hunting down by the occupying forces. In Soviet-occupied Germany, during the first year of the occupation, every woman and every girl—with the exception of those who managed to conceal themselves with great skill—was raped by hordes of Red Army soldiers. Most horrifically, these unfortunate women were often subjected to these atrocities right before their eyes, with machine guns pressed against their parents' chests, leaving them powerless to intervene. Every day, in the squares, thousands of women were forced to drink themselves into a stupor at vodka-fuelled orgies, engaging in prostitution and debauchery until dawn.

These repulsive acts were carried out by the Red Army's Jewish political commissars. For some reason, the fact that the vast majority of these commissars were Jewish was not reported in the world press. For the Masonic-Jewish managers in the West were watching their great revenge with savage delight. Thus, as a result of these mass rapes and assaults, thousands of women died or committed suicide to put an end to this torture.

As for the Western region: similar incidents were occurring among the occupying forces in this area at the outset; however, Jewish leaders sought to prevent this, fearing that their own soldiers' bloodlines might be corrupted by living alongside the German people and increasing contact with them. For, in accordance with the Morgenthau Plan, they were required to remain enemies of the Germans—whom they regarded as their greatest foes—to the very end; to sterilise German men and women; and even to poison and exterminate the entire population. For this reason, friendship and contact with the civilian population in the West were forbidden. Even the slightest act of assistance towards the Germans was strictly forbidden. Giving a morsel of bread to a German child writhing in agony from hunger was considered a crime. This ban was relaxed a few years later, as it became clear that it was not being observed.

Dear reader, in these lines you will have seen just what a dreadful monster the followers of the Talmud are—enemies of chastity, honour and life. Praise be to God, whilst we are still able to stand on our own two feet, some scoundrels have emerged who wish to foster friendship with these creatures—who, two years ago at the Tel Aviv sports ground, attacked our athletes with the most vile abuse and beat up their captain—but one day, let them take note of these lines— will be roused from the vile delusion into which they have plunged.

Let us follow the course of events:

The American soldier's lust for women had run wild. It needed to be quelled. Due to this insatiable hunger, German women and girls could not help but be driven into prostitution to save themselves and their children from death, trading their bodies for a piece of chocolate or a tin of food. This business was carried out in the East through savage brutality, and in the West through hunger and chocolate. This is the Western civilisation that some admire.

The coloured soldiers of the occupying forces with their white comrades

These women were competing with one another in their shopping. Moreover, there were cases of rape in the darkness. Thus, in Germany under occupation, the most obscene sexual activities were being perpetrated against women. The daughters of a noble Prussian officer were being forced to sleep with the most unsophisticated Black men who had come from the wild forests. In the entertainment districts and taverns, alcohol flowed like water, and these places were packed to the brim until dawn. In these places, drunken rowdies and bloodthirsty murderers who had been in the camps until the day before, disguised as 'freedom fighters', were acting as informers and spies for the Americans. Amidst the anarchy, in these entertainment venues, men were not even hesitating to kill one another to possess a woman, just as they would in the 'land of cowboys'—America—much like the outlaws of Arizona. German cities had turned into vast brothels. Had many American and British women heard what their sons were up to in Europe, they would certainly have gone mad.

Germany had been transformed into a vast internment camp besieged by the entire world. All entry points were subject to extremely strict controls for years. No observer could bear to witness the brutal plans of Morgenthau—the Jew, Freemason and great enemy of the Turks—being put into practice. For this reason, whilst these atrocities were being committed, all routes were sealed off and measures were taken to ensure these horrors remained unseen. Every possible precaution and arrangement had been made to prevent the outside world from witnessing these atrocities.

The 'conscience of the world' managed to keep everything under wraps, and for some reason the newspapers of the 'free' (!) world made no mention whatsoever of these tragic events. However, a few drops of truth managed to seep through to neutral countries via long and circuitous routes.

The Morgenthau Plan was implemented in its entirety. In addition to the hair-raising atrocities we have read about from top to bottom, all factories vital to the war effort were dismantled and distributed as spoils of war among the nations that had entered the war against Germany

. According to the Jews, no German was to be allowed to take up arms again. For this reason, all factories—starting with those producing war materials—were dismantled without exception; and thus the German industry, the primary aim and objective of Britain and America, was eradicated. However, for instance, although the world's largest press, which was in the possession of the German Krupp factories, was handed over to Yugoslavia, it rusted away there because there was no one capable of operating it. In these matters, communists and democrats joined forces to completely destroy the German factories. After all, was not the reason for the nine-month lull and silence known as the 'telephone war' simply a matter of self-interest and the golden calf?

In addition to these, seventeen tonnes of patents—of inestimable value and the product of hundreds of brilliant minds and geniuses—were transported to America without any compensation being paid, and it was from this that the atomic industry was born.

Years before entering the war, the Americans had worked tirelessly to get their hands on these documents and had poured money into their spies like water. Once the war was over and they were victorious, they tracked down scientists and engineers, forcibly took them to America, and put them to work for high salaries. This was the second factor in the birth of the atomic industry...

As for the East: the Communists put forward two conditions for such scientists and technical experts: either to accept imprisonment in a Siberian labour camp, or to go to special facilities to work for the cause of the Soviet Russian world revolution... Thus, approximately a thousand German scientists and specialists were sent to the United States, and twelve thousand scholars to Soviet Russia. Both sides competed with one another, particularly to secure rocket technology specialists.

The renowned Jewish industrialist and 'king of the arms industry', Bernhard Baruch, and his associates at the Peenemünde atomic bomb and rocket centre, along with other German weapons such as the 'V'

They began to produce the final, refined versions of these. Thanks to the Jewish spies about whom we have read in detail in the newspapers, these were passed on to Communist Russia. Thus, two colossal powers were born: the Soviet Union and the United States...

Now, all of humanity looks to the future with fear and dread under the weight of these two immense pressures.

DISASTERS OUTSIDE GERMANY

Salomon Truman and Windsor Churchill, at Potsdam, granted their 'brothers-in-arms'—the murderous, Jewish-origin Stalin—freedom to implement what we call 'Soviet-style people's democracy'—that is, bloody communism—in the regions occupied by Soviet forces. The Russians, taking advantage of this opportunity, granted freedom to deport the German minorities living in Czechoslovakia, Poland, Yugoslavia and Silesia; the Atlantic Pact had been reduced to tatters and swept under the carpet. That agreement, during the war, served only to deceive the smaller nations. Thus, with the tolerance of the Western democratic world, the communists set about hunting down and exterminating the 'prey' within their own territories.

The political schemer and notorious German-hater Beneš decided that the time had come to take revenge for his past defeats. Relying on the decisions of the war profiteers in Potsdam, the extermination of the Sudeten Germans was resolved. On 25 August 1945, Beneš himself declared that he would wipe out all Germans. This massacre was not a spontaneous act by the Czech people. It had been systematically and methodically organised and orchestrated by circles that had been secretly prepared by Beneš and the Communists. Communist elements, following the successful examples from other countries, had here too established a 'National Resistance' front—and under this pretext they had carried out massacres. Within a short period of time, the remnants of the German occupation forces and one million civilians were killed. Most of them were women and children.[1]

On 8 May 1945, when a signal was transmitted from Prague Radio in accordance with a pre-arranged password, the German massacre began, echoing the events of St Bartholomew's Night. Amidst piercing and blood-curdling screams, the city of Prague was plunged into a mass murder carried out by a sadistic mob, awakened by demons and driven by a bloodthirsty frenzy. This was the most horrific massacre ever witnessed in history. Only those who witnessed the savage, bestial actions of a brutalised people with their own eyes can describe the details. For us, it is impossible to describe, characterise or explain. This murderous rampage spread throughout the whole of Czechoslovakia in a short space of time. Even after it began to subside, it continued for months. Those who survived this scythe of death were herded into concentration camps that had been prepared in advance following the 'death marches'; there, after enduring a long period of captivity filled with torture, the last of their possessions were stripped from them, and they were driven towards the German borders, cast into the arms of a new and even harsher fate.

The renowned Czech writer Olga Von Baseniji was both an eyewitness to and a victim of these horrific tragedies. She miraculously managed to escape from the hell that was Prague and in her memoirs—

(1) Whilst all nations mourned the imaginary deaths of six million Jews, blowing the whistle of the Jew—the enemy of humanity—no substantial complaint was lodged, nor was any forceful publicity mounted regarding these horrific crimes committed in plain sight. The Babylonian exile of the Children of Israel, and the vengeance for the blows dealt by Titus and Nebuchadnezzar, were taken in full from all of humanity. Yet the Children of Israel knew, and had learnt from their own history, that they would pay for these temporary and fleeting victories at a price that would make one pity the past. This dreadful minority, which has been killing people one by one in spiked barrels as a 'religious' duty, has in the last century thrown entire masses into gigantic spiked barrels; yet they know better than anyone else where this will lead. They have ample experience in this matter.

(2) It is an event that has gone down in history as a result of the massacre of Protestants.

He has published his account. In his books The Prague Dance of Death and The Road to Death, written through his own blood and suffering, he draws on horrific documents and images to accuse not only the shadowy conspirators behind the democratic front, but also his own small Czech nation. As is well known, the Czech nation was one of the European nations least affected by the calamities and sufferings of the Second World War. For its men were exempt from serving at the front and suffered no human losses whatsoever. Czechoslovakia, under German protection, did not suffer from food shortages throughout the entire war. There was no conflict whatsoever between the Germans and the Czech people. However, the murder of a prominent German named Haydrik and the subsequent actions of the German authorities naturally created a climate of tension, culminating in the destruction of the LIDIGE Czech printing press.

Documents obtained after the war have proven that even the Czech authorities were opposed to Haydrik's murder. This murder was carried out at the behest of the British 'Strategic Bureau'. This bureau was headed by the British General W. Donovan. His task was to organise and arm sabotage and partisan activities behind German lines.

This authority employed the notorious British spy Colonel Lawrence, famous for his activities on the Syrian and Arabian fronts during the First World War, for this very purpose, and set the deserts ablaze. I personally fought against this man and captured the most important of the accursed Jewish spies behind this organisation, handing them over to justice. All those treacherous and ungrateful Jews whom we settled in Palestine with our own hands, and whom we brought to a prosperity and happiness that the poor, native sons of this land could not even dream of, served Lawrence. At the head of the espionage and sabotage operation was Lawrence's deputy, the British Jew Aran Aranson. I had his sister, Sarah Aranson, captured in the village of Zimmar; whilst being brought to Damascus, she threw herself off a cliff in the Shahab Valley and committed suicide. The whole world Jewish newspapers wrote for days on end that we had subjected this treacherous woman to torture. This is just as much a lie as the claim that six million Jews were murdered. If we are at fault in this matter, it is only because, as Muslims and Turks, we treated her with the utmost humanity.

At the time these lines were written, a film titled 'Lawrence' was being made in England. A film that portrays Turks as despicable, cowardly, wicked and cruel. British newspapers published articles criticising this film. They declared that Turks are brave, heroic and honourable, and that in terms of human dignity and civilisation, they are the most refined people on earth. Out of curiosity, I wrote to my friend John Tyndall in London to enquire about the matter. In his letter dated 28 December 1962, he gives the following reply:

> 'This was made with Jewish capital, by Jews, and has been rejected with hatred by the British people.'

Having reinforced this despicable character of the Jew with an example from our own experience, we may now continue with our writings."

* * *

If one were to consider the matter calmly and logically, it is difficult to make sense of or explain this bloody act by the Czech people. It falls to psychologists to investigate the deep-seated reasons why young girls and children also took part in the campaign to exterminate the Germans en masse. We have been unable to find an explanation.

The atrocities committed by the Germans are easier to understand. Those who committed such crimes were always either individuals or small groups. In such cases, the perpetrators were brought to trial and punished.

The crimes committed in Yugoslavia, a disgrace to civilisation and the atrocities were by no means any less severe than the others. In particular, the bloody extermination campaigns perpetrated against the Slovaks in the Banat region and the communist atrocities committed against Croatian nationalists signify the death of civilisation, compassion, mercy and humanity. In these countries, anyone who stood in the name of nationalism was killed amidst torture and torment. Forty-five thousand children were deported to Russia. The massacres carried out in Croatia claimed the lives of four hundred thousand Croats. I know that we are unaware of these terrible tragedies committed before the eyes of humanity. The Jews' clamour, their charlatanry, and the millions they spent to control the world press have stifled the voices of the innocent, concealed the murders, and substituted them with imaginary tragedies concocted by the accursed Israeli mind.

At the Moscow Conference, Churchill had promised the Poles, with great generosity, the Oder-Neisse line—that is, the German territory lying beyond the German lands granted to the Poles and Russians. The Soviets, however, have handed over new German territories to the Germans in exchange for the German lands forcibly taken from the Poles.

The Poles, betrayed by the Allies, left homeless and stateless, and incited by Communist commissars, drove the local population from the lands of Silesia and Pomerania, seized their property, and settled there themselves. Supposedly, this war was being waged in the name of justice, freedom and humanity.

In France, Belgium and the Netherlands, as well as in Denmark and Norway, resistance movements were being directed by communist elements. These individuals had disguised themselves as nationalists and freedom fighters and had secured positions in the most important posts. Throughout the war, all these underground movements were extensively supplied with weapons and sabotage equipment by the Allies. As the war drew to a close, their influence had grown. These movements, perfected by the Red Internationalists, and

This banditry and sabotage, which was quietly and unquestioningly accepted by democracies despite being contrary to international law, must be regarded as the primary cause of much of the savagery and barbarism committed during the Second World War. It was these acts of sabotage and ambush, and the turmoil they caused, that compelled the German army to adopt harsher, more aggressive measures. Ambushes set against the German troops withdrawing from France led to heavy casualties on both sides. A hostile atmosphere was created against the nationalist and patriotic French who sought to prevent this action, to restore calm, to stem the river of blood, to extinguish the fires, and to prevent the atrocities. In France alone, hundreds of thousands of patriotic Frenchmen, all of whom were innocent, were brutally murdered on the grounds that they had collaborated with the Germans. In France, these gangs had become a force to be reckoned with. With the support of Freemasons and Jews, they gained complete control over the justice system, the courts and public opinion. They went so far as to sentence a great hero like Marshal Pétain to life imprisonment and an exceptional man like Prime Minister Pierre Laval to death. In doing so, they contributed to the escalation of the long-standing hostility between the two nations and prevented a return to normality.

In Belgium, government officials sympathetic to the Germans took extremely harsh measures against the Flemish of Germanic descent, who had been fighting for their national freedom for centuries; tens of thousands of them were sentenced to death, and many others were imprisoned for life.

Although eighteen years have passed since the war ended, a significant number of them are still languishing in Belgian prisons.

Furthermore, Walloon and Flemish soldiers who had volunteered solely to fight against the communists were also sentenced to imprisonment and death after the war.

After the Netherlands, Denmark and Norway were occupied, under the directives of the governments there and at the behest of the German armed forces, the people of those countries were urged to cooperate wholeheartedly with the Germans. Many serving officers from those countries applied to fight voluntarily on the Russian front against the Communists. The authorities in those countries readily granted the necessary permission. When the remainder of these soldiers returned to their homelands at the end of the war, they were branded as 'collaborators' and traitors to the nation, sent to prisoner-of-war camps, interrogated and subjected to torture. In Norway alone, ninety thousand nationalists fell victim to their own Marxist government, which had broken its word and was under the influence of the Jews. Many prominent figures of the nationalist front were sentenced to death. Those who remained were, without exception, sentenced to long or short prison terms, had all their wealth confiscated, and lost all their rights and positions. Action was even taken against the elderly poet Knut Hamsun, whom the whole world respected and admired. Knut Hamsun and the Norwegian nationalist Vidk Quisling believed that the force threatening the world was not Germany but Soviet Russia. Their prediction proved correct. This man strove to rouse his nation wherever he went. This honourable, self-sacrificing man, despite being over eighty years of age, was thrown into prison by the leftists and had all his wealth confiscated.

Neutral Sweden granted asylum to Baltic and German soldiers who had managed to escape from the Eastern Front at the end of the war, in accordance with the Treaty of The Hague. Subsequently, in an attempt to curry favour with the victorious Allies, the Swedish government bowed to Soviet demands and, in violation of international law, handed these refugees over to ruthless Soviet Russia. As soon as this decision by the Swedish authorities became known in the prisoner-of-war camps, nationalists attempted to commit suicide by slitting their wrists and to escape from the camp. Those who escaped were rounded up again by Swedish police units and forcibly handed over to new Soviet ships waiting in the ports.

. Concurrently, all commercial and private assets belonging to German industrialists, merchants and private individuals living in Sweden were confiscated and placed at the disposal of the victors. All Germans living in Sweden were expelled and deported to West Germany.

Let us take this opportunity to note that it is only fitting to pay tribute here to Switzerland's genuine neutrality and fair conduct. Although the victors made numerous demands of this small country, Switzerland stood firm against their blackmail and, by rejecting all their demands, knew how to preserve its honour.

The most striking aspect of the matter is that all acts of revenge and savagery directed against nationalists took place after the war had ended. These events took place in the period following the establishment of 'world peace'. However, this series of bloody incidents plunged the 'world's conscience' into a deep silence. For to proclaim these evil deeds of the democratic victors to the whole world would have worked against their own interests.

What you have read above—these bloody, savage and Talmudic acts that make one loathe humanity—led the 'world conscience', an invention of Freemasonry and managed by these groups, to hatch a new thesis in order to present them as legally legitimate. The 'collective guilt' thesis... Yet in this way, it was accepted that the innocent would burn alongside the guilty...

World Jewry set in motion every instrument of their own invention—the machine of slander and defamation—to cover up these murders and to fabricate crimes and criminals. Hollywood, entirely under Jewish control, and the world's leading magazines, as if by prior arrangement, displayed the most horrific images before the eyes of the entire world. In these, mountains formed from human corpses and the most appalling scenes

. This situation continues to this day, with increasing speed and shamelessness. The fact is that people watching these fake images in cinemas, realising that these corpses are of people who fell victim to the bombings by the democratic allies, are cursing the Jews. There is still persistent talk of gas chambers. Honest people, led by British writers and historians, are now declaring to the world that such a thing never existed.

And finally, the Nuremberg trials, which we all know and have followed with great interest, laid before the nations of the world a host of lies and fabricated events. It is now too late; countless people have met their end at the hands of the Jewish executioner Wood, tortured in a horrific manner with ship's ropes, thrashing about for minutes on end—some for half an hour—before dying. Their heads and faces were torn to pieces, and they died in a pool of blood.

JACKSON, the Chief Prosecutor of the Nuremberg Tribunal, who realised the injustice of this tragedy, that the testimonies given were false, and that this whole affair was a Jewish conspiracy, could not bear the remorse and pangs of conscience he felt and took his own life.

Let us thus bring this bloody chapter to a close here.

THE SPIRIT OF OUR TIME!

Up to this point, we have listed the painful and hair-raising incidents that demonstrate the extent to which people became savage in Germany and other European nations, which formed the epicentre of the Second World War. We have, to the best of our ability, highlighted that behind these bloody events lies the force that has plunged the world into blood and fire: World Jewry, Freemasonry and communism.

If the dangers and harms of Zionism, and its merciless and unscrupulous acts and actions, were confined solely to the West, we might well have said, 'What does this have to do with us?', and felt no need to endure such a great burden by writing about it. For centuries, nations have been engaged in a struggle against Zionism, which has worked against the happiness, lives, prosperity, and even the faith and beliefs of people, and have become the targets and victims of its unquenchable hatred and vengeance. The greatest enemy of the Children of Israel is Islam. Throughout world history, this enmity has not diminished but has grown. The one who has fought this accursed force with full determination and a prophetic resolve is, without a doubt, our noble Prophet.

As for us Turks: from the Nile to the Euphrates, they regard the vast region encompassing our homeland as their own, and seek to establish an Israeli state with its centre in Jerusalem.

What great intrigues they have hatched in our homeland, what great lies and slanders they have concocted, and—starting with 31 March, —as history will one day reveal—what treacherous schemes they have undertaken. I have made these known to our nation, one by one, in full detail and with supporting documents, through numerous works.

Behind our army, which fought on the Sinai and Palestine fronts during the First World War, braving every kind of deprivation and hardship, this subversive organisation played a decisive role in our defeat and humiliation through espionage, treachery, sabotage and appalling subversion, thereby contributing to our defeat and humiliation. I have made this known to my beloved nation through my sixty-odd books and over a thousand articles. Thanks to the faith in my heart and the nobility in my blood, I stood firm against the Jew's thirst for revenge, his lies, and his slanders and assassinations, which are not bound by any sense of honour or dignity. They plundered the wealth I had earned through labour and sweat. Yet all this served only to strengthen my resolve and increase my determination. And finally, yes, finally, the Jews themselves have begun to confess—through their own mouths, newspapers and books—the despicable treachery they committed on the Sinai and Palestine fronts, which they had used as a pretext for boasting or, in their own minds, as a means of threat. In every country, in every language, these acts of treachery are being repeated; serialised accounts appear in newspapers, and photographs are published; yet the fact that these have still failed to awaken any sense of awareness among us is truly a matter of deep sorrow.

The atmosphere we are experiencing at this very moment is highly significant and relates to these observations.

We are living through days when Israel and the communists are squandering money like water. Articles, whispers, underhand manoeuvres, radio broadcasts and all manner of publications, statements that give the impression of being directed from a central hub, and a host of brazen, reckless ventures are by no means a good omen. The danger is growing. The illegitimate Israeli government, which has been plunged like a dagger into the heart of the Middle East, has set its sights on the whole of Asia. In this continent, by sowing discord among worthy nations, pitting them against one another, and buying their consciences and pens, it is marching towards its long-term goal. Once it was said, 'A vile Jew cannot establish a state'; they were regarded as contemptible and powerless. Today, men we never expected are fawning over it. Thus, the emboldened Jew, having brought under his command those who possess resources, power and the pen, is advancing towards his goal from every direction. When matters have reached this stage, the question arises: 'Who and where will stop it?'

To illustrate the grave danger posed by a minority that set the whole world ablaze in order to bring down the mighty German state—which had stood shoulder to shoulder with the entire world for six years—we have laid bare, one by one, vivid and authentic accounts drawn from the very heart of the conflict. Taking these events into account, and considering the future and what lies ahead, it is the duty of every patriot to reflect on what measures must be taken.

Now, I believe it would be beneficial to analyse the spirit of our times in the light of all these examples and to draw lessons from them.

Behind the greatest transformation in human history, unfolding before our very eyes, one can discern the aims of the fanatical 'World Republicans'. Their objective is to dominate the freedom and future of nations, against the wishes of those very nations. These supra-national powers have succeeded in taking control of the world's most important intelligence and scientific research centres through their immense wealth and organisational structures. In this way, they have also succeeded in taking control of the intellectual direction and management of public opinion. Under the influence of Communists, Zionists and Freemasons, who pursue the ideal of a 'single world', humanity today represents the spirit of the age in a modern form. The proponents of a single world know that their plans will only be realised with the disappearance of the lifestyles and organisational forms that have persisted until the present day. The 'uniform human' who will constitute the independent world republic, the single world—

This is a natural consequence of that line of thinking. For such a plan to be fully realised, it will only be possible through the intermingling of all the nations of the world. In this way, a rootless, traditionless, race-less, mixed-race product and a sterilised mass of humanity will come into being. The creative power of these haphazardly intermingled nations in the cultural sphere will be reduced to zero. In this way, a boundless, primitive and uniform civilisation will be created. Its structure can only be maintained through drastic measures of force.

For this reason, the intermingling and assimilation sought as a goal for humanity—the uprooting of human species, which have developed organically over thousands of years with varying degrees of change, from their roots in diverse cultural spheres and their haphazard intermingling—amounts to a violation of the natural laws established by God.

Nature has brought forth an infinite variety of life forms and ways of life. Without exception, these develop healthily in accordance with a fundamental principle. Nature recognises neither a single type of plant, nor a single type of animal, nor a single type of human. To defy the laws of nature and attempt to alter them is to invite punishment from nature itself.

Such as disease, degeneration, collapse and death...

The current state of our cultural life, which is completely and thoroughly confused across all spheres, is in truth a reaction brought about by a human being wavering between the natural and the unnatural. These are people who are searching for something but cannot find it, and who have lost sight of the goal of living. Modern technology has perfected modern means. Such as radio, film and television... Half a century ago, these devices belonged to the realm of fairy tales. In the realm of news and scientific technology, these instruments can be transmitted to every person on earth at the speed of light and in a practical manner, and can exert a spiritual and intellectual influence over every individual.

These devices have spread throughout the world in a short space of time—

The fact that it provides people with the opportunity to engage directly with the outside world at any time of day has created a unique sense of being right at the heart of events. Pampered by a noisy and lavish programme, the television viewer now regards acquiring knowledge through reading, research, and independent thought as a waste of time. This information is now provided effortlessly and without cost via television, the telephone, the cinema, and illustrated publications. Moreover, the viewer, sitting comfortably in their armchair without tiring, surrenders to the spirit of the age without straining their mind or brain, and cannot prevent ideas and thoughts they do not wish to enter their mind from taking root there. Naturally, the viewer is unaware that they perceive these things to some extent like a medium. For their ability to think has been paralysed by the broadcaster. The receptivity of television viewers varies to different degrees. A large proportion of them gradually lose their sense of self and become ensnared by a strange, fixed idea. Such people, upon returning home each evening, abandon themselves to a fantasy window that influences them like a captive robot, and strive to distance themselves from all worries and the anxieties of life. Thus, instead of actively participating in world events, they fall into the role of an indifferent spectator and a puppet. In this way, the majority of people resemble soulless creatures subject to the influence of a foreign will.

As a result of the development of these global means of communication, the ‘spirit of the age’ and the principal architects of public opinion, along with the intellectual currents they have organised, are striving to bring humanity to a uniform level; this is rapidly dehumanising mankind.

Let it not be thought that we are opposed to these technical devices listed above. Whilst these devices are extremely useful for developing and preserving the cultures of nations, should they fall into the hands of supra-national powers and organisations, humanity and civilisation will be exposed to grave dangers. This

We can gauge just how terrible these dangers are from the bloody incidents we have listed above. These organisations, which propagate internationalist objectives and are controlled from a central hub, are today entirely in the hands of Masonic, Zionist and Communist forces. In the hands of this left-wing and negative organisation, these wonderful inventions have become tools that corrupt people's minds and, without their realising it, instil diabolical suggestions. Their poison seeps into the depths of our souls through our emotional senses, wreaking havoc there, paralysing the power of will and leading to the downfall of nations.

In the political life nations are currently experiencing, the crucial role these inventions play is plain for all to see. By seizing control of radio and television, those who can easily instigate revolutions by influencing the morale and minds of the masses; once they have seized the government, seek to make their people swallow all their actions—good or bad—as entirely appropriate, well-judged and beneficial; there is no need for a lengthy explanation of the immense benefits that partisans and dictators derive from the radio, nor of how those who somehow come to power secure such great advantages from them.

The internal life of a nation can only proceed in the direction determined by nature, and the laws of nature necessitate the preservation of this course. It is through this that the continuous development of nations in the cultural sphere takes place, and it does not tolerate any external interference or encroachment. If today we observe changes in the characteristics inherited by people across the world—which we feel with increasing intensity every day and witness their negative and corrupting manifestations in our spiritual lives—these are leading nations towards cultural nihilism. The new inventions and devices we have listed above—namely radio, television and the like—are merely foreign styles and destructive forces, as mentioned earlier —resulting in a constant violation of people's consciousness.

The aims and objectives of the 'globalists' in this regard have been identified. Their deliberate propaganda, aimed at people's
It may be regarded as a preparatory form of education designed to raise them as 'citizens of the world'. This propaganda has been prepared in such a thorough, gradual and systematic manner that it aims to undermine the firm convictions and pre-existing judgements and decisions of all conservative and noble-minded people, and to reduce them to a ridiculous position. We can see the destructive and negative effects of this propaganda particularly in spiritual matters to which we are accustomed and which we have grown fond of—such as racial and national dignity, patriotism, military honour and integrity, tradition, custom, practice and the like.

Historical truths, experiences and values of beauty that have taken root in the consciousness of nations are being sought to be altered according to the commands of these globalist, supra-national forces, and the conscience-less desires and wills—and even base pleasures—of these detestable powers. We see that noble and refined tastes have been cast aside, and in their place, crude and vulgar tastes such as 'rock 'n' roll' and 'twist' have taken hold. Just as it is written in the famous Protocols of the Elders of Zion: 'The youth must be corrupted with immoral and obscene games'...

In theatres and concert halls, human and moral values used to be held in high regard, and through this, importance was attached to the intellectual and spiritual education of the public. In those places, great theatre artists and renowned musicians would perform. But what do we see today? Are they not just loud, flashy, tasteless, fake and worthless works? Such places in our time resemble a 'BABYLON' fair. The great masters of classical literature are being driven from their places with a determined and stubborn method and effort. In contrast, nothing of value is being expressed Meaningless, empty and absurd works of trash are being put forward by internationalist organisations. Under the guise of 'Modern Realism', these same forces seek to supplant noble tastes by appealing to the bestial, primitive instincts within people, creating scenes designed to arouse and titillate the senses. Rather than being educated, listeners and spectators are having their lusts whipped into a frenzy. From the stages and loudspeakers, a stream of restlessness and filth flows into our minds; far from soothing our weary souls, it torments them. The whipping rhythms of savage jungle cannibals, along with the clamour of tom-toms and drums, are exerting an increasingly heavy influence on the listener's ears. These corrupt the minds and souls of people, intensifying unhealthy excitements within the human spirit. We can all see the reactions such excitement provokes in the pure and inexperienced youth; this is being done with such persistence and continuity that all noble and conservative people are in danger of being cut off from their 'deep-rooted convictions and tastes'.

A large proportion of humanity today appears to be afflicted with the 'disease of mental disorder' from every angle, due to their artificially cultivated, unstable mental states. The suggestion techniques of the 'globalists', organised with great skill, exert a mesmerising influence on the mind. In this situation, foreign ideas, thoughts and moral factors are instilled in the defenceless listener or spectator. These pass through the filters of consciousness in an unprocessed, raw state, penetrating the human soul, and ultimately force the consciousness to undergo the desired transformation. This mental affliction is so pervasive that those afflicted often do not even realise what is happening. In most people, the corruption of consciousness gives rise to mental disturbances, leading to various forms of neuroses and irritability; in many, it causes mental and intellectual confusion, bewilderment and exhaustion. Indeed, humanity today appears to be afflicted with a widespread form of moral indifference. Unfortunately, the narrow-minded masses regard the degeneration and decline brought about by the highly sophisticated, modern, political and cultural propaganda mechanisms of the 'one-worlders' and 'proto-colonialist Jews'—and the debasement of our current cultural life—as an inevitable consequence of the times.

Because we have been unable to lift this veil of covert and insidious suggestion, we are unable to fully grasp the truth. The world's press and the cultural authorities associated with it have been controlled by a single hand for quite some time. They are poisoning humanity by presenting the ailing spirit of our age as if it were a necessity of nature and creation, by instilling the belief that it is inevitable, and even by asserting that submission to it is indispensable. Undoubtedly, all events occurring in the world are subject to the laws of nature and causality, and thus the 'spirit of our age' is also subject to these. If we examine the content of this spirit closely, it becomes evident that it consists of nothing but artificial, contrived elements. All these mass-produced goods are presented to customers and promoted by highly skilled managers and advertising agencies. However, ordinary, run-of-the-mill people, whose minds and brains have been brainwashed in this way, fall ill without realising that the fake material offered to them has been mixed with poisonous substances, and become unable to perceive the effects that bind their thoughts and beliefs, thereby destroying their own psyche. Such simple-minded people become sleepwalkers (or 'sair film-enam') wandering between two worlds. And they take on the form of a docile puppet of the 'One World Order' and the Freemasons. For the One World Order has no need of free-thinking, independent-minded people. They deal only with soulless individuals who will carry out the orders they receive in a submissive, unquestioning, protest-free and unresisting manner.

Now, let us examine a person who has been intellectually cleansed

. Such a person has been freed by the materialists from their ideals and ‘established beliefs and preconceived notions’, and having attained comfort in the material sphere of life, has become caught up in the hustle and bustle of the day. In such people, no goal or aspiration remains other than to use their own physical and bodily existence as a machine for living. In such people, just as in animals, nothing is sought beyond physical and practical working power. They think of nothing other than possessing ever-increasing benefits and opportunities regarding necessities and consumer goods. Their material greed has been whipped into a frenzy. Their entire focus is confined solely to raising their standard of living. They have been reduced to such a state that they do not perceive the stench arising from spiritual decay in their surroundings. Such people neither prevent nor even protest against the defilement of their own nation and past by the materialists, communists, Freemasons, and slanderers—those mudslingers devoid of history and tradition. The groups of traitors, sell-outs and scoundrels found in every nation and every country create the chaos desired by the ‘one-worlders’ in exchange for the money they receive. We may refer to such people as the ‘instigators of national suicide’.

Today, from a political perspective, most people remain ‘lost souls’ in the political arena. Even though they may individually possess highly valuable ideas, they have withdrawn into their own corners, repulsed by the daily political squabbles. Such people view politics as a constant struggle between everyone. Politics appears to them as an untamed, wild forest. This is the case in all organisations composed of opposing views, and even within party groups. No politician can see a clear and distinct position before them. No one, due to a lack of discernment, can perceive the destructive forces that are remotely controlled, and which today, more than ever, are highly disguised and organised within the arenas of political struggle.

They are unable to penetrate the true nature of the 'Divide and Rule' game. The latest weapon of all organisations hostile to humanity is the disguised slander machine. By declaring everyone to be an agent, a servant of foreigners, or a tool of foreign powers, they seek to remove, silence, intimidate and subdue the valuable, distinguished, valuable, nationalist and conservative noble personalities from the political arena through lies and dishonest slander, and to silence, intimidate and discredit these self-sacrificing individuals in the eyes of their own side, the government and the nation. In recent years, this weapon has performed very powerful functions and continues to do so.

We have personally experienced the most vivid and most repulsive example of this. It is only thanks to our integrity—which borders on the pathological and is fuelled by fanaticism—and the noble blood inherited from our forebears that we have managed to extricate ourselves from this vile campaign, which has dragged on for years. As time and events exposed the lies and slanders of our vile enemies, and it became clear through official investigations just how high a standard of character and virtue we possessed, the nation came to detest those slanderers; yet, being devoid of shame and decency, they felt not the slightest remorse. As for pangs of conscience, such a thing is not even a consideration for the likes of them.

Here, on our own, we fought head-to-head against the Yalmans—those turncoats notorious for sheltering and defending the most die-hard communists—who had written articles against the independence and very existence of an entire nation, who, regarding our Turkishness and our homeland as a burden, went so far as to place the state under their protection and to hand over parts of the homeland to foreigners... This man is the one who conveyed and influenced the government with the directive he received from the international Jews in ZURICH regarding the closure of the Islamic Democratic Party, thereby having the party shut down with a fine of ten lira. Throughout his entire life, he never took up arms nor participated in any war; far from rendering the slightest service to the Muslim Turkish nation, he distinguished himself through his activities against us—that is, against the nation—

He is a man who has made himself known right down to the shepherds at the head of the flock. Despite this, he has found within himself the strength and audacity to attack the Islamic Democratic Party under the heading 'Assassination of our national existence'. As a 33rd-degree Freemason and a Dönme, he has, alas, managed to make even the ruling power of the time listen to him and has been pampered. During the so-called 'Malatya Incident', acting as the chief agent of the international smear machine in our beloved homeland, he went so far as to claim that we were an official of the 'German Nazi Party', a claim that reached the prosecution and the allegations themselves.

While I am on the subject, let me make it clear that I am not cut out to be a civil servant or a mere lackey, not in Germany, nor in my own homeland. Never mind Germany; in my own country, I have never joined any political party, nor have I ever submitted to anyone's ideology—nor could I ever do so. Those who wish to follow me and believe in me will not be disappointed. And to this day, no one has been deceived by any duty I have undertaken. The most vivid and historical example of this is that during the War of Independence, I served my country with authority and responsibilities far exceeding my rank and age, and I suppressed internal uprisings without bloodshed and with justice. I commanded a front against the French, ensured public order, and earned the gratitude of my nation. As I no longer saw myself capable of serving in lower ranks, I requested retirement of my own accord and only with great difficulty persuaded the government to accept it. Shameful and unscrupulous individuals did not hesitate to portray us as agents of a foreign country and a foreign party. Turkish judges—both military and civil—slapped this dishonest lie in the faces of the slanderers.

As anti-'Nazi' sentiment was still in vogue at the time of the Malatya incident, they deemed it appropriate to apply this label to us. Once this trend passed and the hatred of all nations—and of our own people—became focused on 'communism', this same Yalman, having had his book My Time in Turkey printed in America at a Jewish press ( ), —as if he had the slightest credibility in the eyes of this nation

—as if it had the slightest credibility in their eyes—in his book My Time in Turkey, he has not hesitated to brand all nationalist and conservative figures, including myself, as communists.

Let us not dwell on this; these were living examples of the slander machine, and this vile machine is today one of the most potent weapons of the Jews, apostates and Pharisees.

It is as a result of this situation, which we have illustrated with examples from top to bottom, that ordinary and weak-minded people have come to the conclusion that everything related to politics is a lie and a sham, and have turned their backs on all new and political ideas, ideologies and movements coming from outside.

Another point on which the 'one-worlders'—that is, the Jews and Freemasons—rely is the unscrupulous and soulless men of the moment, the 'men of the day'. Such people are always servants of the ruling power of the day. This submission and servitude is not because they believe in the ideals of those in power, but simply to maintain the standard of living and livelihood they have attained through hardship and toil. Such people hold the view that going with the flow is comfortable and easy. In their view, why should one object to what is happening or being done? Is not everything, after all, futile and hopeless? Therefore, it is pointless to risk the dangers that struggle and effort—or activities undertaken for the sake of the nation and the people—might entail. This fatalistic mindset and cowardice constitute the sole strength of the nation's enemies. They serve the 'one-worlders' and bow down to them through this accursed form of SURRENDER.

The only groups that feel a sense of responsibility and duty towards their own nation who refuse to accept the role of subordinates or servants are the only groups who yesterday—

They are the NATIONALISTS of the entire world who, despite being despondent and bewildered, refuse to bow to the dark and detestable ambitions of the globalists and reject being reduced to the status of slaves. It is only these forces that are the resolute, right-minded elements, ready and determined to preserve the essence and distinctiveness of their nations. Nationalists constitute and represent the opposing pole to globalists and racial subversives, and are naturally the rivals and implacable opponents of all the world's Jews, apostates and Freemasons, as well as all leftists and communists.

THE DICTATORSHIP OF DEMOCRACY

The legitimate interests of all the world's civilised nations, whether in the East or the West, are being systematically sidelined, crushed and eradicated one by one, individual by individual, by the executive bodies of the 'globalists', and in this manner forced into the desired mould and order.

The Western world, facing totalitarian communism, has begun to come under the influence of the United Nations. Through UNESCO—a mere puppet and the most effective tool of the United Nations—and its subsidiary bodies, a 'democracy dictatorship' is gradually taking root across the globe.^

(1) UNESCO is the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation. This highly significant organisation, which seeks to steer the culture and ideology of nations in the direction it desires, is run by two staunch Jews, whose names are as follows:

ALF BOMMERFET — Chairman of the Committee on External Relations, and a full-blooded Jew. As you shall read below, this man is engaged in a formidable campaign designed to dominate the entire intellectual and cultural existence of nations, as well as their national consciousness.

J. EISENHARD — He is the chairman of various commissions within the International Education Organisation. This man, who heads the committee that governs the education of Jews and all nations, as well as the students of the world, has secured the support of individuals from every nation who are obsessed with labels, rank, self-interest, position and fame, and has exerted a profound influence on the intellectual outlook of the peoples. At first glance, his work appears highly attractive; he provides students from every country with numerous opportunities for travel, independence and financial gain, and lures those who suit his purposes with glittering promises and

The aim of both sides is simply to bring about a 'world republic'. This process is unfolding as a fierce competitive struggle and is developing under various political guises. Both East and West perceive nationalism as the primary obstacle and difficulty in the realisation of their plans, and are acting in concert to denigrate all nationalist movements. The 'unifying and homogenising' organisers know that the complementary thoughts and activities of the globalists can only be realised once nations have been severed from their own homelands and lands, and their national ideas have been destroyed.

Communist unifiers have regarded the destruction of the independent and conservative peasantry not only in the Soviet Union but also in the satellite states as their primary duty. For the wealthy, land-owning peasant offers stubborn and fierce resistance to the communists' efforts to collectivise and subjugate them to their own system. Initially > the ability to mould society in whatever form they desired, wherever they wished, and to instil their desired ideologies with all their cunning, thereby steering nations towards their envisioned ideals, has produced far greater effects and consequences across all nations than was originally intended.

Other figures within the UNESCO organisation are as follows:

M. LUFFMAN — Director of International Education (Jewish)

Dr O. KLINBERG — Head of the Labour Section (Jewish)

H. KAPLAN — Head of General Intelligence, playing the most significant role (Jewish) C. H. WEITZ — Head of Budget and Administration (Jewish)

S. SAMUEL SEKSKY — Head of Personnel (Jewish)

B. ABRAMSKI — Head of Accommodation and Travel — who took many people to the countries of their choice, trained them in the manner they desired, and deceived many unfortunate souls — (Jewish)

B. WERMİEL — Head of the Procurement and Appointments Office (Jewish)

Dr A. WELSKY — Head of the Asian Desert Scientific Cooperation Office, a matter of great concern to us (Jewish)

This is UNESCO, which rules over the culture, minds and intellects of all nations and spends money like water for this very purpose.

The Communist dictators were pursuing a harsh and ruthless course. Particularly in the Turkic Muslim states, in Ukraine, the Caucasus and Turkestan, the people had always been opposed to the centralised Russian system. For this reason, during the reign of the Jew Stalin[1] alone, four million Ukrainians and millions of Muslims were killed. Millions of people taken from Azerbaijan, various Caucasian countries and other Turkic lands were deported to Siberia, where they perished from starvation within a short time in the caves of that savage land. The women of these regions, left without men after all the men had been deported to Siberia, were forced to marry men from Siberian tribes who were also without women, resulting in a tragedy the likes of which the world had never witnessed before.

The collectivisation of the peasantry, which is still being pursued with great determination and obstinacy, continues in a more moderate style than the Russian model in both the eastern and western Soviet satellite states. Although the Soviet Union, in accordance with its communist constitution, has, in theory and in word, spoken of national freedom and independence for all ethnic groups, this stems from the Soviet tyrants' prior estimates and calculations, which led them to be certain that states composed of various peoples would gradually merge into a Russian-style populace.

The border nations still have schools in their own languages. However, these are without exception under Soviet control. Education is one hundred per cent communist and, in terms of its influence, is hostile to anything that might instil or foster national sentiments. All ideas and movements that might uphold national traditions and the national spirit are strictly prohibited. The Russian language is gradually replacing the minority languages in all educational curricula—

(1) Stalin, who was of Georgian Jewish descent, was originally named 'Chugashvili', which means 'son of a Jew' in Georgian, and is, in the old-fashioned sense, the son of a Jew.

The same principles are followed in the press of the Soviet minorities.

Compared to countries governed by the Red dictatorship, individuals in Western and other democratic states enjoy a negligible degree of freedom. In Western countries, if the harsh methods applied in communist lands were employed, they would undoubtedly meet with strong resistance; indeed, for the time being, this is a situation that could be described as entirely impossible. In the West, 'unifying' movements are carried out indirectly. As explained above, the spiritual influence is exerted by conquering individuals from within through all means and intrigues, and by gaining control over their consciousness.

In other countries, it is deemed necessary to take harsh measures against the land-bound peasantry, similar to those applied in communist countries. For the spirituality of the people there has essentially weakened, and the motives that have brought them to this state

They had been mentioned one by one whilst analysing 'the spirit of our age'. The peasantry throughout the world is in a state of spontaneous disintegration. Due to the melodies of progress and modern life, and the lack of understanding on the part of civil servants—who are preoccupied solely with their own livelihoods—towards the interests of the people and the public, the decline of the peasantry has taken on an unstoppable form throughout the Western world and even here in our own country. Consequently, the exodus from villages to large cities has begun to be regarded as an almost inevitable necessity for this people.

The gradual erosion of the healthy and robust rural population in the big cities that swallow up people, and the resulting degeneration of the material and biological strength of this noble and pure mass, gives rise to extremely grave issues. For instance, social consequences such as a decline in the birth rate, the loss of natural talents, and the gradual depletion of labour and physical strength have come to pass.

For this reason, democracies hope to avert this chaos by importing the labour force they lack from states whose citizens possess stronger arms and wrists. In parallel with this, they seek to increase production by excessively accelerating the operation of automated machinery and tools. Even if this unnatural remedy for organic deficiency were to meet the demand for labour required for production for a time, it could in no way resolve this vital issue for nations, nor can it replace human labour. For a nation's existence in independence depends solely on the health of its own tree of life and its roots. For no new life can spring from withered roots. The West's current physical and biological decline has given rise to a number of new issues, a situation suits the 'globalists' and those who seek to unite humanity.

The merging of peoples into a single melting pot and the creation of a 'single world' were brought about by two key factors following the Second World War: the establishment of the United Nations and UNESCO. Thus, the struggle that had hitherto been waged by the 'one-worlders'—to a greater or lesser extent, generally and anonymously—reached the point of experimenting with coercive and violent measures within the United Nations, through the representatives of all states. UNESCO has already taken control of the cultural aspects of all nations. And now it is working with all its might, officially and openly, to eradicate national consciousness. In particular, it is targeting the foundations and futures of great nations possessing a rich history and tradition, through the Jewish PASWOLSKI—who once emigrated from Galicia to America—and his infamous compatriot, the Jew PASWOLSKI, and DEXTER WHITE, who served as Roosevelt's(1) adviser during the Second World War and was later sentenced to life imprisonment for treason.

(1) Roosevelt was originally a Dutch Jew. Before the Second World War, all his advisers were unadulterated Jews. His wife, who died recently, was not only a Jew but also a staunch Zionist...

UNESCO's programme of work has been drawn up on the principle of spiritually emasculating the people of the Western world in particular; by severing them from their homeland, land, national traditions and deep-rooted customs, it aims to prepare them for a 'single world'. In democracies, as explained above, guided by complex political and cultural entanglements, we may describe the administration and organisation of the West, oriented towards America, as a 'totalitarian democracy'. For the dictatorial aspects and traits it exhibits are numerous and evident.

In democratic states, the freedom of expression in every sense, and the right to criticise the government, are fundamental rights officially guaranteed to every citizen. Or rather, this is how it ought to be. In reality, however, a form of political thought-police exists in most democratic states today, and this situation is no different from the oppression found in any dictatorial state. This pressure has been directed, without exception, against national leaders and nationalists in every place and every country. The natural limit of freedom of expression has been defined as follows: it must not undermine the interests of the party in power at the time, or of international groups and cliques.

It is astonishing that the ideological terrorism of our centrally administered era has, in particular, taken a stand against the sacred interests of nations and against nationalists, traditionalists and conservatives. In other words, against the elements loyal to the people and the state... For the people on this front are fighting, with all their means and resources, against these supra-state, populist and racial subversives. In this era where all morality and nobility are dissolving, and where murders and disasters have reached a staggering scale, voices are being raised not against these immoral elements, but against nationalists and racialists in every country. Only the die-hard racists, the dark-minded bigots and the reactionary Jews are exempt from this.

In every country, the legitimate

Whilst political intolerance and intolerance are displayed towards their activities, on the other hand, those who exploit all the rights and freedoms bestowed upon nations by democracy—without the slightest pang of conscience—continue on their way, utilising the very same freedoms to spread poisonous propaganda that corrupts the people and to carry out communist activities. What a terrible contradiction this is! The so-called 'world conscience'—that is, the bought-off press—rebels against even the simplest and most justified criticisms of totalitarian democracies, whilst remaining utterly indifferent to the moral decay of nations, the decline of civilisation and nations, and the glaring, repulsive spectacle of this decline, showing no reaction whatsoever. Thus the hypocritical behaviour of the 'one-worldists' presents itself as legitimate.

Those seeking to create a single world and democracy in accordance with the desires of World Jewry disparage every national aim and movement in a disrespectful and shameless manner, using clichéd phrases, and even brand these legitimate and acceptable activities as criminal. Racist, far-right, bigoted, fanatical, reactionary and backward... Thus, the 'Permitted' and
A dividing line has been drawn regarding 'unauthorised' political freedom of thought. This line has been drawn where the activities and ideas of the world's imperialists might pose a threat to them, and at a point where they might come to light.

The primary duty of every government must be to protect the essence and spirit of its nation, and to support this by entrusting cultural development to trustworthy individuals in the right manner, utilising all available means and resources. Such a duty can only and exclusively be fulfilled through the nationalist, right-wing and conservative elements of every nation. Instead of supporting these valuable elements and components—which represent a healthy nation's sense of self-preservation—today's democracies are deploying hordes of traitors and sell-outs, composed of agents, in every country.

In the West, under the pretext of protecting the constitution, particularly national-

Pressure is being exerted on the Jews, and nationalists are being branded as ‘extremists’ everywhere; indeed, they are constantly subjected to persecution even in the so-called civilised Western nations that profess to cherish Liberty, Justice and Equality. This is the pinnacle of success achieved by world Jewry, which until eighty years ago lived in poverty and disgrace in every country and was met with suspicion, hatred and revulsion by every nation. The police forces of all states and the international police are doing everything in their power to stop this honourable and genuine publication. Such clean and nationalist, trustworthy sons of every nation are being dragged through the courts with all their rights trampled upon. In many countries of so-called civilised and democratic Europe, thinkers are suffering torture in the dungeons of democracy. Democratic states have introduced elastic clauses into their laws against nationalist writers and critics who attempt to closely examine Judaism and the corrupt and scheming sons of Israel, or to engage with them. These clauses are so elastic and so vague in their procedures and formulations that “Mümtaz(!)>> of the nation—that is, any individual Jew—is labelled ‘incitement against a specific ethnic group’, and this honourable critic is subjected to a fine and a prison sentence that would shake him to the core.

Here it is: the Jew’s money, his organisation, his Masonic brethren, this is the result today of the protocols he devised centuries ago to lure nations into this trap!

The lies, slander and inflated dossiers in every country, the bribes fed to the international police and the millions spent have today placed the nationalist sons of every nation in a position where they are viewed as suspicious and dangerous, even in the eyes of their own people for whom they have sacrificed their lives. Where will this course of events come to an end, and what does the future hold for the world? No one knows!

Judaism is the Primary Driving Force in World Politics!

We have dissected, through the comprehensive and varied information we have presented from top to bottom, how civilised nations are being driven to ruin by certain dark forces, how this is taking place, and how people are being moulded into a uniform state and sought to be turned into robots, thereby exposing the culprits. Thus, we also observe that a physical DISINTEGRATION is taking place within nations. Just as the same factors have been the cause of the collapse and decline of many nations since time immemorial...

Research and cultural analyses by renowned thinkers and historians have demonstrated that the primary causes of the decline of civilisation—that is, culture—stem from the systematic, corrosive activities of highly organised assassination squads aimed at the destruction of 'NATIONAL' states. This is made possible by these shadowy figures through the aid of puppet armies in cold wars. A large proportion of these puppets are the naive and one-sided idealists and fanatical personalities of the humanitarian mindset.

They are highly active against the outside world. A careful observer can discern a striking similarity between the main outlines of today's thinking and the 'Protocols of the Elders of Zion'. As is well known, these protocols were drawn up by the Zionists in 1897 in Switzerland's

It was codified at their first congress held in Basel. Since a large part of the programme revealed in the Protocols sixty-five years ago has been realised, the intense and excessive efforts of the globalists and the 'world conscience' to demonstrate that these Protocols are false and fabricated—has proved futile in the face of the undeniable evidence of events, and no one now doubts that the Protocols are the product of the Jews' subversive and destructive mindset. The inspiration behind the creation of these Protocols was the 'belief in the Messiah' prevalent during the time the Bible was written, and the fallacy that the Jewish people are a 'chosen nation'. This idea and ideal were supposedly inspired by their prophets, through Zionist leaders, to the Jewish people, who had spent most of their lives in captivity. This dreadful yet destructive programme purportedly suggested to the Jews that they were not merely a chosen people, but also a community possessing the right to dominion and supremacy over all other nations and the human race, as ordained by YAHWEH.

Jewish Messianics have also arrived at this conclusion through numerous passages in the Torah. We have found it useful to cite a few examples below.

The Fifth Book of Moses, Chapter 26:

«..... Be a stranger in this land! And I will bless you, for I will give to you and your descendants all the nations of the earth, and I will confirm the oath I swore to your father Abraham... And through your descendants all the nations of the earth shall be blessed.»

The Fifth Book of Moses, Chapter 7:

'You shall curse all the nations that the Lord your God will give you; you shall not spare them.'

Regarding the fanatical belief of Jewish extremists in their independent domination of the world, the New York-based Jewish psychiatrist William Hirsch has described this belief as 'an extreme fixed idea'

There are numerous examples of such distorted beliefs being utilised in political arenas. The following statement by Israeli Prime Minister Ben-Gurion, published in the New York Times on 4 January 1950, is a case in point:

> 'The explanation of the history of the Jewish state approaches the truth through the gathering together of Jews who had been scattered across the earth as migrants. However, this movement cannot be regarded as the full realisation of the Messianic belief.'

Ben-Gurion also made the following statement to Israeli newspapers:

> 'The borders of the State of Israel extend from the Nile River on one side to the Euphrates River on the other.'

This statement has been repeated without interruption. The key point is that the aforementioned head of government put forward the following idea in a statement to a journalist:

> "If one were to ask about the outlook for 1960, the United States will likely fall into the hands of a Jewish leader."

We do not see any need to combat a belief, however fanatical or full of nonsense it may be. Provided that this belief remains confined to satisfying the spiritual and inner needs of a certain group of people, but does not transfer such flawed and negative beliefs into politics and use them against nations—

If, by exploiting religion, one seeks to use it as a tool for certain aims and objectives, thereby destroying the peace and happiness of all humanity and pursuing the goal of annihilating nations, then such beliefs become illegitimate and must be opposed. If we, as Turks, consider the great calamities we have suffered due to these dark beliefs and the fabrication of the 'Promised Land', as well as the assassinations, espionage and murders committed against our innocent nation, the matter ceases to be merely a matter of religious or mystical belief; rather, it becomes an obligation to combat these destructive, international, dark and destructive forces, The Holy Quran also commands this.

It is this Jewish imperialism that today intervenes as a political factor in the lives and futures of all nations. For this reason, all the peoples of the earth are, with ever-increasing speed and fervour, strengthening their own defence forces and rousing their nations. We see the greatest manifestations of this in Britain and the United States. This awakening and the counter-movements are not, as the Jews claim, the result of their race or their corrupt beliefs, but have arisen from their efforts to destroy humanity because of this corrupt faith. The Jews' racial characteristics and their repugnant morality are of secondary importance in this matter.

Let us now illustrate this point with some recent examples:

During the discussions at the Zionist Congress held in the United States in 1961, Dr Emanuel Noyman, the chairman, stated the following:

'We must regard the Jewish state in Israel and all Jews scattered across the globe as a single entity. Their unity is not bound by geographical or political borders.'

It is clear from this that all Jews living outside the borders of the provisional state of Israel are in a state of solidarity and unity with Jewish imperialism. We can add examples from our own experience: The fact that a Jew holding a prominent position in a daily newspaper published in Turkish here transmits news to major Jewish newspapers in England confirms the same thesis.

The Jewish cause is not merely a religious matter, but is equally a racial one; this is further evidenced by the fact that all Jews display a highly rigid resistance to assimilation and integration.

In Judaism, history, religion, national and racial consciousness, and political purpose represent a deeply rooted unity. This unity is the source of the Jewish people's strength, and it has been so for centuries.

The author Arthur Koestler, who was raised in the Jewish faith, has been a staunch supporter of the Zionist movement for twenty-five years. On this subject, he states the following:

> 'An English Jew is in a state of perpetual contradiction. If one were to examine and compare his surroundings—both past and future—from the perspective of the religion to which he belongs, it becomes apparent that he does not share the same identity and character as a non-Jewish person of another race, and that he has isolated himself from others. His inner conviction reveals that he is not an English Jew, but merely a Jew living in England."

It is this mindset and state of mind that, ever since the establishment of the State of Israel, has led those who have emigrated to Israel and those who have not to regard themselves not as members of the nations where they eat their bread and enjoy their lives, but as citizens of the State of Israel.

... When the British confront the Jews with these flawed and self-centred ideas, the Jews accuse them of being gravely guilty. For the theory of the Jewish race is, at the same time, based on a hidden form of nationalism.

On 29 November 1919, the Jew Walther Rathenau (the Minister of Food whom we read about above, who sought to starve the Germans to death during the First World War) wrote the following in a letter to a non-Jewish individual:

> 'You do not love the Torah and you hate us Jews; you are right, for we have not yet realised our aims. Do you know why we Jews came into this world? To invite every human being to Sinai... If Karl Marx does not make this invitation, Spinoza will. If Spinoza does not, Jesus will."

This Messianic ideology has been instilled not only in Zionism but also in modern Freemasonry and Marxism. Both these organisations are the work of the Jews. Soviet communism, however, is the most powerful instrument of the revolutionary wing of world Jewry. Israel Scheib made the following confession:

> 'We have used all the weapons embedded in our spirit to bring about the downfall and destruction of civilised nations. These are: liberalism, democracy and the religions that originated from us.'

It is a fact that the Jewish question remains a general issue and a source of concern to this day. This is not, as the 'conscience of the world' and the 'world press'—which fancies itself all-knowing—claim, a Nazi fabrication, but an issue dating back two thousand five hundred years, the full mystery of which has yet to be unravelled, nor has it been fully resolved.

Theodor Herzl, the founder of modern Zionism, openly admits and accepts this truth. In his book A Jewish State, he states:

'The Jewish question still exists, and it is futile to deny it.'

Indeed, wherever Jews are found, the Jewish cause exists. Where the Jewish question does not exist, it is brought there directly through emigration. It is only natural that Jews emigrate to places where they are not persecuted, and wherever they settle, they work against those countries, face persecution there, and create anti-Semitism themselves. Now this swarm of locusts is descending upon the virgin and innocent Africa, which has only recently attained its independence, and is exploiting those innocent peoples with their characteristic hypocrisy

The Jewish journalist of Die Mahnung was compelled to make the following confession on 15 September 1961:

'Anti-Semitism is as old as Judaism itself.'

It must be admitted that the Jewish people are capable. No thinking person would deny this truth, and quite naturally, no one would begrudge them taking their rightful place alongside other nations, enjoying the same rights. However, this is on condition that all other non-Jewish nations are also granted the right to protect their own vital interests... The Jews are hated because they deny this right and disrupt the peace and happiness of nations. Once humanity has learnt that corruption, revolution and even all wars are the product of the accursed Jewish intellect, our noble vision will, of course, never come to fruition. Why should Jews live as a 'single nation' with the 'untouchable' privilege, free from any objective criticism, and why should many countries include flexible clauses in their laws to protect Jews, whilst the 'world's conscience' and the 'world press' immediately cry out in favour of the Jews and lash out at everyone whenever an incident occurs anywhere in the world that might infringe upon the Jews' excessive and unjust interests?

Why has the conscience of the world remained deaf and mute in the face of these same organisations, as the Jews, in an unlawful and unscrupulous manner, invaded the lands of 'Palestine' amidst bloodshed, oppression and fire, driving a million Arabs from their homeland of a thousand years, and brutally murdering forty-five thousand innocent people during this shameless, despicable act? Why has the treacherous attack by the sons of Israel—who had long prepared for this invasion and occupation—without declaring war, failed to provoke any reaction?

Why have the world's conscience and the world press remained indifferent to the treacherous(1) murder of Count Bernadotte, the Swedish UN envoy who sought to resolve the 'Palestine' conflict through peaceful means?

These are the effects of the Jews—who are met with hatred and condemnation by all the nations of the world—upon the world's press and conscience. The protests against these most horrific and barbaric acts in world history, which took place in 1948, were so feeble and insincere that it is impossible not to see the influence of Jewish money and influence in this. These events clearly demonstrate to impartial observers just how powerful Zionism is over the world's media.

Since the Jews no longer feel the need to conceal their universal aspirations and objectives, the examples and incidents we have objectively identified from top to bottom should serve as a lesson for every thinking nation and individual. Imperialism and aggression, whoever they may come from, must be punished with the same measure of justice. When non-Jewish nations defend their own rights in a legitimate manner, if this action infringes upon Jewish interests, it is perceived as 'anti-Semitism'. Yet 'anti-Semitism' is nothing other than the defence of property-owning people against Judaism, in order to protect themselves and their rights. These nations are striving to protect themselves against harmful foreign ideas and suggestions, and are striving to protect their cultural forces from extinction.

Influential Jewish circles, which have become deeply entangled with supranational organisations and have seized control of key positions everywhere, have succeeded—through their financial and propaganda resources, namely by exercising direct or indirect control over the world's press, television networks and ninety-five per cent of radio stations—in framing the concept of 'anti-Semitism' as a criminal offence— and have succeeded in portraying it as such. They have also succeeded in presenting this as 'superstition and even mental illness'. As a result, anyone who criticises Jewish bribe-takers or this extreme Jewish policy — however justified and objective their criticism may be— is branded as a person with a pathological hatred of Jews, and indeed, in most cases, as a madman or a mass murderer, and is being committed to asylums or exposed to the risk of being sentenced by the courts.

This Jewish front continues, even though seventeen years have passed since the end of the war, to stir up world public opinion against its enemies and to instil hatred towards them. The Hollywood film industry, which is entirely under Jewish command and control, is constantly churning out so-called 'documentary' films in rapid succession. Their aim is to denigrate their enemies—whose wrath they have been unable to quell and whose hatred they cannot overcome—before the eyes of the entire world, and to discredit them in the eyes of nations by portraying them as savage, barbaric and murderous. The German people have sensed the Jewish threat—a danger that poisons the lifeblood of a great nation and gnaws at its very core—and, wishing to expel this threat from their midst, this hostility continues to rage with unrelenting, escalating intensity.

Sometimes, many of the films you see in cinemas—

Even the simplest minds can see at a glance that this is narrow-minded, false and insincere. There is another, more sinister reason for this persistent hostility on the part of the Jews. This is to extort billions of marks every year from the German people, under the pretext of 'compensation', through pressure from the press and other organisations. For it is only through this means that the Israeli government is able to keep its completely bankrupt and ruined budget afloat. Today, ninety per cent of this artificial Israeli state's merchant fleet and seventy-five per cent of its factories have been established with these funds extorted from the Germans. It is no trivial matter that some of our unwary writers, having gone there and been captivated, are now vying with one another to extol and praise this nation—which was founded upon treachery, espionage and cowardice, built upon the graves of Turkish martyrs—as if it were a heavenly entity. One must wonder how much longer the Jew, who has brought many men of influence to his feet and bewitched them in every shape and form, will remain standing in the face of a world of hostility...

* * *

The Turkish reader must attach the necessary importance to this film. If the Jews were merely the enemies of the Germans, we could have left them to their own devices and let them settle their differences amongst themselves. But the Jews are, first and foremost, the implacable enemies of the Germans in the West and of the Turks and Muslims in the East... And subsequently, of all humanity... Now, I am recording here a fresh example of which no one is yet aware:

'As the name suggests, the Jewish Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film company has begun production on a new film. They have started filming the 824-page English-language novel The Forty Days of Musa Dagh—or Forty Days on Musa Dagh—written by that vile Jew Franz Werfel, a work brimming with lies. The leading roles in this film are played by the famous actor William Waler, who starred in 'Ben-Hur', and the Jewish actor Marlon Brando. The Turks vehemently

The author of this film, which is critical of Turkey, Franz Werfel, was an Austrian Zionist. He was in Turkey in 1914. This Jew, who collaborated with many German politicians, had taken on the task of uncovering secrets among the allies and undermining the Turkish-German alliance. Austria was receiving substantial financial aid from Jews in America; Franz Werfel had two tasks. First: to remove the Armenians—who were serving the Turkish people with integrity, fairness and honesty in Turkish trade and the economy—from this sphere, thereby bringing it entirely under their own control. Indeed, this is precisely what happened, and the Turkish market fell into their hands without any competition.

Secondly: Killing two birds with one stone, pitting Turks against Armenians and Armenians against Turks...

The fact is: the Jew Werfel saw that the majority of Armenians had fled at that time on French ships. The Jew wrote this work, full of lies and slander, to cover up his own accursed schemes and activities. Worse still, Jews dressed in military uniforms

They went so far as to hand over the Armenians living on 'Mount Musa' to the Committee of Union and Progress. However, this duplicitous and murderous intellect—which was exclusively characteristic of the Jews—was intended to secure a homeland for them in Palestine. In parallel with this game being played in the very rear and north of the Palestine front, the Zionists, who had entrenched themselves just behind the front, brought us to our knees by engaging in comprehensive espionage using the most modern methods.(1) This, then, is the shameless and heartless film-like narrative of world Jewry continuing against the Germans and Turks...»

(1) There are more vivid and concrete examples in the work titled 'Mount Musa', which I wrote and published in 1935.

Strangely enough, whilst anti-nationalist activities are strongly supported throughout the world, any anti-Jewish movement is regarded as a crime and an offence. And this is the case everywhere in the world. If this hypocritical game played by the Jews were to come to an end, on that day the lasting peace for which non-Jewish nations throughout the world have longed would be established. However, the Jews will never consent to or support the continuation of such peace. For centuries, the children of Israel have been promising and instilling in all other nations—those not of their own kind—certain principles such as liberalism, democracy, tolerance, and the unification of races. At the same time, they attack the patriotic people of every country, labelling them imperialist, racist, extremist, apostate, anti-Semitic, fascist and Nazi.

How strange it is that the State of Israel itself has been unable to resist establishing a political system almost identical to the 'National Socialist' system. Is the expansion of Israel's sphere of influence not one of the primary objectives of the Palestinian Jews?

The racial laws currently in force in Israel are far harsher than the National Socialist German racial laws in terms of racial protection. The Israeli Kibbutz youth organisation has eclipsed Hitler's youth organisation. In this organisation, even girls of child age are issued with machine guns and subjected to compulsory military service. This is the contradiction in which the Jews find themselves.

In conclusion, the claims of superiority made by the Children of Israel, their persistent efforts to instil this idea in their own people, their interference with the aspirations and vital interests of other nations in this matter, and the intrigues they have been weaving and the corruption they have been spreading for centuries have drawn the hatred of all nations upon themselves. Through the media outlets they have seized by means of these intrigues, they have spread a plague of lies and slander across the world; and whilst pursuing their ambition to create a Jewish hegemony—or, indeed, a global empire—by melting all nations into a single pot and weakening human will

, and through Freemasonry and a host of similar organisations, they persist in their quest to establish a Jewish hegemony—that is, global domination—on Earth;
the ‘Jewish question’ will not disappear.

However; if the Jews were to withdraw to the position they held twenty centuries ago and remove the bloody claws they have embedded everywhere, then the Jewish question would disappear of its own accord, and anti-Semitism would likewise come to an end. And indeed: There is no other way for this to be resolved!

THE GLOBAL CAUSE THROUGH LIVING EXAMPLES OF THE DAYS WE LIVE IN

We wish to bring our writings—which have thus far been entirely objective, based on scientific methods and documents—to life by comparing them with the events of the days we are living through. By listing the information we have gathered from books, magazines and newspapers published in every corner of the world, we have sought to show our readers the kind of corruption and dark days the world is currently experiencing. Dear Turkish reader, by recalling that your brothers and fathers who fought in the deserts and in Palestine during the First World War fell victim to the treachery of this RACE, you will attach even greater value to this information.

Firstly: Today we shall discuss America, where the Jews have established their throne to rule the world, and the murders committed there:

Senator HUEY P. LONG of Louisiana was murdered under highly mysterious circumstances. This man was the greatest rival of the Jewish-born President Roosevelt and had an extremely high chance of winning the presidential election. In a speech he delivered in the Senate on 9 August 1935, he revealed that the 'BLACK HAND' organisation, run by Jews, had sworn to kill him at a rally to be held in a hotel in New Orleans. The Senate met this revelation, was met with smiles and derision by the Senate. However, shortly afterwards, Senator HUEY was shot dead by a Jew named KARL WEISS during a meeting he was attending.

* * *

The mysterious deaths continue:

NOMAN JAK, a Member of the Canadian Parliament, was one of the most popular members of the Canadian House of Commons. In a letter he wrote to his closest relatives shortly before his death, he stated:

> 'In my forthcoming parliamentary speeches, I shall make a major revelation that will leave my listeners wide-eyed. You cannot possibly guess what it is. For the walls of the House of Commons have not yet echoed with the exposure of the treason and assassinations committed against our homeland by Jewish nationalists...'

Yet, strangely enough, he never had the opportunity to make this historic revelation, and it was observed that this perfectly healthy man died suddenly and for reasons that remain unclear.

General Frederik Morgan, a British general serving as the UNRRA representative in Germany under American occupation, had stated in reports issued in his official capacity that Jews living in Germany were currently experiencing no difficulties or hardships whatsoever, either financially or in terms of food, and that they had no needs requiring urgent and immediate assistance, In response to these statements and reports, the New York senator and UNRRA Director-General, the Jew Herbert H. Lehman, reacted with great fury and dismissed General Frederik Morgan from his post. Initially, the British government had resisted the pressure from this American Jew and sought to retain its own general; however, in the end, Jewish influence prevailed, and General Morgan was dismissed from his post because of this simple and justified statement. The power of the Jews!!!

Count Jean Szembek, Under-Secretary of State at the Polish Ministry of Foreign Affairs

In his memoirs, published in France under the title '1933–39 Journal', he recounts a meeting he had with King Alfonso XIII of Spain on 19 February 1939 as follows:

> 'The King of Spain appeared to be extremely pessimistic about the general state of the world. In the King's view, world Jewry and Freemasonry were inciting war and playing a major role in the destruction of the world.'

* * *

On 6 July 1939, shortly before the Second World War, Jezy Potoczky, Poland's ambassador to Washington, stated the following in a report he submitted to his government upon his return to Warsaw:

> 'Many forces amongst the Westerners are, as it were, dragging us towards war. The main culprits are the Jews, the big capitalists and the arms manufacturers. They feel they are entering an era of boundless wealth. They view us Poles merely as black slaves; the sole duty of these slaves is to work, sweating and shedding blood, to increase their masters' wealth."

In recent days, the following reports have been persistently published in many nationalist newspapers in America:

'Is the Jew YARMOLENSKÎ to be appointed head of the FBI, America's national security agency?'

Following the departure of FBI Director Edgar Hoover, the news that the Kennedy administration intended to appoint a Jew named Yarmolenski to head the national security agency—which is effectively a counter-espionage organisation—has caused a major uproar among American nationalists.

As it is well known that Jews hold sway in many quarters in America, many circles were not surprised by this news; moreover, it is astonishing that this man—who is not only Jewish but is also said to be set to head the national security agency of the United States, the hope and bulwark of the free world against communism—is, in fact, a staunch communist. At a time when a distinguished figure such as the heroic General WOLKER, one of America's finest sons, has been removed from his post and arrested on the basis of various lies and slanders simply because he is a staunch enemy of communism, a staunch Jew is rising to the most confidential positions. The fact that a general whose chest is covered in medals has been subjected to such treatment simply for being a nationalist, whilst a Marxist Jew is being promoted as if out of sheer obstinacy, has caused a great stir in America.

This Jew, who was a student at Harvard University in 1943, was the editor-in-chief of the left-wing magazine YAR-LING, whose eight members were all Jewish like himself. His father, a Russian Jew, published many left-wing books. He now works at the New York State Library. His mother, Babette Deutsh, is a socialist who grew up in street demonstrations and is the second-ranking member of the left-wing organisation known as 'International Supporters of the General Movement for Peace'. In America, leftists and Jews have for years sought to take control of the Committee for Anti-American Movements and the FBI organisation and to nationalise—

They went to great lengths to shake off the nationalist atmosphere. First, they infiltrated the administrative machinery by placing a Jew named Jack Levin within the FBI, but no one could have foreseen that a left-wing Jew would ever come to power.

All left-wing organisations are making great efforts, working systematically, to oust the nationalist Edgar Hoover and replace him with their own man, the left-wing Jew Yarmolenski.

THE MOST IMPORTANT EVENT OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR!

In 1945, that is, in the final year of the war, General George Patton, commander of the American armoured forces, submitted a report to the Supreme Commander of the time, Eisenhower, stating that the Soviet forces were disregarding all agreements made with their allies and were in the process of occupying the whole of Europe under the pretext of liberating it. At the same time, he argued that it would be wiser to nip the problem in the bud and that it would be more prudent and effective to prevent a Soviet invasion by having the rapidly advancing American forces occupy the whole of Europe. Faced with the possibility that the Soviets might react to this by adopting a belligerent stance, he had suggested that these already insincere allies would inevitably turn against America in the future, and therefore proposed that the advancing troops enter Moscow without delay. Had this proposal been accepted, there would be no communist or Soviet threat looming over the world today. General Patton's proposal was overly bold, courageous and somewhat dangerous. Yet, had it been accepted, humanity would not have been plunged into the quagmire of today and would have gained much.

Do you know how this proposal was received? General Patton, who had achieved the most self-sacrificing and successful victories for the American forces in Europe, was treated as though he had proposed treason against his country—

Despite all his past successful and honourable service, he was dismissed from his post and withdrawn 110 miles behind the front lines from Berlin whilst the war was still raging. Years later, the same situation was repeated in Korea, and the heroic commander General MacArthur was subjected to the same fate by Solomon Truman, the world's greatest Freemason of Jewish descent.

General Patton had prepared a work that exposed the horrific inner workings of these events—events we can scarcely comprehend—a work that would have left all of humanity in awe and horror; however, before he could publish it, he died under mysterious circumstances, falling victim to a Jewish assassination. Then his wife attempted to repeat this endeavour, and she too was killed. Finally, his daughter took charge of the matter, and she was killed by being thrown from a horse.

This work, which proves with documents and evidence that the Jews possess a formidable force and organisation, and that they even instigated the Second World War—which bathed the world in blood—solely to wipe the German nation from the face of history, will soon be presented to the world for all to see by the patriotic sons of America.

THE UNKNOWN TRUTHS BEHIND THE CURTAIN OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR

It was rumoured that in April 1945, the British government had entered into negotiations with the commanders of the German armies, which, although on the verge of defeat, still comprised hundreds of thousands of aggressive soldiers and constituted a formidable force. Marshal Rokossovsky, Commander-in-Chief of the Soviet and Polish armies, had stated that there was a strong element of truth in these rumours and that he would shed light on them. According to him, Marshal Zhukov, the Soviet Commander-in-Chief, had told Rokossovsky that he possessed sufficient evidence regarding the German-British rapprochement. Accordingly: in April 1945, the British had made a proposal for peace and an agreement to the German High Command. If this proposal had been successful, the Soviet forces advancing into the heart of Western Europe would have been neutralised by a joint German-British offensive. At this time, telephone conversations between the British and German high commands had been intercepted by the Soviet military intelligence and their codes deciphered. In return for the British not disarming the German armies and redirecting them against the Soviets, the German armies would surrender to the British forces on 22 April 1945 under the terms and conditions set out above. Following this, a joint British and German...

The plan was to drive the Soviet forces at least as far as the east bank of the Oder River. According to reliable sources, a British Jewish colonel, whose identity has not yet been disclosed, reported this secret plan to General Eisenhower, the Supreme Commander of the Western Allied Forces. Upon this, Eisenhower immediately approached the British, stating: 'That should the Bolsheviks surrender under any circumstances whatsoever, Great Britain would be cut off from all military aid and left to fend for itself should any joint offensive operation be carried out with any armed German unit.'

And today... Marshal ZUKOV, mocking this great opportunity that humanity had missed in its quest for freedom, remarked: 'The timely and appropriate intervention of my dear friend Eisenhower prevented the implementation of this treacherous plan.'

We obtained Marshal Zukov's statement from the 28 September 1957 issue
"Das Neue Zeitalter" newspaper.

This information, which may seem distant to us, is undoubtedly of great importance in that it reveals how the people living on this earth and civilisation are being destroyed, and what mind-boggling schemes and intrigues are being hatched to bring about the ruin of all humanity; and in that it points to the presence of a Jewish hand in all these events. And this diverse information is necessary and beneficial for awakening human societies, as it demonstrates the immense dangers facing humanity and civilisation yesterday, today and tomorrow.

THE SOLUTION FOR THE SALVATION OF NATIONS

European democracies have begun to unite in accordance with the principles of UNESCO and its behind-the-scenes operators. The practical measures achieved so far by these democratic ‘unifiers’ have been particularly evident in the economic sphere (the Common Market, the European Customs Union, the European Payment Agreement, and so on). Their objective, however, is to socialise the European economic map, with Germany at its centre. Whilst the gradual removal of customs borders is deemed necessary and regarded as a welcome development, the fact that the European economy is coming under the control of Jewish-American finance is a matter of concern for the whole world.

The highly active Jewish high finance secured for itself, within the framework of post-Second World War European economic negotiations, a great deal of freedom of movement across borders. The policy of the Jewish high finance to spread ceaselessly across Europe will sooner or later force a change in the structure of the local industry here. Their primary aim is to increase their profits, expand their dominance, and drive up consumption and expenditure, pursuing this with massive campaigns... This is why a growing greed for money and gold has emerged everywhere in the world. Even middle-class people have also fallen prey to this greed. They, too, are fuelling the ever-growing desire for wealth, chasing after a higher standard of living.

The supra-national Jewish financial elite, possessing a tyrannical mindset, is now mobilising the culture of materialism—which has engulfed the entire world—driving people to dance around the golden calf. Today, the situation created by modern economics, which overworks people, leaves individuals with little time for rest or for developing their own intellect. As a result, a significant decline in strength is occurring, particularly among the 'working classes'. Thus, particularly in advanced nations, the decline of the East and the collapse of culture are progressing rapidly. It is possible to find many similarities between the situation in the old world and that of today, and to compare them. Ultimately, alongside the increasing material wealth in the world today, immorality and corruption are also rising rapidly. It follows, then, that economic prosperity cannot resolve or eliminate the spiritual and cultural chaos. This situation proves that the treatment of the disease (the revitalisation of the economy) is far from eliminating the microbes lurking in the deeper recesses of the people's body. It has been forgotten that the 'human being', who is in a state of economic and material development, possesses a distinct cultural heritage and a national consciousness, and that this human being is a member of a unity of style and destiny, with every individual being a valuable limb of that whole. For THEM, the human being is merely a robot, a piece of matter. In every uncorrupted human being, there exists a spiritual strength created by unity, and in every action, this strength imparts a sense of security and harmony. An ignorant person possesses neither the capacity for perception nor the ability to comprehend any interference that would extinguish their feelings in the face of nature's work. Even theories based on class distinctions cannot alter this. The guides and spiritual technicians of the single world front have clearly recognised these natural connections and have directed their relentless attacks entirely and openly against people's spiritual bonds—

They directed their criticism against its repetition and main tenets. For they understood very well that plans for global brotherhood can only be realised by destroying the sense of national unity and the traditions of the various nations on earth. However, the people of ISRAEL alone are exempt from this assault. It is regrettable that the 'one-worlders' have achieved considerable success in Western countries. They have also instilled this idea in certain non-Turkish elements within our own country. (*) However, in opposition to this movement and in response to the activities of the one-worlders, a new and young generation possessing national consciousness is emerging in all nations

(*) I shall now append here the reports from the secret services of the Tsarist government, the American government and the British government, which prove that the Russian Bolshevik Revolution received material aid from Jewish capitalists. The reader may draw many conclusions from this:

a - The confidential report of Count Lamsdorf, Foreign Minister of the last Russian Tsar, Nicholas II:

'The events that took place in Russia in 1915, the events of October and the series of strikes culminated in an armed uprising in Moscow. This was followed by events in other parts of the empire. This sufficiently proves the existence of a Russian revolutionary movement. This movement also, and unequivocally, bears an international character. We have concluded that certain foreign capitalist organisations exist which materially support this revolutionary movement. We state without a shadow of a doubt that at the forefront of those playing a role in these movements are the 'JEWS', who are highly active as the strongest elements and leaders of the organisation within the revolution. The foreign support and aid provided to the revolutionary movement mentioned above originates from Jewish capitalist circles. Furthermore, we have identified sufficient and highly explicit evidence that: 'The Russian revolutionary movement is in official contact with foreign Jewish organisations.'

This confidential report by the Tsarist government's Foreign Minister was published in the 13 July 1918 issues of the Jewish Messenger and the American Hebrew, newspapers of American Jewry, after the revolution had succeeded.

Forces are awakening, and resistance to this oppression is evident everywhere. The great German poet Goethe, in life's—

US government report:

> 'In February 1916, it was established that a revolutionary movement was developing in Russia. It has been ascertained by "National Security" that the following individuals and banks are involved in these subversive activities: Jacob Schiff, Guggenheim, Max Breitung, Kuhn & Loeb and Associates, a Jewish bank – whose directors are JAKOB SHIFF, S. H. HANAOURLE, and FELIX WORBURG – there is no doubt that the Russian Bolshevik revolution, which erupted a year after the aforementioned date, was undoubtedly instigated and set in motion by Jewish influences. Indeed, in April 1917, JAKOB SHIF officially declared in a public statement that the Russian Revolution had succeeded thanks to his financial assistance. In April 1917, JAKOB SHIF granted an official loan to the Jewish revolutionary leader TROTSKY to ensure the success of the social revolution in Russia. Around the same time, the Jew Max Vorburg from Stockholm provided Trotsky and his associates with financial assistance, substantial sums of money. In this way, communication and contact between Jewish multimillionaires and Jewish proletarians became more frequent. We can state that the communist movement is part of the general Jewish movement. Some Jewish banks were involved in the organisation of this movement."
> From a report written by the United States secret intelligence services regarding the financing of the Russian Revolution. This report was sent by the US government to all Allied governments during the First World War.

We felt it was both necessary and useful to add a very important point here. Namely: Jacob Schiff, the Jew who financed the Russian Revolution, provided aid amounting to an incredible sum of millions of dollars to the 31 March conspiracy in our country.

All talk of reactionary movements and the like was a lie. Because Sultan Abdulhamid refused to grant the Jews land or sanctuary in Palestine, this crime was committed with Jewish millions, the state was destroyed, and ISRAEL was established. Whilst the Jews spent millions to achieve their aims, not even a penny's worth of aid was expected from Muslim wealthy individuals to save this wretched nation.

Namık had explained the flow of events as ‘eternal death and rebirth’. Today, world history stands at a turning point, and a ‘Ba’sü ba’del mevt’ is awaited.

‘THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT:’

The danger is so great that I consider it my duty to draw the attention of both the British Government and other governments to this matter. If immediate action is not taken to halt Bolshevism, the entire civilisation of the world will be placed under threat. This is no exaggeration but the voice of reason; I believe that the most crucial issue facing humanity is the immediate curbing of Bolshevism. As I stated above, if Bolshevism is not pruned immediately whilst it is still in its infancy, it will take on many forms and spread throughout Europe and the entire world. For this movement has been organised and is being implemented by the Jews, a people without a nation who will not hesitate to destroy all established systems for their own interests.”

Published in 1919 under the title ‘Russia No. 1’ from the confidential report of Britain’s representative in Russia, it was subsequently republished in 1919 by the British War Cabinet under the title ‘A Collection of Reports on Bolshevism in Russia’.

THE MEANS AND ELEMENTS OF THE NEW ORDER

Individuals and nations must not become the economic unifying factor of globalists. Nations are organically developed communities comprising diverse races, languages and cultures. However, they can only demonstrate sound and healthy development provided there is no radical interference with their national integrity. In this respect, nationalists cannot endorse either a union under communist rule—which is regarded as the dictatorship of the masses—or the current form of government in so-called democracies as the means for the world's rebirth and salvation.

The time has come to follow a new path. The direction of the goal must be based on the completeness of one's worldview. Only from this central perspective can a new and healthy global movement programme and order be created. This programme will be organised in such a way as to be worthy of the people of the twentieth century, freeing them from being, as they have been until now, the playthings and pawns of the dark forces of globalists, and liberating them from the siege of foreign ideologies and interests.

To date, in international relations, the insights to be gained from social and vital psychology, from knowledge of race, from the supranational dark forces and their finances, and from the forms of government that have come and gone—and their rich historical experiences will be sufficient to create a new synthesis and to establish a new form of state in keeping with our current national consciousness and traditions.

In today's democracies, the true parasites of our general life are international influences, and political parties that target our structure with foreign doctrines in an unnatural manner. In the new solution and new order, the following come to mind:

In the future state administration, which possesses national consciousness, specialised councils should replace political parties; national socialism—a robust synthesis based on the synthesis of capital and labour—should replace Marxism, which is based on class struggle; and a reformed democracy, founded on better principles and freed from the pressure of secret international organisations, should replace today's democracy.

As for finance: MONEY shall be the servant of the people and shall under no circumstances be left in its present state as the servant of high finance. Although states today are ostensibly independent in their financial affairs, in reality most nations are indebted to international Jewish finance. The high Jewish finance possesses such a character as a power above states that it is today the creditor of all nations. This organisation, which possesses various means and privileges, intervenes in world politics at every moment, dictates all its desires, and elevates its profits and interests according to its whims, is managed by a few individuals.

By taking control of sixty per cent of European industry after the Second World War, they began to dominate the underdeveloped countries.

From a financial perspective, if the Jewish high finance can be liquidated for the benefit of the nations' welfare, a significant portion of the turmoil playing a crucial role in the lives of all nations will disappear in a short time.

. In this way, by eliminating the agents and servants of the Jewish high finance present in all countries, the eternal peace and true independence that humanity has long desired will come to pass.

The intrigues of the notorious Jewish minority will thus come to an end, and in the future, nations devouring one another will also become a thing of the past.

CONCLUSION!

In the pages we have read so far, we have seen that the primary driving force behind the decline of Western civilisation is Judaism, its financial system, and its servants—the secret organisations and perverse ideologies—and we have examined this with examples and documents... To fully bring this crucial point to life, we have found and listed many vivid examples. Now, esteemed reader, having read these details that you would not have seen elsewhere, you will see the very heart of the disaster; you will grasp more clearly the reasons for the decline of the West, the collapse of morality, and the disappearance of peace and happiness.

We shall come to understand more clearly the true nature of the real causes behind the 1908 revolution, the 31 March massacre, and the calamities and disasters that have befallen us in the last century.

A statement by General George Washington, the founder of the United States of America, regarding the Jews:

> 'The Jews work against us more effectively than enemy armies. They are a hundred times more dangerous to the cause and freedom for which we are fighting than open enemies. It is a matter of great that every state has not long since purged them from our society as vermin. They are the greatest enemies of America's happiness."

This passage is taken from the book Maxims of George Washington, written about George Washington. The authors are A. A. Appleton and Partners, and it is taken from page 125 of the book, published in 1894.

* * *

We have now deemed it necessary to add some notes here. Great figures such as George Washington and Franklin, the founders of the United States of America, cried out in despair upon realising just how destructive, subversive and dangerous the Jews were. Although the billionaire Henry Ford, a prominent figure of our time, has also warned his nation against this through his work The International Jew, no one has been able to eliminate the Jewish threat or their presence.

Setting that aside, Jewish dominance in America has now reached its peak.

Despite the efforts of millions of people and their esteemed leaders—senators, generals, admirals, nationalist newspapers, governors, and a vast number of upright and self-sacrificing individuals—those shameless creatures are steadily increasing their influence and power.

The following examples may be cited:

The late President Roosevelt, a Jewish convert, had twenty-seven Jewish advisers. Today, Kennedy has 86 Jewish advisers. The point that is truly noteworthy and of the utmost importance is that the Jews have taken over and infiltrated the United Nations from top to bottom. Below, we present a list compiled as a result of rigorous

, we present below a list compiled through rigorous research and investigation; there can be no doubt that the reader will be filled with astonishment and horror upon reading it.

Indeed!… The Jewish people, numbering a mere 15 million out of a global population of two and a half billion, have thus completely taken over the United Nations organisation, which plays a major role in the destinies of nations and states. This minority, the unrivalled owner of the world's arms factories, has destroyed humanity, civilisation, peace, prosperity and happiness by creating war whenever it pleases, revolution whenever it pleases, and chaos whenever it pleases..

It is unknown how much longer humanity will endure the activities of these saboteurs. Perhaps on the day nations fully and clearly recognise the true nature of this calamitous element!

This book was written for that very purpose!

AMERICA

Voices of salvation are rising against the 'one-world' Zionists and their lackeys, who have reduced civilisation to its present wretched and miserable state and plunged humanity into a situation of despair and unrest; countless heroes are stepping onto the stage and throwing themselves into the struggle.

Having secured control of the waterways during the reign of Edward VII, and are now, through the formidable organisations they have established in America, expending their final efforts against all of humanity. Against this accursed force, many senators, thinkers, members of Congress, state governors, and—most notably—generals, admirals and heroes have embarked upon a war of liberation.

A book of this size would not suffice to list the names of all these liberators. They are restraining the reckless, spoiled and insolent Jew's mad onslaught and instilling courage and hope in humanity. Naturally, human understanding is gradually—no, rapidly—beginning to grasp the source and representatives of its own calamity.

This work dissects the activities of our age-old enemies—who, after centuries of unchecked aggression, are now making their final, frenzied efforts, having bought consciences with the millions upon millions they have spent and established countless organisations—and to destroy civilisation. We must believe that the end of these ill-fated endeavours is at hand.

This work exposes the signs of a democracy in decay and a civilisation in decline. It is clear that the administrative power and authority of individual governments are no longer sufficient to purge these elements of disease from the body of the people. We have been turning a blind eye to this process of decay, pretending not to understand it. And we believe the time has come to mobilise the defensive elements of each nation, in accordance with its own constitution, to organise its life and defend itself in its own style and tradition.

We therefore believe that, thanks to the cooperation of the vigilant nationalists and patriots that every nation will produce, those dark-souled, soulless individuals who seek to carry out the plans of the globalists will soon meet with failure. Just as we stand against the ambitions of red imperialism—which has subjugated half of Europe—to seize the entire world, we are resisting in the same manner against the true masters of the United Nations organisation—which, under the guise of left-wing liberalism, is bringing Africa into its sphere of control, and which is 98 per cent Jewish and has become a mere puppet—the globalists (the Jew Bernard Baruch and his associates).

Just how well they get along when it comes to dividing up the world has become abundantly clear in the recent events in Cuba. We have read above how American generals and high-ranking officers have shown resistance and defiance against this situation.

Both communist propaganda and the current form of Americanism propaganda is doomed to failure. For both are opposed to national consciousness and serve supra-national powers.

The American G. W. Mills, who has closely examined the front and rear lines of the individuals and forces representing the government in America, makes some noteworthy revelations in his book *The Elite of *the United States.

The author states:

> 'American government policy is in the hands of a few individuals and a small clique. This clique is accused of extreme immorality, soullessness, savagery and organised irresponsibility. The author explains in full detail how the shapers of public opinion operate, how bribery—a Jewish invention—has been taken to the extreme, and how it has been turned into a natural technique in the hands of this minority."

* * *

The struggle against cultural decline, which began in 1789, has intensified steadily and continues to this day. Essentially, this struggle has been waged between nations, pitting mature, well-formed forces possessing a creative and constructive spirit and style against forces of a negative and destructive nature. The duty of bringing this struggle to a definitive victory and conclusion falls to the chosen, distinguished and sensible sons and daughters of every nation's younger generation. It is evident that, throughout the world, these individuals are increasingly coming together to cooperate and uniting around this great ideal.

Furthermore, the conscious nationalists of all nations are moving towards a united destiny, and in the near future, nationalist forces will stand against the single world-and all organisations aiding them, thereby eradicating the perverse ideology of world domination and a world state that they desire and have planned. This opportunity lies today in the hands of the right-wing sons of every nation who have been shamed by so many calamities and have come to their senses.

* * *

Given that communists, social democrats, Zionists, Jews and other groups have the right to establish international organisations to protect their interests, who could possibly prevent nationalist forces from coming together and working on the international stage? There is no doubt that, in the future, nationalists will also convene international congresses, just like other political organisations.

The fronts are becoming clear. And the era of half-truths is now coming to an end. One of the first conditions for a nationalist world front is the unification of nationalist groups in all countries, their agreement on a few key principles, and the credibility of every participating member...

Up to now, the unification movements desired by nationalists on the international stage have been sabotaged by agents of international Jewry and their servants, the Freemason organisations. By infiltrating nationalist groups—particularly with masked nationalists—they have, at short intervals, incited many nations to attack one another and sparked wars. We could cite many examples, such as the First and Second World Wars...

In this regard, at the current stage of the struggle, all nationalists worldwide must agree on fundamental issues and establish a World Nationalist Front. Should this movement succeed, the establishment of an organisation will be discussed in the future. Within the Nationalist Front, there must be no infighting

We must put a definitive end to this. For, ultimately, they all seek to achieve the same goal. Even if their paths differ, since strength arises from unity, any action that weakens that unity will only serve the interests of the Jews and Marxists against whom we are fighting.

We must take a leaf out of the Communist front's book regarding discipline. Even if they march in different directions, they fight under common slogans and allow no infighting within their ranks. In serious situations, we see all leftists united in a popular front, clinging tightly to one another. (From the most ardent communist to the left-wing liberal) all nationalists of the world, unite! Make an eternal pact, unite your main principles, and work together under a new slogan of struggle! Then, seeing that the united nationalist groups have become a force to be reckoned with, all political organisations will be compelled to take this strength into account. You must establish discussion circles in all cities, provinces and regions. In this way, an atmosphere of solidarity will be created; when the time is ripe, the nation will send its distinguished candidates to the World Nationalist Assembly and establish the realm of nationalists.

It was the Marxists who coined the most widespread political battle cry of the last century: 'Workers of the world, unite!' As an antithesis to this, we are publishing the following SLOGAN—which we consider the most suitable means of fostering a spirit of solidarity amongst all the world's nationalists, and which is already widely used by many nationalist groups across the globe—in opposition to the Marxists:

"Nationalists of the world, unite and join the common struggle!"

Awaken from the slumber induced by the creators of public opinion. You must cast aside timidity. And seek out the truths hidden beneath the mountain of lies. Make it your duty to distinguish the bad from the good

, and make it your duty to read the books that record the truths.[1] Protest, either verbally or in writing, against the lies disseminated by the mass media (radio, newspapers, cinema). Bring historical truths to light from the books written by impartial scholars.

Support the healthy nationalist elements of your nation by keeping them active and engaged. Put a stop to left-wing movements. We are certain that the spirit of true unity will soon become a reality. And the unification of all the world's nationalists will come to pass. At this very moment, unite your forces against the greatest danger facing our world and strive to form a united front against the enemies of humanity. For freedom, one must choose between a cowardly duty and a brave struggle. The annals of world history will record whether we have fulfilled the duty of the world that lies ahead of us, or whether we have cowardly abandoned our generation. (I know one thing: the only thing that never dies in this world is the judgement passed on a dead man).

FINAL WORDS

We have added to this book important documents and valuable analyses regarding how, from the day humanity first became self-aware until the present day, the destructive movements unfolding across the earth have been exploited by certain organisations and a minority to annihilate human societies, pit them against one another, and through the shedding of blood, the extinction and destruction of nations. These are the fruit of extensive research and investigation.

The abhorrent activities of the 'Sons of Israel'—the agents of disaster upon the earth—which began with attacks on religions and the desecration and destruction of sacred sites, have continued to intensify, leaving behind a trail of rubble, corpses and ruins, right up to the present day.

All the masterpieces, monuments, civilisations and cultural achievements—the fruits of human genius and labour—are now being watched with bitter sorrow by all of humanity as they are debased and destroyed by the Jews, the Freemasons who are their slaves, and the various subversive organisations allied with them. In line with this objective view, humanity sees itself in a state of profound helplessness. Behind us, we have left nothing but a mountain of corpses numbering in the hundreds of millions and horrific ruins, all within the last fifty years. In these ruins, which have long since become owls' nests, nothing but smoke and decay could be seen. Even the sounds of wailing and groaning have ceased to be heard.

Thanks to human determination and endeavour, the world—revived after its resurrection—began to see the works of civilisation and civilisation rise once more; indeed, even more magnificent and dazzling than before... However; in contrast to this outward and ostentatious existence, the moral decay within souls, the dreadful collapse observed in morality, virtue and ethics—in short, the spiritual ruin of a society whose foundations have long since crumbled—is plain for even the simplest of minds to see, as it is dragged from civilisation towards barbarism amidst the trappings of a superficial splendour.

The information and additional details provided in this work regarding who and how civilisation—and, to put it more definitively, the nobility of the human spirit—has been destroyed and brought to ruin are witnessed by everyone living today, and the pain of it is felt deep in their hearts.

Now, we wish to reinforce the factors that have reduced humanity to this state—spiritually killing it, extinguishing the nobility of souls, and destroying ancient civilisations—along with the appalling role played by the Children of Israel in this matter, with fresh examples and vivid evidence. In the light of these examples, dear reader, you will find it possible to penetrate deeper into the nature of this affliction and gain a somewhat clearer understanding of the true nature of events whose secrets have yet to be revealed.

Now, we shall speak of a new Jewish or Zionist organisation. Perhaps its name is not widely known; it is the Rotary Clubs.

From the darkest and most ancient periods of history right up to our own time, wherever a society established with Jewish support has come into being in any corner of the world, that society has, in the shortest possible time, acquired universal and international significance.

From the dawn of human consciousness, there has been a trace of the influence of rabbis, Jews and Freemasons in everything from the most philosophical schools of thought to social, economic and political doctrines and inventions. This is precisely why, wherever mankind has gathered around a particular idea or interpretation, instead of peace and tranquillity, they have witnessed cities and villages where suffering, despair and execution scaffolds are ever-present...

Although atheism stands at the forefront of perverse ideologies; what has nihilism, materialism, naturalism, cosmopolitanism and, finally, COMMUNISM, ever brought to the sons of man, and what sort of happiness have they brought? Nothing at all! Therefore, since these philosophical doctrines have brought us nothing, what could the Rotary Club—founded in 1904 in Chicago, USA, by a Greek Jew who was a 33rd-degree Freemason—possibly offer us?!

This Rotary Club, established in Chicago in 1904, has opened nearly ten thousand branches in over a hundred countries—excluding those behind the Iron Curtain—and today has some five hundred and sixty thousand members.

If there are any shipowners, wealthy individuals, industrialists, bankers, large landowners, landlords, cartelists and trust-holders who are power-hungry, greedy, self-serving, fame-seeking and lustful, they have all been fully registered as members of the Rotary Club. The chambers of commerce and stock exchanges in the provinces and districts are also entirely under the control and supervision of this club.

When asked what their aims and objectives are, the answer given is as follows:

'To develop international economic cooperation amongst capitalists, cartels, trusts and millionaires, and thereby put an end to economic hardship and eradicate poverty...'

This response, a classic example of Jewish hypocrisy, has satisfied no one in the world. Especially not those those with research and experience in this field!

Are our fellow Rotarians, those gentlemen so committed to the fight against poverty, really going to fulfil this ‘humanitarian’ (!) duty and combat poverty by attending whisky, vodka and champagne parties every Saturday night in the magnificent halls of that famous hotel, in the company of those beautiful ladies in their well-known low-cut dresses? Is that how it is? Naive humanity has believed in such nonsense for centuries, but now the number of people who fall for Jewish lies has dwindled considerably, whilst Jewish zeal and agitation have increased greatly. One must ask such people: Will you achieve these endeavours through your rotten society and corrupt faith? Undoubtedly, the poorest Rotaryan brother amongst you is a man worth four or five million. Since you claim to be fighting poverty, there are hundreds of high-ranking construction contractors, trusts or cartels amongst you who have earned the admiration and praise of Rotarians from other countries. What service have these ‘super’ Rotarians rendered to the underdeveloped, destitute regions of this country up to now? What benefit have these so-called humanitarians brought to the living corpses—those citizens who were as good as dead even before they were born—struggling to survive in tin shacks and shanty towns in Turkey’s four or five major cities, with families of at least six or seven members? Since their establishment in our country, how many orphans and how many poor children have the Rotary brothers clothed and sent to school?

Gentlemen of the Rotary and Freemasonry, can you provide the nation with answers to these questions? The nation has awakened. That very mass which you have always looked down upon, treated with contempt, and accused of barbarism—know this: they are now beginning to understand your true nature. We continue to explain. The manner in which the civilisation you have destroyed has come to this state is slowly beginning to be understood.

Serving World Jewry and seeking to destroy civilisation from within through various guises and underground activities

If there were even a shred of humanity, conscience or understanding in all these shadowy organisations, they would have to sink seven leagues into the earth out of shame... The people of every nation, both rural and urban, have been reduced to a state of virtual captivity by such entities; these invisible forces, which dominate import and export firms, stock exchanges and even global markets, hold all circulating currency under their monopoly. Every year, not hundreds of millions, but hundreds of billions flow into their steel vaults, yet these false humanitarians cannot bring themselves to take action to put an end to human misery. On the contrary, they are busy preparing new wars and thereby adding to their boundless wealth. Service to humanity, justice, brotherhood and equality are nothing but empty words and hypocrisy on their lips...

Thus, upon realising the danger posed by world Jewry and Freemasonry—and sensing that the majority of humanity had grasped these calamities—they established a den of corruption in Chicago in 1904 under the guise of the Rotary Club, and with the participation of the world's wealthy and famous Freemasons-Masons, they established yet another supra-national organisation. I have come to realise that our nation, which has begun to penetrate the full repulsive nature and subversive existence of Freemasonry, still possesses very little information regarding the ROTARYANS.

We can state from the outset that there is very little difference between this new organisation and Freemasonry. Both are the exclusive property of the Jews and both are spiritual brothers. Both feed on the misfortunes and tears of nations. In our country, in addition to three thousand Freemasons, there are around four thousand members of Rotary-Masonic clubs. It is truly astonishing that this organisation, whose name you have only just heard, has penetrated as far as certain provinces and established its strongholds there. Naturally, it is the indifference of our wealthy and educated elite—who cannot bring themselves to spare a few pennies from their pockets for nationalist works and newspapers, and whose hearts hold no room for even the slightest generosity or interest in this cause—it is their indifference that allows these subversive elements to freely penetrate even the most remote corners.

If we allow such people to weave their webs of corruption before our very eyes in our beloved homeland, speaking openly yet acting as if blind, and if our only concern is our own precious lives, the authors of tomorrow will inform future generations of the existence of even newer and more dangerous organisations. But why bother? Right before our eyes, as Zionists, Communists and Freemasons carry out their wicked deeds with all their negative efforts and the money they squander like water, the situation—whether new elements have been added or not—cannot be made any worse... Especially whilst we are plagued by this negligence, ignorance and indifference, and our wealthy are so miserly...

In recent days, all eyes have turned to foreign aid. Our newspapers have spoken at length about the 'Consortium' set up in Europe to aid Turkey. In our view, the 'Consortium' is a tremendous bluff. Essentially, the Rotarian Freemasons have already plundered Turkey far more than was ever possible. Have they left us with the strength to endure a second plunder from the very start? Everything we have heard on this matter is nothing but a drug-induced delusion...

When influential figures take to the stage and say:

— 'We are neither right-wing nor left-wing'... And another shouts:

— 'Friends, we are footballers, we are footballers!' and thus the words fall not to the ground but to the boots, would it not be too much trouble to consult the legendary pages of state literature to predict the outcome of the conspiracy?!..

It is a fact that Rotaryan Freemasons have played a significant role in the local uprisings and attempts to overthrow governments that have occurred in many places, starting with the Congo.

From now on, it is sheer folly to expect or hope that the world's bloc-aligned states will set out to conquer nations through military might and force. The fate awaiting the nations of the world henceforth is the outbreak of economic wars under the pretext of 'Social Justice' and the opening of a new era of economic enslavement.

On this matter, we once again see the Jew—the world's perennial plunderer—at the forefront, and in a state where his activities have reached their peak... Countries in unspoilt Africa—such as Kenya, Uganda, Liberia, Malaga, Tanganyika, Ghana and Abyssinia—which have only just broken their chains of bondage, have entered into agreements with the Jews and have already commenced extensive commercial relations with Israel. To sell all manner of goods to these nations, Israel has begun courting Africans by pouring millions into companies such as ZIM, MEKORD, SOLEL-BONE and AMIRAM. America's great Jewish billionaires have also turned their attention to these virgin and wealthy lands.

At the 25th Zionist Congress, a decision was taken for the Israeli government to supply goods worth twenty billion lira to Asia and Africa.

The Israeli trade representative, Pinas Sapir, has been tasked with implementing this decision. In Africa, the Karen Heysodi organisation is securing billions for Israel to ensure these decisions are carried out. The ZİM and SOLE-BONE companies have effectively taken control of the world's trade and economy.

This SOLE-BONE Jewish company has also extended its reach to Turkey and has undertaken major construction and road works in our blessed country. Whilst our Technical Universities and academies send hundreds of Turkish minds into the workforce every year,

, yet the fact that we have awarded the road projects carried out in Istanbul and Ankara in recent years to these Jewish companies cannot be justified or explained in any way.

The ‘American-Israeli Corporation’ has extended its reach as far as Indonesia in Asia. These Jewish organisations have seen no harm in extending their networks of plunder as far as Western countries and have set about seeking peaceful solutions. However, in recent days, the attempts by Arab states to unite have thrown the Jews into a panic and caused them great alarm.

Jewish companies seeking to operate the diamond mines in Tanganyika have been rebuffed by the independent and progressive national government of Southern Africa and have been unable to gain a foothold in this, the world’s richest country. It is for this reason that the entire press under the command of world Jewry has launched a terrible smear and disinformation campaign against this nationalist government.

* * *

Since 1904, every shipowner, cartel member, trust executive, industrialist, banker, hotel and property magnate, and large-scale landowner who has held positions within the Rotaryan Masonic organisation—not a single one of them has undertaken even the slightest positive action to ensure social justice or establish economic stability.

It is claimed that Rotary Freemasonry is a fraternal organisation serving economic cooperation between states. This, too, is a fabrication concocted to deceive those who still retain their innocence.

All these organisations are Jewish agents and servants working for Israel

* * *

Let us not lose heart or lose our courage. Despite all these events and occurrences, a future that is by no means stable or secure awaits the Zionists and the global Freemasonry, which has cloaked itself in various guises.

Undoubtedly, the topic most frequently discussed in recent days is the ‘Common Market’ rhetoric. To put it plainly, this is an organisation created by Western Rotary Freemasons, hostile to national institutions and private enterprise.

In recent years, in various parts of the country, national institutions have begun to emerge, albeit sporadically, through the efforts of certain enterprising individuals. The Zionists and their lackeys, the Rotarian Freemasons, have become alarmed by this and have put forward the idea of the ‘Common Market’.

For us, there is neither any obligation nor benefit in joining the ‘Common Market’. Perhaps there is a necessity for nations that have advanced in heavy industry to participate in this market.

At the international fairs, where nations have secured firm footholds within the ‘Common Market’ controlled by the Rotarian Freemasons, the goods we would exhibit are very few, whilst our competitors are very many.

Alongside all these economic considerations and concerns, and given the all-pervading influence of our own internal situation, we are by no means exempt from the necessity of always keeping this in mind and taking it into account. Following the War of Independence and the national struggle; to denigrate our glorious and majestic past, to look down upon our forefathers, and to instil in the younger generations certain erroneous notions that cannot be remedied or compensated for, is to lead our nation into a time of—

He has knowingly and willingly exposed us to the danger of falling into our enemies' trap. We must believe that any initiative we undertake on this basis will yield no result other than leading our nation into fresh capitulations in the future, and we must take precautions accordingly.

* * *

We wish to conclude our work by adding some new information to all these considerations... Four or five years ago, on the island of CUBA, a coup was staged against the nationalist General Batista government by a bearded individual named FIDEL CASTRO. When we revealed that there was a Zionist and international Masonic hand behind this affair, there were those who paid no heed to our thesis. Indeed, a few apostate journalists in Izmir and Istanbul even hailed Fidel Castro—who is of Jewish origin and a Marxist—in their newspapers with large headlines reading 'VIVA', meaning 'Long Live Castro'.

The peoples of the world, lulled to sleep by the opium of communism, have been led to believe that the so-called 'Maximo'—the 'lover of freedom'—has fled; yet today, with Havana at its centre, the dreadful secret police terror organisation known as 'G. 2' has spread its reach to even the smallest villages of Cuba, striking terror into the hearts of the people.

The tragic aspect of the matter is this: starting with the twenty renowned Freemason masters in Havana, a total of four hundred and sixty high-ranking Freemasons throughout this small country have actively served within this very 'G. 2' police organisation.

According to reliable national publications, within three or four years, two thousand six hundred and fifty nationalists in Cuba were subjected to the horrific tortures of the 'G. 2' chiefs and were killed in agony.

There is now no doubt in anyone's mind that these provocations against nationalists all over the world are the work of the same Jewish, Communist and apostate Freemason sources. Indeed, even in our beloved homeland, where ninety-five per cent of the population is conservative, religious and nationalist, we have seen from the recent ugly incidents how the underground forces lying in wait against this front have surfaced at the slightest pretext. How fortunate we would be if we had taken a lesson and learned from this! No, no; after all the disasters this nation has endured and the assassinations it has suffered, it no longer needs to learn another lesson. Alas, because no man has emerged who could lead or be a generous benefactor, this front is always, and unfortunately, seen to be in a defeated state despite its numerical superiority. The nation's ill fortune!...

Those who examine the situation with a discerning eye will not see a Jew, a Freemason, or a Rotary brother criticising either Fidel Castro or the murders committed. For this Castro, above all else, has placed his trust in the dreadful Jewish 'B'n Brit' organisation in New York and the Rotarian Freemasons in Washington...

Cuban nationalists had launched an invasion of Cuba about two years ago. Supposedly, they were going to wage a guerrilla war against the Castroists. What was the result? Nothing! The 'Zionists, British agents and Rotary Freemasons' in New York and Washington had informed the 33rd-degree Freemason in Havana—who is also the current head of 'G. 2'—of this operation long beforehand. Naturally, this landing failed; nationalist martyrs, due to this Jewish treachery, fell into the hands of Castro's communist forces—at least two thousand of them—some were killed, and the rest are now groaning in agony in the 'G. 2' dungeons.

Although this incident initially caused a storm of controversy around the world, the newspapers—all of which are the lackeys of the Jews—suddenly fell silent.

In recent days, the issue of Cuba and the missiles stationed there has suddenly flared up; although President Kennedy made a strong statement and Soviet leader Khrushchev backed down, this comes as no surprise at all. Firstly, the Jewish figures within the Soviet leadership, and subsequently the Freemasons behind the scenes in the Kremlin, gave Khrushchev this order, and he backed down. It has not escaped the notice of those with foresight that this was merely a squabble amongst the crew. Otherwise, the Ukrainian miner might have acted differently. This game is nothing more than ensuring Castro remains in power in Cuba for a while longer, whilst Eastern and Western Rotaryan Freemasons terrify nations with the prospect of a third world war, allowing mountains of war materials and equipment—all of which, led by Bernard Baruch, belong exclusively to Jews— flowing back into their coffers by the trillions of dollars, serving no purpose other than to sate their insatiable greed; humanity has swallowed this treacherous game whole. For there is neither the courage in the pens that might warn against it, nor the funds in the self-sacrificing nationalists who might expose these bitter truths. Since ninety-nine per cent of the world's press is a slave to the Jews, these tragedies, played out in broad daylight before the eyes of all humanity, continue their course, finding human nature silent and helpless amidst the desolate ruins of a civilisation whose spiritual edifice has long since collapsed.

On the day this path is founded upon the will of Allah, the glad tidings contained in the Holy Qur'an and the noble Hadith will be fulfilled, and humanity will be saved.

My esteemed reader,

I take comfort and pride in having devoted my entire life to the service of my nation, having fought tirelessly and undaunted for forty-seven years against the enemies of Muslims and Turks, and having, to the best of my ability, informed my fellow citizens of the calamities they have wrought against our nation and our sacred values through their destructive activities throughout history. To this day, not a single apostate or Freemason has been able to point out an error in any part of the nearly three thousand articles I have written—all without charge or payment—or in the sixty works I have authored. For our entire body of work is nothing but the expression of truth, down to the very last dot and comma... Moreover, as noble men and Muslims, we have never stooped to dipping our pens in the mire of lies and slander, as the Jews do. Honesty and integrity, Islam and Turkishness have been our guiding principles, and for this reason, we have faced no objections other than cowardly and insidious whispers and slanderous lies from behind our backs. Praise and thanks be to Allah a thousand times over!

* * *

As I close the pages of this book, I would also like to mention the atrocities and calamities suffered by our former compatriots and fellow believers; for some reason, these have not been recorded or brought to the attention of our nation. I felt it would be beneficial to document them in this work:

In the years 1940–1941, the Germans had occupied the Balkans from end to end. General Mihailović, a 33rd-degree Freemason from Serbia, had established a large organisation under the name ‘Četnik’. Approximately eighteen hundred die-hard Freemasons were actively serving in these Chetnik units. From 1941 to 1944, these committee members killed two hundred and fifty thousand Muslim Turks—women, men and children alike—and brutally and barbarically slaughtered and exterminated each one with automatic weapons. Their entire guilt

It was simply a matter of being 'Muslim'. They had been offered the chance to become Christians. Had they accepted, they would have been spared. These believers did not do so, and for that reason they were destroyed and annihilated. The Jews have plunged the world into an uproar with the slander of the murder of six million Jews, and whilst these cries continue with increasing intensity even though more than twenty years have passed, not the slightest murmur of protest or the simplest show of concern has been seen from us in defence of those innocent Muslims, most of whom are the children of the conquering armies. One ought to weep over this helplessness and indifference, yet even that has not been done.

Towards the end of 1944, when the 'Četniks' were defeated by Tito's partisans, some four hundred and fifty Freemason Četniks sought refuge in Izmir via the Thessaloniki sea route. They were coming to Muslim Turkish lands without the slightest sense of apprehension or shame. As if these were not the very murderers who had killed two hundred and fifty thousand Muslim Turks...

Led by the Masonic civil governor of Izmir at the time, we opened our arms to this pack of murderers and killers, lavishing them with generous gifts from the 'Tahsisat-ı Mesture = Hidden Allowance', and embraced these butchers with deep sincerity.

Although the Tito regime demanded the extradition of these Masonic criminals to Yugoslavia, our Masons refused to comply and went so far as to send these Muslim murderers to Canada.

By 1945, when Tito had gained complete control of Yugoslavia, battalions of Freemasons began to swarm around him, led by Maše Pijala, who was both the head of the Skopje Freemasons and the leader of the Jews. Under this Jew's directive, the secret 'OZNA' organisation was established to keep provinces such as Western Macedonia, Serbia, Slovakia, Montenegro and Croatia under its own control and supervision.

. Some two or three thousand Freemasons immediately joined this gang of murderers in 1945. This organisation of killers also murdered seventy-eight thousand Muslim Turks in various provinces of Yugoslavia between 1945 and 1947. The reason? It is so simple and painful that even speaking or writing it burns one's heart: because their circumstances and livelihoods were good... In modern terms, because they were bourgeois...

In 1948, the aforementioned OZNA was disbanded and replaced by an organisation called the 'U.D.B.', which was far worse and far more powerful than its predecessor. These individuals have taken upon themselves the task of annihilating, without the slightest hesitation, every last member of the pure-blooded Turks and devout Muslims—the border guards and vanguard of conquest brought from Central Asia by the descendants of Oğuz Khan. Gypsies, apostates and those who have sold their consciences are exempt from this oppression and persecution!...

What part of civilisation remains unravaged?!

To revive it is the duty of all the nationalist sons of the world...

A SPEECH

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, one of the founders of the United States of America, whose fame has spread throughout the world, delivered the following historic speech at the 1789 session of the American Founding Congress:

'Gentlemen!

Wherever they have settled, the Jews have disrupted the normal standard of living and undermined the honour and dignity of trade. They have always kept their distance from the host nation and failed to integrate. They have established a government within the government, and when opposed, they have sought to strangle the resisting nation financially and economically. Recent events in Spain and Portugal also demonstrate this. For over 1,700 years, the Jews have been complaining. In particular, they claim to be stateless and seek assistance from other nations.

But gentlemen, even if the civilised world were to grant them 'PALESTINE' today, many Jews would still find all manner of excuses not to go there. What is the reason for this?

is that bats cannot feed off the backs of other vampires!

These Jewish vampires cannot make a living amongst themselves; they live off the backs of other nations, of those of different faiths and races.

If the Jews are not expelled from the United States by Parliament, within less than a hundred years they will launch such an invasion of our country that they will dominate us and destroy us.

Not content with that, they will gradually transform the America we have built through every kind of sacrifice, giving it a completely different shape and identity. If we do not expel the Jews, within less than two hundred years our children will be working in the fields, feeding their Jewish masters with hands numb from labour, lost in a state of bliss.

Gentlemen!

I warn you: if we do not expel the Jews, our grandchildren will curse their great-grandfathers years from now. Although they have lived among us for ten generations, they have not adopted the American way of thinking. After all, a hyena's nature never changes. I repeat: the Jews are a danger to these lands; the Jews could destroy our very existence. They must be expelled from this homeland by law!"

This far-sighted speech, delivered by Benjamin Franklin one hundred and seventy-four years ago, has today come to pass in its entirety, as events have clearly demonstrated. Today, the Jews have taken America into their hands and have taken full possession of it. This situation is explained with examples in this work.

As Franklin said, the generation of today is cursing this INVISIBLE invader.

But that is not all; the self-sacrificing sons of this nation have begun to resist and rebel to put an end to this tragic situation. Among them, the nation's finest sons—including senators, state governors, generals, admirals, thinkers and journalists—have taken up the struggle.

Just as in England, all hell has now broken loose in America too; a war unlike any history has ever witnessed has begun to drive out the Jewish scourge. The efforts expended in this regard and the sums of money spent for this cause are truly of a magnitude that will boost our courage.

The number of great men leading this war is so vast that volumes would not suffice to list their names one by one.

This detestable clique, which is working not only to destroy America but civilisation as a whole, is no longer left to its own devices... The high-ranking military officers whose names we listed on the previous page are working with all their might to save civilisation. As each of these individuals has served in the highest echelons of the army, they have witnessed with their own eyes all the bitter truths that have escaped the common people's notice and have raised the flag. The vast majority of their nation stands behind these heroes. Yet, the Jewish organisation's terrifying and, to that extent, bewildering actions are attempting to conceal this liberation drive from the world.

Today, nations are engaged in a cold war. The Jews are working with all their might to turn this into a hot war. The arms industry is in their unrivalled hands. On the other hand, the enlightened sons of America, the world's leader, are striving to save humanity from a third war and civilisation from destruction.

To this end, they have thrown themselves into it wholeheartedly and are working with all their might.

As Muslims, we believe so deeply, so deeply in the divine promise that 'There is disgrace for them in this world and a great torment in the Hereafter'—we believe in this divine promise so deeply, so deeply that…
